Introduction

Jesus -- Not A Jew

Seemingly, in every age, since the advent of the Christian Church, a book or writing, like a messenger, comes along which vociferously and indignantly silences the false teachings and heresies of it's day. From the writings of St. Paul, the early church fathers, Augustine, Acquinas, Abelard, St. Francis of Assisi, Luther, Wesley, and scores of others there has always been a "generational" witness against the heresies of that particular era. Especially right and proper has this been when such erroneous teaching has become almost universally accepted by the so-called "purveyors of truth", usually those individuals who speak from a voiceless, and stagnant church age such as this one.

Such a book is this one.

In an age when much false teaching abounds, Jack Mohr has scripturally and historically "slammed the door" on one such false teaching, namely that our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ was a Jew and thus, Christianity sprang from Judaism.

Mohr exposes the hypocritical facade and lack of in-depth research into this vitally important subject in a myriad of ways and from a wide range of sources. With careful attention to true historical analysis, he effectively dismantles the monstrous apparition created over the centuries by a deceived and gullible populace which has been led and controlled by tired, lazy, "so called" scholars who willingly accept any and all information spoon-fed to them in colleges and seminaries across the land.

He begins this expose' by reviewing the true historical facts surrounding the times and message of the apostle, St. Paul. References to Paul's missionary direction and his denunciation of "Ebionite" teaching, (that Christianity sprang from Judaism) prove conclusively that the early church did not espouse a JudaeoChristian theology, but, on the contrary, adamantly opposed such a teaching. The careful and meticulous extrication of Judaizing influences in the early church by the apostles is further noted as a causative factor in maintaining it's purity. By carefully detailing the antithetical differences between Judaism and Christianity, he very astutely cuts away at the fabric of Judeo-Christian philosophy. Such differences include the all encompassing aspect of Christianity compared to the egotistical exclusiveness of Judaism.

His very credible sources further detail plans of a universal Jewish conspiracy with references to taped and written interviews, writings (Jewish Protocols), events that have transpired right here in the U.S., infiltration techniques, "modus operandi", and most importantly, the manifest "fruits" of Judaism proving them to be the enemies of our Lord.

His proof that the province of Galilee (dwelling place of Christ), was non-Jewish coupled with a complete historical look at the land of Galilee, including a survey of it's geographical terrain all combine to make oft-time boring factual data more invigorating and interesting. The numerous varieties of people who settled in and around the area of Galilee (practically all of whom eventually became the progenitors of European and Scandinavian stock) testify to God's providential intervention in maintaining an area of comparative purity and productivity destitute of overriding Jewish influence. The influence of Greek culture and language upon the people in and around the area of Galilee were the prime movers in the promotion of the physical and spiritual beauty of that region. Both by temperamental and physiological differences, Mohr proves the people of Galilee were not at all like their neighbors to he south, the Judeans. Thus, this area provided the perfect setting for our Lord's human growth and development.

Upon reading his detailed descriptions of the character and nature of Jesus Christ one is left aghast at those who would even remotely compare Him with the Jew. By a careful analysis of the arrest and trial of Christ, Mohr rightly lays claim to the premise that Jesus Christ in no wise exemplified the personality traits of the apostate crowd who instigated the whole affair. This highly factual information regarding Christ is supported by historians of that era and even a letter discovered to have been written by Pontious Pilate to emperor Nero describing in some detail the physical appearance of Christ including His demeanor and countenance.

The historical life and times of Jesus is further meticulously surveyed with emphasis upon

(1) Christ's rejection of Jewish Messiahship

(2) His attitude toward Gentiles

(3) and finally, as noted, His trial and crucifixion, all of which reveal his character, temperament, and objectives as being totally antithetical to the personality and objectives of His Jewish adversaries.

The trials, tests, and even apostolic confrontations encountered by Christianity in the first century and while escaping from Jewish influence, epitomize the common practices experienced by true believers of all succeeding ages.

As one reads the episodes of vivid accounts of confrontations of Paul and Peter, the firm verbal and written exhortations made by the Apostle Paul against adherences to Jewish philosophy, dogma, and fables he is gripped with the realization that nothing has really changed since that time. The constant haranguing and persistent historical confrontations between these two distinctly different theological philosophies prompted diligent oversight from the apostles and leaders of 1st Century Christendom. Even today among those who truly understand the issues does this scenario perpetuate itself.

Mohr cites the confusion interjected by various scriptural translations has contributed in a large matter to the ambiguity in scriptural interpretation and thus, proved a valuable tool to Jewish influence.

The clarion call of "we must act now" screams from Mohr's writings as he indignantly and vociferously voices the concerns of multitudes across this land, those who truly understand the evil, cancerous system at work.

An indictment against compromising Christians is rightly resounded as their acceptance of the fallacious doctrine of Jesus was a Jew combined with the acceptance of His doctrine as springing from Jewish doctrine has rendered most pulpits across the land as barren and ineffectual.

Furthermore, as America's pulpits have increasingly leaned toward the Jewish concept of universal brotherhood, (with them as "big brother") and global One-Worldism, the unction and anointing so prominent among 17th and 18th pulpiteers has likewise departed the sanctuary, giving way to watered-down, milk toast sermons having little spiritual value.

The arrogant boast of Jewish antiquity is exposed as fallacious and without historical merit with references to the early Sumerian (Mesopotamian River Valley) inhabitants (5,000 BC) as not being Jews but Aryans who were forerunners of the Semitic people (not Jews) who later settled there.

The author factually declares that the Jews have not changed since their origination which began even before the Assyrian captivity of 745 - 721 BC and reaching the high water mark with the Babylonian captivity in 606-586 BC. Quotes from Roman and contemporary historians add credence to the claims of Jewish subterfuge and chicanery. Even the early church fathers, who because of intense stress and persecution were perhaps inclined to be more tolerant than the average Christian of today, noted their disapproval of Jewish influence. Rulers, Czars, and Presidents all have acknowledged similar reactions to the Jewish problem prevalent in their time. American generals of times past noted the despairingly ineffectiveness of attempted disciplinary assimilation of these people.

Perhaps the significant witness of all, however, has come from the pen of the Jew himself. Brazenly and arrogantly acknowledging their goals, Jewish writers have continued on their road of anticipated world conquest.

Even with all this boundless deluge of information available, thousands of pastors in Evangelical and Fundamental churches, Mohr says, still stubbornly refuse to look at truth. He rightly laments the fact that because of "the binding cords" of denominational dogma and tradition these pastors and leaders have inadvertently set the stage for a final showdown between these two mutually exclusive beliefs.

Because of the Jews' intense hatred for Christ and His church, coupled with the world-wide acceptance of the doctrine of the New World Order and it's accompanying Jewish implementations, the final manifested "showdown" of the ages is to occur. From both a scriptural and historical point of view it's inevitability is certain.

Any true Christian believer who would ever have the opportunity to look upon the pages of the Jewish "Bible", the Babylonian Talmud, could never come away from such an experience the same person, believing the same thing as before about Judaism. The author further exposes Jewish teaching by simply allowing this Jewish book to speak for itself. His review of the historical information surrounding the compilations of the now 63 volume set, along with the precariously attempted sanitized versions, both adamantly testify to the inconsistencies of the Jewish mind in any proposed attempt at dissemination of truth. The open admittance on the part of those translators of sanitized editions of having omitted certain portions along with extremely questionable sources employed by the early Pharisaical Elders in compiling the information contained in earlier (and even later) volumes, combine at the very outset of such investigation to question the genuine truthful spirituality of such writings.

The extreme secrecy involved in Jewish thinking in not allowing non-Jews to review their religion, should make any

Christian leery of it's message As the Author meticulously dissects the details of Talmudic Law, one quickly discerns why it's message has been concealed for generations from the unsuspecting. The refinement of Jewish cruelty and inhumaneness is vividly revealed as the forms of capital punishments of offenders of Talmudic Law (not the Torah) are duly noted. Special attention is given to certain acts which automatically call for the death penalty along with the punishments meted out for insignificant "crimes" such as "grinding" (chopping vegetables), "hammering", and paring of toe nails or fingernails. The dichodemus traits of the two "beliefs" becomes overwhelmingly apparent as one reads on into this sordid material, derived from the heathen occult background of Babylon, and practiced long before the advent of Christ on earth.

The several sources of the Talmud which have become available in an English translation further testify to the concealment techniques of these "emissaries of Babylon" and offer no help to the sincere seeker in understanding the source material behind the writings of Judaism. The real "unexpurgated" Talmud edition, the Soncino edition, became available in English simply because there were Jews who could not read Hebrew.

Scripture passages have been conveniently twisted to meet the approval and dictates of the Talmudic sages, says Mohr, revealing the "higher revelations" of the post Babylonian Rabbinic sages over those of the original Torah authors.

Multitudes of scriptures are cited showing Christ's scorn and contempt for these imposter interpreters of Hebrew law, all of which are taken from the New testament disannulling the theories so predominant today in Judaeo-Christian circles that Christ's manifested attributes during His earthly sojourn were only those of love and peace.

Other witness, all through history, have warned if Jews were allowed to remain in the country in just a short time that country would belong to them while the original inhabitants would become their slaves.

Mohr's conclusion is summed up rather succinctly. There is only one formula for survival." It is found in II Chronicles 7:14. God's people must repent. Because this conflict has been from the very outset, intrinsically a spiritual one, it will not be waged with the weapons of the flesh, but rather as we submit to the God of our fathers and implore His blessings as we physically and most importantly, spiritually prepare for the days immediately ahead.

Was Jesus of Nazareth a Jew? Of course not. The historical Biblical, and spiritual evidence is overwhelmingly to the contrary. The author has "laid the axe to the root" of the falseness of this stumbling-block of heresies. It is my sincere prayer that each and everyone privileged to read this account will contemplate, with prayer and re-commitment, the needed return to the commands and dictates of our Lord in eager anticipation of the soon cleansing and restoration of our land.

Not A Jew

One of the most disturbing things now disrupting modern Christianity is a Judaized teaching which has crept into the Christian church within the last 100 years. This heresy erroneously teaches that Jesus Christ, the Son of Almighty God, the Savior of all who believe, came from that group of people who have been anti-Christian from the beginning, and who have openly advocated that Christ and His religion, known as Christianity, must be destroyed. To believe that the teachings of Christ are based on this "God hating" religion, called Judaism, is akin to blasphemy, yet it is the doctrine taught in the majority of our so-called Christian churches, especially among those who are known as Judeo-Christian.

It is the purpose of this book, to attempt to point out, from history and the Scriptures, that the religion of Christ, we now call Christianity, could not possibly come from the heathen religion of Judaism, which teaches a doctrine diametrically opposed to Christianity. It is only as Christians understand this vital truth, that they will be able, in the concluding days of this "age" to defend themselves against a philosophy dedicated to their destruction. It is in the spirit of self preservation, that this book has been written, and it is dedicated to those faithful souls who have had the courage to stand in the face of modern church criticism, for the truth.

In his fascinating book, FACTS ARE FACTS, Dr. Benjamin Freedman, a converted Jew writes: "The utterance by the Christian clergy which confuses Christians most, and which is constantly repeated from the pulpit, and on the written page, is that Jesus was a Jew. It is uttered by the clergy on the slightest pretext. They utter it without provocation. They appear to be 'trigger happy' about it! They never miss an opportunity to proclaim it to their congregations.

"The only way the clergy can get out of this mess they have brought on themselves, is to resort to telling the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. This is the only formula by which they can regain the confidence of their flocks.

"Without fear of contradiction, based on the most competent, the best qualified authorities today, the clergy will have to admit, if they are honest, that Jesus was not a self-styled Jew. During His lifetime He was known as a Judean by His contemporaries, but HE WAS NEVER CALLED A JEW!"

One of the most outstanding Christian theologians of recent years, Adolf Harnock, rejected the hypothesis of the Jewish origin of Christ and His doctrine in these words: "The Messianic features in Christ's words are abolished entirely and virtually no importance is attached to Judaism in its capacity of Jesus' environment."

This is not an original book as such. Rather it is a compilation of statements which prove to those who have an open mind for the truth, that Jesus Christ, whom we acknowledge as the Son of God, and whom many of us proclaim as Savior and king, did not come from the heathen background of Judaism. It will prove, I believe, that the God Christians serve, is not the God of the Jews. While this is a truth which will shock many devout Christians, it is nevertheless a truth we MUST accept, if we are to stand against the assaults of the adversary in these concluding days of the "Church Age."

In this study, I am indebted to a large degree, to a book written by Jacob Elon Conner, A. B., PhD, which was published in 1964. Dr. Conner did the in-depth research which you will read here, delving into the historical background of Jesus of Nazareth. Theologians will find nothing new in respect to Christ the Son of man, unless it may be the nationalistic implications which may arise from the authors comments.

This book is but a modern attempt to answer an old, old fallacy known as "Ebonitism," a heresy denounced by the Apostle Paul and other Apostles, when they carried the kingdom message of Christianity, to the Gentilized "lost sheep of the house of Israel." (not the Jews), who, during the first century AD, were scattered abroad in Asia Minor, Europe, and the "isles of the sea," (Great Britain). Have you ever wondered why the Apostle Paul took the message of Christianity into Asia Minor, rather than Asia?

Every indication of Scripture shows that Paul was planning to go into Asia. What changed his mind? You can find the plain answer in Acts 16:5, where we are told that Paul and Silas, after having preached through Phrygia and the region of Galatia: "were forbidden by the Holy Ghost to preach the Word in Asia. After they were come to Mysia, they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit SUFFERED THEM NOT. And, after passing by Mysia, came down to Troas. And a vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man from Macedonia, and prayed him saying, 'Come over into Macedonia and help us.' And after he had seen the vision immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord has called us to preach the Gospel there."

Look at a Bible map showing Paul's missionary journeys and you will see that he left off preaching in Asia to go into Asia Minor, following Christ's command. (Luke 10:6). "Go not into the way of the Gentiles (and here the word means "heathen" rather than "non-Jew."), but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." These were the Gentilized Israelites who had lost their identity, as they had been sent into captivity, centuries earlier, for their disobedience. These "lost sheep," do not refer to "unsaved Jews," as your pastor has probably told you for the Greek word for "lost" has nothing to do with the state of being "unsaved," It comes from the Greek word "Appolumi," which is made up of two root words, "apo" and "ollumi" and literally means: "those who have been banished as punishment." (This was "true Israel.)

The "Ebionites" whom Paul denounced, taught that in order for a Gentile, (and here this much mis-used word refers to a non Jew) to become a Christian, they must first be converted to Judaism, and be circumcised. This seems strange, in the light of Christ's words in Matt. 23:15, where he spoke to the leaders of Judaism, saying: "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you compass (go over) sea and land to make one proselyte (convert), and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more a child of hell than yourselves."

It is evident from Christ's own words here, and in many other places, that Jesus did not accept the religion of Judaism. In one place in John 5:16, when the Pharisees bragged about how they followed the teachings of Moses, Christ refuted them by saying: "Had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me, for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writing, how shall you believe my words?"

These "Ebionites" were the first of a long line of Judeo-Christians who have infiltrated and literally destroyed many true Christian congregations, along with Christ's true witness to the Church.

The importance of the subject under discussion, has become evident in recent years in the outgrowth of world wide Jewish aggressiveness, but especially in the white nations of Christendom, who are, I believe, the "true Israelite" people of the Bible.

For all intents and purposes, these nominal Christian nations are now under the political and economic control of what some call ZOG ("Zionist Occupational Government.") The recent Jewish aggressiveness is but another in a long series of such incidents throughout history, which have always resulted in catastrophe for the Jews, yet they never seem to learn:

The present trend towards Jewish assertiveness can be traced, and is aggravated, by the timidity of the Christian pulpit, and by the Jewish boast that Christianity came from a Jewish source. They say that the Jews gave us both our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and our Christian religion, while blaspheming him and calling Him an "illegitimate bastard." For those who know the truth, this is blasphemy of the worst sort.

The Gentile (non-Jew) world, has been accused by the Jews of cowardice in dealing with the Judeo-Christian phenomenon. I agree with this! A Jewish writer, Marcus Eli Ravage, in his book, A REAL CASE AGAINST THE JEWS, January 1928, said that the Christian world were cowards because we were afraid to speak our minds in all frankness, when it came to Judaism and Jews. I call it the "FEAR OF THE JEWS" syndrome that caused thousands of Persians to convert to Judaism as early as 510 BC. (see Esther 8:17.) (The Jews celebrate this day every year! It was the day on which they massacred thousands of those were who anti-Jew. It is known as the Feast of Purim.)

We must also deal with another challenge thrown out to the Jews by a blunt old Gentile who said: "If God is a Jew, what have we Gentiles to do with your religion?" A good question, since the religion of Judaism has nothing in common with the religion of Jesus Christ.

When we deal honestly with the Jewish Question, we are obliged to indict an entire nation, or race, (if Jews could be called a race). Since we are facing a racial challenge, that is aimed at the destruction of white Christian civilization, according to the Jews own words, we must face this danger from a racial as well as a religious standpoint.

Individual exceptions, and there are many, must be secondary and wait until the major problem has been resolved.

While the burden of proof, to their claim of being God's Chosen, rests upon the shoulders of the anti-Christs (see 1 John 2:22, 23), we can show the fallacy of their claims within the context of the Old Testament itself.

There is logically no room for doubt that the Galileans and Judeans were no more than standoffish neighbors, from the time of King Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, to the time of the Assyrian captivity some 245 years later. Their only bond was a common "cult" or "religion," which at that time was known as Hebrewism. (The religion of the Jews, that was known at the time of Christ, was not the religion of "true Israel.")

Any fair minded person recognizes the truth that you cannot judge an entire race on the basis of the "best" or "worst" of their nationality; nor can you do it by a chance acquaintance with a neighbor you may have liked or disliked. In other words, Christians must judge Judaism on the basis of national, or racial ideals, and how Jews adhere to them en masse.

As "non-Jew" Christian Americans, (the Jews call us "goyim" which in Yiddish, means: "non Jew animal"), it is within our rights and our duty, to resist whatever is hostile to our way of life, especially our Christian ideals.

This book has not been written to criticize the individual Jew, but to stress the un-Godly power this alien group now holds over the people of the Christian world and which according to their own predictions is concerned with eliminating all Christian influences from this world.

The same people who claim to have given us our religion, and our Savior, have declared in their Bible, the Babylonian Talmud that our Savior is an "illegitimate bastard, born out of wedlock by a Jewish whore."

While we today are living not in the Republic envisioned by our Founding Fathers, but in a Socialist Welfare State, where we who love God are forced to pay for the parasites who live off us, the same is true of Judaism, which has become a "vampire religion and society" which cannot exist of itself but must live off the efforts of others.

America has been declared by our courts and our national leaders to be a Christian nation, although when we look at the monstrosity that has been created by Jewish interference with our Christian way of life, we shudder at what we see. We have certain guarantees of freedom which are inherent in our magnificent Constitution, and its Bill of Rights.'One of these is found in the 1st Amendment, which guarantees liberty of religious belief for all. But if we allow Judaism to gain the upper hand, as they did in the Soviet Union following the Jewish sponsored and led Bolshevik Revolution in 1918, we will see the imposition of an atheistic State religion, which is already in place, known as Secular Humanism. The idea is to ban all religions and cults, except for the One World religion, which leaves Judaism supreme.

The Christian theologians of the Free World should not be offended, when some of us care enough about the welfare of our people, that we "draw a line of demarcation," between the sacred and the profane.

Christianity belongs both to the "present" and the "future." It is not bound to the "tradition of the Jewish elders," that Christ constantly fought against. (See Matt. 15:6, 9).

Christianity is not a Jewish religion and did not come from the "cesspool" of Talmudic Judaism. It's founder, our Savior, did not come from this mongrel people.

I will attempt to prove this to you as we go along, if you are honest enough to look at the facts, and not be carried away by the criticism which is sure to come from many Christian pastors who either do not know the truth, or who deliberately shun it.

hy should Christianity be held to the supposition that they are heirs to traditions which are not our own? Especially when they are filthy, absurd traditions which come from a people who are decidedly antagonistic to Christianity.

While Christianity has become uncomfortably TOLERANT, we MUST learn that we cannot COMPROMISE! Judaism is the opposite of Christianity, in that while it is forever intolerant of others, it Is forever compromising to get the better of every situation that comes along. It is high time for Christianity to leave Judaism on the "garbage heap of history," where they belong, and where they would have automatically ended, if it had not been for the support of "brainwashed" Christians.

In many ways, the Christian world has lost the respect of unsaved men and women, as they see the way Christianity as a whole has cooperated with these avowed enemies of God, with the open purpose of destroying us. Christians need to understand what Judaism is all about, and what it has borrowed from the heathen, especially the occult world.

The early Christians, hindered to a great extent by their Judaistic background (most of them were Israelites, there were few Jews among them who believed in Christ), failed to detach Christ completely from the Cabalist religion of Judaism. ("Cabala" - "an occult philosophy taught by the Talmudic Rabbis of Judaism, and contained in their holy book, the Babylonian Talmud.")

Save for the Greek Christians of Antioch, who were very possibly "true Israelites,", and elsewhere along the Mediterranean coast, the teachings of Jesus Christ, at a very early stage in their history was in danger of being smothered or absorbed by the Judaizers who had managed to insinuate themselves n the new religion.

The Apostle Paul was aware of this when he warned Titus in Titus 1:10: "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision (Jews); Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things they ought not, for filthy lucre's (money) sake." Then in vs 14: "Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth." Then in Acts 15:1, we read: "And certain men which came down from Judea taught the brethren, and said, 'Except ye be circumcised, after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.'" Paul put the "quietus" on this false teaching, when he accosted Peter face to face, because he had been taken in by this Judaizing teaching. Our modern day Judeo-Christian churches are being faced by this same danger, and very few pastors have the courage to confront it for fear of being called "anti-Semitic."

The wisdom of Christ, in contrast with that of the worldly wisdom of the Pharisees, can be seen to no better advantage than in His attitude towards law and order. He even counseled obedience of the Roman government, whom most Jews hated.

Even though many Christians today, including many in the ranks of Identity Christianity, to which I belong, resent Christ's teachings, I must promote His teachings that we should "support the powers that be," as long as they are under duly constituted authority and do not cause me to do things contrary to the King's will.

The Jews do not want Christians to follow this teaching, since it leads to a nationalistic "mind-set" which is contrary to the One World Order thinking of International Judaism.

The world is still reeling under the assault of Zionist Bolshevism, which has murdered over 140-million people since 1918, many of them Christians. It's interesting to note that this vast holocaust is never mentioned in the Jewish controlled media, while they constantly harp on the false Jewish holocaust of World War II. Communism is still a major threat to Christianity, in spite of media efforts to convince us that it is dead since communism is the stepping stone to a one world dictatorship.

Today, as the major efforts of Zionist/Socialism have inundated the United States and Canada - in fact all of Christendom the anti-Christ's gloat over the prospect of a willing victim, whose 'brainwashed:" Judeo-Christians, preach a gospel of non-resistance", and "internationalism," when it's real name is Judaism.

About 1975, a well-known Christian patriot, Walter White, head of a Christian organization, headquartered in Los Angeles, known as WESTERN FRONT, had a paid interview with a Jewish politician named Harold Rosenthal, the secretary of Senator Jacob Javits of New York State. While Jewish sources have denied this tape was made, I personally listened to it when I visited Walter in Los Angeles in 1984. It would be well for us to listen to some of the contemptuous and bragging statements made by this obnoxious Jew.

He began the interview, rather contemptuously by stating that no one in America had gained national political power since WW II, without Jewish approval. "Americans have not had a presidential choice since 1932," he stated. "Roosevelt was our man and every president since has been our man."

When questioned about America's Foreign Policy, he smugly stated that it was "Zionist-Communist policy from beginning to end. Yet the stupid 'goyim' think this Jewish policy will benefit America."

When asked about the billions in aid which have been sent to Israel, as part and parcel of our Foreign Policy, Rosenthal said: "The naive politicians in Washington are gullible. Most of them are not too bright (something many of us have suspected for a long time) so the powerful Jewish lobbyists influenced this practice years ago and now there is no one strong enough to stop it. Some of that money given to the Israeli, is returned to the United States, where it is used by the B'nai B'rith the Conference of Jewish organizations, and the World Jewish Congress. The Jewish Agency is the funding arm. There is nothing wrong with Jews sending American dollars to Israel, tax free, as long as they are smart enough to get away with it. (This trickery is taught in their Talmud.)"

When asked about the popular "smear-word anti-Semitism," he replied: "Anti-Semitism does not signify opposition to Semitism. There is no such thing. It is an expression we Jews use effectively to any and everything related to Christianity - it is a smear-word to anyone who criticizes the Jew. We use it against hate-mongers."

When asked about the Jewish attitude toward Jesus Christ, he sneeringly stated: "During Christ's time, the Jews were seeking a material and earthly kingdom while Christ preached a spiritual kingdom. This they (Jews) couldn't buy, so they rejected Him and had Him crucified."

He said that Jews believed that Jesus Christ was only a man: "That's all He was - a man who walked the earth like any other man. This myth about Christ rising from the dead and returning to the earth to visit His disciples is a bunch of crap. You see, instead of a leader who would make an empire for the Jews, your kind of people gave us a peaceful preacher called Christ, who instead of an eye-for-an-eye, turns the other cheek. This is rubbish! We are building, in fact we have built, an earthly empire without your kind and your disappointing Messiah."

When asked why Jewish controlled Communism always destroys the middle-class, he replied: "It is an established rule to destroy all members of pre-existing government, their families, and relatives, as long as they are not Jews. They destroy all members of the police, state police, army officers, and their families but never Jews. You see, when a government begins to search for Communists within their borders, they are really attempting to uncover Jews. We are not fooled! (Maybe this is why, when I lectured on the College circuit during the Vietnam War, every time I spoke against Communism, I was labelled as Anti-Semite, although in those days I never criticized Zionism.)

Rosenthal continued: "The invisible rulers in the Communist countries have control over the propaganda and the governments of the Free World. We (Jews) control every media of expression, including newspapers, magazines, radio and television. Even your music! We censor the songs released for publication long before they reach the publishers. Before long, we will control your thinking."

These ideas are supported by another Jewish document, the much maligned PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION. I will not argue over whether these are a forgery or not, except to say that International Jewry is following them like a blueprint for world control.

In Protocol Number VIII it says: "In order to annihilate the instructions of the goyim before it is time, we have touched them with craft and have taken hold of the ends of the springs which move their mechanisms. These springs lay in a strict, but just sense of order; we have replaced them with the chaotic license of liberalism. We got out hands into the administration of their law; into the conduct of their elections; into their press; into the liberty of the person, but principally into their education and training, which are the corner-stone of a free existence."

It is not difficult to see the damage that liberalism has done to America, and principally to the Christian church. It is the "whatever makes you feel good, is all right," theory, that has been crammed down the throats of our youth, until many of them no longer believe in the principles which made America great. Many of us have watched in frustrated silence and fury, as Jewish teaching has destroyed the sanctity of the American Christian family; as Jewish sponsored permissiveness has resulted in teenaged pregnancies, the use of alcohol and dope, and a venereal disease problem which has reached epidemic proportions. An honest evaluation will show you that these things all come from Jewish controlled sources. Look at those behind the "Gay rights," those who push the evils of homosexuality as a respectable "alternate life style." Look at those who push for the integration of the races, knowing that this always, 100% of the time, ends in the destruction of that civilization. Notice who owns the abortion clinics, which yearly murder over 2-million unborn babies, most of whom, are White. See who runs the liquor and dope industries, who controls prostitution, the crime syndicate. ~very time you will come up with a Jew. How many Christians know that 1991 marked the sixtieth anniversary of the Jewish takeover of the National Crime Syndicate? (Don't get angry with me, I was merely giving you some facts!) It was September 11,1931, that Meyer Lansky (real name Sucholjinsky), created Murder, Inc., with the help of Jewish associates "Bugsy" Siegel, Arnold Rothstein, Aaron Sapiro, Ollie "Tic Toc" Tannebaum, "Tootsie" "Tootsie" Fein-stein, and Israel "Ice Pick Willie" Alderman.

Lansky rose to become a multi-billionaire, based on his control of narcotics, gambling, prostitution and the rackets. Our Government makes little headway against this criminal effort, because of their FEAR OF THE JEWS SYNDROME. This is what Rosenbaum talked about.

He went on to say: "There will be forced class warfare here in the United States and many will be liquidated. The Jews will not be harmed! I am not boasting, I am giving you the facts! It is too late for you Christians to put up a defense. (Remember this statement was made about sixteen years ago.) That time is long past. Long, long ago we had to become the aggressors. That is our great purpose in life! We are the aggressors! You stole your religious beliefs from our Talmud." (Here of course, Rosenthal was lying, for Christianity never came from the filthy foundation of Talmudism!)

With a great show of ego Rosenthal said: "Judaism is the unequalled culture - nothing in the world compares to it. (It might be interesting to speculate here, if this is true, why the Israeli admit they could not exist in Palestine for six months, without American assistance.) Your so-called Christianity is an outgrowth of Judaism. The cultural and intellectual influence of Judaism is felt throughout the world, throughout all civilization." (I guess this is what the Apostle Paul was speaking about in 1 Thessalonians 2:15, when writing about the Jews, he said: "They please not God, and are contrary to ALL men.")

Rosenthal continued with a discussion of the Jewish religion: "In regard to the moral value of the Jews' religious teaching, there exists exhaustive studies which show the kind of religion we have. We are the best example of the kind of product which religious training evolves. Our life is of this world only; our mentality is foreign to the true spirit of Christianity, as our character was to the founder of this new creed, 2,000 years ago. The Founder of Christianity made no secret of his estimation of the Jews and the fact THAT HE WAS NOT ONE OF US. When He found it necessary He drove us out of the temple of God, because then, as always, we used religion as a means of advancing our commercial interests.

"We managed to nail Jesus to the cross for His attitude towards us; whereas modern Christians (Judeo-Christians) enter into party politics and in order to win elections, debase themselves by begging for Jewish votes. They enter into political intrigues with us, against the interests of their own nation and people.

"We are obliged to conceal our own particular character and mode of life so that we will be allowed to continue our existence as a parasite among the nations. Our success in this line has gone so far that many believe that the Jews among them, are genuine Frenchmen, Englishmen, or Americans. One glance at the press we control, ought to furnish sufficient evidence to the contrary, even for those goyim who possess only the smallest degree of intelligence."

Asked whether the Jews felt a threat from the "silent Christian majority" in the United States, he laughed and said: "There is no such thing as a 'silent majority,' because we control them. (He's speaking about you and I, Christian friend). The only thing that remains in the United States is the unthinking majority, and unthinking they will remain, as long as we can control them through the opiate of our entertainment industry. By controlling this, we have become the task masters, and your people have become our slaves. When the pressure of daily toil to make a living reaches the explosion point, we have provided a safety valve of momentary pleasure in our television. These programs are carefully planned to appeal to the sensuous emotions, never to logical thinking according to reason. Silent they are, and unthinking they will remain. We have castrated your society through fear and intimidation, Your manhood exists only in a combination with a feminine outward appearance. You have become so neutered, that you are now docile and easy to control. As all geldings in nature, your thoughts are not concerned with concerns for the future and your posterity, but only with your present toil and the next meal.

"We have proven that the American people can be ruled by our propaganda and that the pen is indeed, mightier than the sword. We virtually get away with murder and all the goy will do is talk about it, which of course is ineffective. If the Aryan world were to review history, and apply the lessons of the past, the pen would be thrown down in disgust, and the sword would be wielded in the heat of passion. Thus far, in the United States, we have escaped the sword, your only retaliation is some pamphlet that we can easily repudiate. (Like this book, perhaps). No letter, editorial, or letters to the President and Congress have ever motivated your people into rebellion against our control. We remain safe to exploit, intimidate, and disenfranchise White Americans, as long as they remain preoccupied with the illusion that they can educate the masses through printed material. Woe be to us Jews, if they ever see the futility of this, and lay down the pen, and pick up the sword.

"History proves that the passion of an aroused minority, no matter how small a group, (could this possibly refer to Christian Patriots?) has been able to exert enough power to topple the greatest empire. Will is power, not numbers, for a strong will, will always rule the masses. So we Jews will be safe as long as our will is stronger, or the will of the goyim is scattered, misdirected and without leadership. We will never be deposed with words, but through force."

The program of world Judaism has ever been "First defile and then destroy!" Surely Christianity could never come from such a base, no matter what our theologians may tell us! You can read this purpose, which has been reiterated over and over again in Jewish literature and in their holy book the Babylonian Talmud, as well as such documents as the PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION and other Jewish PROTOCOLS which have been put out throughout the ages of history. We can see the effects of these plans throughout Christendom and specifically in the United States and Canada. We feel these effects in the business world; in the economy of our nation; in our government, and in the halls of justice, which are today dominated by Jewish judges and attorneys.

Today, the last stronghold of free speech, the Christian pulpit, is coming under virulent attack, both through traditionalism, and the paid apologists and traitors in our midst. (I'm thinking in particular of men such as Jerry Falwell, Pat Robinson, Billy Graham, Jack Van Impe, David Webber and others, who have indicated that if "push comes to shove," they would have to side with the Israeli over the well being of America. I call this TREASON!)

Working under the label of nihilism, Bolshevism, socialism, pacifism and internationalism, and discarding any label which might hurt them, their unchanging, secret name, as it has been for over 2,000 years, is Talmudic Judaism, or Modern Pharisaism.

Beginning with small insolences, too small to be openly resented, Judaism works its snakelike way towards open defiance of both State and the Christian Church, crawling along towards it's higher objective of complete world domination. It has preached this from it's very beginning!

If you will make an honest check of the last 2,000 years of history, you will find that the morals and methods of world Judaism have remained the same. For verification, "search the Scripture," and once again I refer you to the Apostle Paul and 1 Thessalonians 2:15.

We can also verify this from the accounts of noted historians, some of whom were Jews, like Josephus, There was the Roman Tacitus; Pliny (Roman); Gibbon (English), and many, many more. In view of what is happening today, and what has happened in the past, to remain uninformed is to ask for disaster.

Many devout Christians will say: "We don't care what race Christ came from." This is usually an uneducated expression of personal loyalty to the king, and while it is commendable in itself, it is treasonable in the effect it has on His overall mission.

History cannot be ignored with indifference. We are told in the New Testament, that the Old Testament was written for our edification and education. In 2 Peter 2:6, we are told that historic events, such as the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, were examples to those who would live equally ungodly (homosexual) lives in this age.

The truth which demands recognition by all Christians, is that Christ, as the Son of Man, was a GALILEAN, and the GALILEANS WERE NOT JEWS! by race, although they were in part by religion and tradition. A stream must always rise from a source higher than itself, and Judaism cannot be the source of Christianity, for as Christ said Himself, in Matthew 7:16-20: "Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so, every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit . . ."

You can prove that the fruits of Judaism are evil, by looking at the historical record, and what they are doing now . . . Prove this to your own satisfaction, if you are honest enough to want the truth. Take a large sheet of paper and in the left hand column list all the evils you believe are destroying America. Drugs; prostitution; abortion; rock music; alcohol; TV; movies; dishonesty in government and business, etc., then in the right hand column, list the names of those who control these activities in America. If you are completely honest, you will discover that 98% or more of the leaders in these nefarious activities are Jews. Don't get angry with me, I'm not responsible for this, I'm just giving you some facts!

GALILEE AND THE GALILEANS!

From this point on, I will make no attempt at continuity, but will make statements of fact, which can lead you to some logical and honest conclusions:

1) "GALILEE OF THE NATIONS"

Galilee of the nationsis what Isaiah called it in Isaiah 9:1. it was a non-Jew country, all of it, from north to south, east to west. It was a Gentile nation (the Hebrew word is "gowry" which means: "a foreign nation; nation; people". In modern terminology, a "non-Jew" people.") It was partially Judaized through the cult of Judaism, but it was a Gentile nation long before "true Israel" ever crossed the Jordan River, about 1451 BC.

Nearly six hundred years later, the Assyrian ruler, Sargon, overwhelmed the Israelites and scattered the ten northern tribes, known as the House of David, and most of the southern tribe of Judah, with the exception of Jerusalem, throughout his empire. He replaced them with other Gentile (non-Jew) people.

Some of these Israelites who were not of Judah returned and were moved out by Simon Macabee in 164 BC. Galilee was strictly a Gentile (non Jew) nation at the time of Christ when there was a good deal of hatred between the Jews and the Galileans.

Fifty years after the time of Christ, the Governor of Galilee, was a Jewish historian, and Roman General named Josephus. He described these people as wholly unlike the Jews in temperament and ideals - so different in fact, that there was no chance they could have come from the same genealogical background. There was a strict taboo against inter-marriage, between the Jews and the Galileans, which can be seen in the Talmud.

Christ, the Son of Man, was a Gal ilean, and the Gal ileans were not Jews. This is the verdict of both history and the Scriptures. It is also the verdict of nature, stamped on the character of the Galileans and the Jews, through their differences.

2) THE CANAANITES

Palestine, sometimes known as the Western arm of the "fertile crescent," had been inhabited by Gentile (non-Jewish) people for a thousand years before Joshua crossed the Jordan River. In fact, there were no people anywhere in the world at this time who were known as Jews. We first find them in the Bible in 2 Kings 16:6, where they are fighting against Israel. These people were Caucasian members of the Aryan (white) race and were known as Canaanites. The history of the Aryan people can be traced back at least as long as the time of Adam, who was their progenitor.

These Israelites who invaded Canaan were not Jews. They were the descendants of Jacob/Israel, who had been in captivity in Egypt for some 400 years.

After conquering the land, and with 225 years of off and on again warfare under leaders who were known as Judges, Saul, the son of Kish, from the tribe of Benjamin was made king about 1045 BC. Fighting continued, often between the various tribes, but mostly with their Canaanite neighbors.

Saul was succeeded by David, of the Tribe of Judah, and by 1035 BC David had established his borders to the south, with his capitol city in old Jerusalem.

At this time, the Israelites were a united people, although they had a strong admixture of neighboring blood.

Judea was a barren, mountainous area, with few natural resources, but it was well adapted for defense.

David was followed by Solomon about 1000 B.C. and he reigned for thirty years. The 100 years under Saul, David and Solomon were the only fairly stable epoch in Israelite history.

During this period, especially under the 30 year rule of Solomon, there was a lavish display of kingly power, which erected elaborate buildings, including the temple, with hired labor. ~ost of this was accomplished at the expense of the people from fruitful Galilee, in the North, who had to "foot the bills," without getting anything from it in return. The ten northern tribes, brought their grievances to Rehoboam, Solomon's son, who took over Israel on his father's death. But Rehoboam, as though determined to counterbalance his father's wisdom, showed his inability to rule and with typical Jewish shortsightedness, added to the burdens of the people. The northern ten tribes revolted and split off from the south, which was made up of the tribes of Judah, Benjamin, and part of Levi. Their capitol city was in Jerusalem.

The Northern ten tribes, which became known as the House of Israel, had their capitol in Samaria. The people of the southern kingdom did not become known as Jews, until many years later, when a remnant returned from Babylonian captivity, with a new religion, that was no longer Hebrewism, but an occult "bastard" religion that became known as Judaism, or Phariseism. These people went into Babylonian captivity with priests and a temple for worship, and came out with Rabbis and the synagogue, and with two political parties which were to control them, the Sadducees and the Pharisees.

Because Judea was without natural resources, they attracted worshipers (whom we might call tourists) who came to Jerusalem to worship at the temple. Under the return of the Jews, who had learned occult practices, and the ungodly practice of usury in Babylon. The temple became the center of crooked economic practices and the use of illegal weights and balances, all things which were condemned by God in the Laws He gave to Moses. These were all Babylonian System practices, which are even today, under Judaism, destroying the economy of Christendom, with the final goal of world control.

If it had not been for the "crime of the ages," the murder of the Son of God, some 1,000 years after Solomon's time, Jerusalem would have had little impact on Christ's life and message. His mission, His labors, His teachings and His surroundings were strictly Israelite, not Jew. The importance of the old city of Jerusalem in the minds of Christians, has drawn undeserved attention away from the primary theater of Christ's mission, which He Himself declared to be: "...I am not sent but (only) to the lost sheep of Israel." (John 10:2). This word LOST, does not refer to "UNSAVED JEWS," no matter what your pastor may have told you to the contrary, but by its very wording means 'those who were put away, or banished for punishment" - "true Israel" not the Jews.

3) THE LAND OF GALILEE

Since neither the ten tribes House of Israel, or the smaller house of Judah, could stand up against any first-class military power; and though Israel was the stronger in numbers of the two, the importance of Judah was in her strategic location.

These two tiny nations, lay directly in the pathway of the two strongest world powers of that time, Egypt and Assyria. Both of these nations were striving for control of the known world. They were blood enemies.

There was a well beaten war path in the southern part of Galilee, which stretched across the Valley of Esdaelon, and contained the valley of Jezereel, and the field of Armageddon. It is probably the most famous battle field in world history. The central part is like an inflated pouch, with mountain spurs sticking into it like many needles from different sides and angles. The eastern end leads into the deep valley of the Jordan River and to its fords, and from there an open road extends towards Damascus and Syria.

The western end narrows into a pass as it approaches the Mediterranean Sea, and then circles the base of Mount Carmel, like a sentinel guarding the entrance into Galilee.

Then bending sharply southward, it goes into the ancient warpath all the way to Egypt, through a long costal valley known as the Valley of Sharon, with a low range of foothills guarding the east flank known as Shepelah. The pass around Mount Carmel is rough and unsuited to the needs of a large, modern army, especially its mechanized forces.

A better avenue of approach to Eshraelon is offered by three other routes leading into the Vale of Sharon. One of these, the Valley of Doethan, gives swift and easy access to the eastern end of the Valley of Eshraelon. This approach was used by both the Egyptians and the Assyrians for attack or defense, as was needed. Many nations attempted to retain the northern Kingdom of Israel as an ally, and this kept Israel guessing as to which nation was the strongest. Of course this vacillating policy was self-destructive in the long run, for the stronger power was sure to remember how undependable the Israelites were in any "show down." This can be vividly seen in 2 Kings 18:19, 20, where Rab-shakeh, the commander of the Assyrian Army speaks to Hezekiah the King saying: "...What confidence is this wherein thou trusteth? Thou sayest (but they are vain words), I have counsel and strength for war. Now on whom doth thou trust, that thou rebel lest against me? Now, behold, thou trusteth upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it; so is Pharaoh king of Egypt unto all that trust on him."

4) DEPORTATION OF TEN-TRIBED ISRAEL.

Tiglath Pieeser II, who assumed the ancient title of Sargon, when he became king of Assyria, remembered Israel's interagency.

Besides, he was too good a strategist to overlook the necessity of shutting the Egyptians out of the Valley of Esdraelon, which was a cross-roads in all directions. His own necessity, and the fickle support of Israel, caused him to crush the Kingdom of Israel in 722 or 721 BC He did more than defeat them militarily; he removed them "lock, stock and barrel," all their men, women and children and scattered them throughout the wide expanse of the Assyrian Empire. It is important to remember, they never came back - but became known as the "ten lost tribes," of Israel.

We believe that history and anthropology reveals that these tribes migrated west and north, through the Cacauscas Pass, (known as the "Pass of Israel,") into Central Europe, then west to Gaul, Germania, Scandinavia, and finally the Isles of the Sea which are Britain.

5) SARGON BRINGS BACK THE GENTILES

There was something like poetic justice in the fact that Sargon went far afield from the Semitic world, to replace the Israelites he had removed from Galilee. He brought people from Babylon, (see Kings 17:24) - "And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel..."

Isaiah was not exaggerating when speaking of these events, he called the land "Galilee of the Gentiles (nations)" Isaiah 9:1.

7) THE NORDICS IN GALILEE

In his conquest of Egypt, a route through Galilee which Sargon controlled completely - he led among this cavalry forces, strange wild troopers from the far north. These were Scythians, known to Old Testament writers as Gog and Magog. They struck terror into the hearts of the people being invaded by their formidable appearance. They rode unhindered through the land, while the Jews in their walled cities could only rave at them. It is believed that it was these warriors, who in their return from Egypt, built at least one settlement in Galilee known as Scythopolis, and later Beth Shean, now Beisan. This city is located at the most important point in Galilee, as it commands the fords of the Jordan River.

8) THE SCYTHIANS

Where did these wild cavalry men come from? They were from the northern region we now call Russia, which was the ancestral home of the people of white skin, the Indo-Europeans, or Caucasians.

Anthropologists tell us that the broad steppes from the Volga River eastward was the origin of domesticated animals which were raised not only by the Russians, but by the Celts, Teutons, Gauls, Greeks and the predominate strain that we now know as Nordics.

It was the people from this region who followed the southward course of the Volga River and the Caspiean Sea, to the frontiers of Asia Minor.

It is these Northern Whites who were the Semites in the Land of Sumer and throughout Asia Minor. They have become known as the "makers of civilization." There is a long standing tradition among the Russian orthodox descendants of the ancient Scythians, that the Virgin Mary was of their race, which is far more believable than the orthodox tradition that she was a Jewess.

9) THE GAULS INVADE ASIA MINOR

At a much later date, another European element was added to the population of Asia Minor within easy striking distance of Palestine. These were the far-wandering Gauls who split off from the army of Brennus in 278-277 B.C. and roamed over northern and southern Asia Minor, and finally settled in Galatia which was named for their people. This name is found over and over again in Paul's Epistles.

We must not overlook the possibility that this name may have been given to Galilee itself, as well as the Sea of Galilee, and especially the region of Gaulanitis on the eastern shores of that sea. Both the Scythians and the Gauls were known as hardy warriors and were of a kindred spirit, if not of blood. They were one of the few people who stopped the advance of the Roman Legions, and whose fearless devotion to the cause of freedom and independence, won the admiration of Caesar himself. Like the Galileans, they fought with a system, rather than with Jewish passion and trickery.

10) GRECIAN GALILEE

Of all the Gentile (and here we are speaking about the non-Jews, whether Israelite or heathen) influences around Galilee, the Greek was by far the most important.

When Christians read about Decapolis in Matthew 4, 5, and 7, few understand how large and thoroughly Greek this area was. t lay east of the Jordan River, from Samaria and western Galilee and was about as large as these two areas combined. It's commerce and contacts with the outside world was by way of the Valley of Esdraelon, and for 300 years before the time of Christ, it was a cosmopolitan area with a mingling of population. In the time of Christ, this area was backed by Roman power which kept the Arabs at bay.

From Nazareth, the city of Scyhopolis lay 20 miles away. Tiberius was five miles nearer, while less than ten miles to the north, was Roma and Sepphoris, both Greek cities.

The coastal cities which had once been of Phonecia and Philistia, were now Greek in language and culture. Even in their court proceedings and legal documents, the Romans ruled this country through the Greek language. Greek names and words were slipped into the local Aramaic, as can be seen in the names of Christ's disciples. It is impossible to believe that our Lord and His disciples, did not speak Greek, since it was the universal language of that time, as English is now, and was the major language spoken in Galilee.

Hebrew was a "dead language," at the time of Christ, and the Old Testament had been translated into Greek for the benefit of the modern (at that time) Jews.

11) THE ORIGIN OF GREEK INFLUENCE

The beginning of Greek influence in the area of Galilee began about 332 B.C. when soldiers of Alexander the Great found the region east of the Jordan to be a highly desirable area for retirement, and sparsely occupied.

They proceeded to occupy it, not realizing at the time, that the reason for its sparse population, were the frequent attacks from the nomad Arabs to the east. Since they were soldiers and world conquerors, they were soon joined by colonists from all over the Greek world. These had only to cross the Mediterranean Sea, to Mount Carmel, from which it was a journey of only forty miles to the fords of the Jordan River. Ten cities were built by the Greeks in this area and were organized into a loose confederacy for protection against the Arabs.

12) THE DECAPOLIS UNDER ROME

Under the Romans, the Decapolis of Eastern Galilee reached a high degree of development - colon naded streets, the arch, the forum, the temple, the bath, the mausoleum, all done in florid Doric and Corinthian architecture.

Some cities had amphitheaters, as at Gadora and Kanatha, and some had temples built in the classic Greek style. Their religion was thoroughly Greek. They had paved roads and other public works such as the aqueduct at Gadara which brought water to the city from a point thirty miles away.

The Decapolis was a flourishing area during Christ's earthly ministry. It was a beautiful area, overlooking the Sea of Galilee. We have ample proof from historical records, that the Kingdom of God, came forth, not from some obscure village, as most Christians believe Nazareth to have been, but in the face of the "major kingdom of the World," as then seen in Rome.

12) NAZARETH

A broken range of foothills, rising to considerable elevations, bounds the northern limits of the Plain of Esdraelon. Near its middle, between the Mediterranean Sea and the Sea of Galilee, was the city of Nazareth, the boyhood home of Jesus Christ. Nazareth is centrally located with reference to routes of trade and was the cross-roads of travel into Asia at that time. It was not some little, obscure village, as most Christians picture it, but a thriving metropolis on the major caravan route from Damascus to the seaports of the Mediterranean and southward to Egypt. In location, we might compare it in importance to the city of Omaha in the United States. Nazareth was a lovely spot and Antonius the Martyr called it "Paradise."

All the rumors of the Roman Empire entered Palestine through Nazareth - the news concerning the emperor's wealth; the battle reports from the far flung Roman legions; the gossip about Caesar and his wife, were all heard in Nazareth.

It was quite natural that the temperament of the Galilean was by no means as sour as that of the Jews, since he had far wider contacts with the outside world and lived in a pleasant environment. There was no savage desert at his doorstep; he was protected by the might of Rome and the people of Nazareth lived a happier, saner, gayer life than the dour Jews in Jerusalem to the far south.

It was a long time from the invasion of Sargon, to Christ, but the Gentile character of Nazareth can be seen in the cynical remark of Nathaniel in John 1:46, when he said to the disciple Philip: "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" or in 7:41, where the Jewish leaders skeptically said: "...shall Christ come out of Galilee?" They ignored the fact that Elisha, and the field of Elijah's labors, as well as that of Deborah, Jonah, Hosea, and possibly Amos and Nahum, come from this area.

13) THE GALILEANS AS PROSELYTES

We need to go back to the year 722 B.C. when the ten northern tribes of Israel were deported by Sargon. We must do this in order to understand why and to what extent, these Gentiles accepted Judaism.

The seven and a half centuries which elapsed between this deportation and the birth of Christ, is a long period in which many things occurred. In European history, this time lapse would take us from the time of the Magna Charta in England, and 200 years before Constantinople fell to the Turkish hordes.

14) THE DEUS LOCI

When a people migrates, they usually take their religion with them, and this happened when the colonists from Assyria were transplanted to Galilee, to take the place of the Israelites who had been deported by Sargon. They kept their local religion for centuries, much to the annoyance of the Judaizers.

But times being what they were, when heathen people went into a new land, they wanted to know who the "Deus Loci," (god of that land) was, so they would not get into trouble with him. Furthermore, they were strangers to each other, since they had been brought from many areas in Sargon's empire (see 2 Kings 17:6, 24.)

When these strangers first arrived, some of them had been killed by lions, (2 Kings 17:25-33), 50 they reasoned the god of the land must be angry with them and must be appeased. They appealed to the king of Assyria and asked his advice. He said (vss 27, 28) "Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought thence; let them go and dwell there, and let them teach them the manner of the god of that land." (So Judaism was brought to Galilee at a very early stage.)

This resulted in mixed results, for though these foreigners adopted Judaism, the narrator says that they did not completely abandon their former heathenism. (This is much like the problems facing the modern Christian missionary in Africa.)

By the time of Christ, the people of Samaria and Galilee, while Gentiles (non~ews) by blood, had for all intents and purposes adopted the religion of Judaism, which by the way, was not the Hebrewism of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, but the Talmudism of those Judahites who returned from Babylonian captivity, with Hebrewism intermingled with the occult teachings of Babylon to the point that they actually had a new religion called Judaism. While they followed many of the old Hebrew customs, and claimed to be followers of the Mosiac Law, Jesus when speaking to their leaders in John 5:46 said: "If ye had believed Moses, ye would have believed Me; for he wrote of Me."

They even adopted the Jewish traditions of Babylon, so that one of them, a Samaritan, said to Jesus in John 4:12 - "Art thou greater than our father Jacob who gave us this well?"

We can see this same thing taking place today, as we see late immigrants from Europe, as they boast about "our Pilgrim Fathers."

15) JEWISH COMPROMISING

At the time of Christ, the strength of the Jews had been sadly depleted. Only a few had come back from Babylonian captivity, since most of them had preferred to remain in the comforts of Babylon, where like their offspring in America, they had become the banking, economic experts, and merchants of the country, who controlled its finances.

The division of the Israelite kingdom, into Northern and Southern factions called the House of Israel and the House of Judah, had depleted their strength and the Babylonian and Assyrian attacks had about finished them off. Besides, they had considerable problems within, not the least of which was caused by miscegenation (race inbreeding). So even though Judaism was very rigid concerning converts, the Jews, with their new Talmudic Judaism, compromised as they usually do and adopted what they called "proselytes of the gates." This was as far as their stubborn racialism would go when it came to accepting outsiders. While these outsiders could become Judahites, they could never become Jews. Jesus criticized their hypocrisy in Matthew 23:15, when He told the Jewish leaders: ". . . ye compass (go over) sea and land to make one proselyte (convert), and when he is made, ye make him two4old more a child of hell than yourself." (This is quite evident in the Christian Zionist of today, who is many times more dangerous to the cause of Christ, than the anti-Christ Jew himself.)

It is when Christians fail to understand the difference between Jews and Judeans, that we fail to realize that the Samaritans and Galileans were of a different racial origin from the Jews. Many of these people never became Judaized.

Circumstances made the Galilean and Jews neighbors, and eventually partners in the same political state, but they were different people. Josephus, the eminent Jewish historian of the First Century AD recognized this when he said of the Galileans, on P.38 of his ANTIQUITIES OF THE JEWS, "They were inured to war from their infancy, and have always been very numerous; nor hath the country ever been destitute of men of courage, not wanting a numerous set of them." In another place he calls them: "A sturdy race that has developed a fervid patriotism and nationalist spirit - lovers of liberty and ready to defend their homes." This love of freedom is hardly a Jewish characteristic. It sounds much more like a description of the White nations of Christendom, whom we believe are the "true Israel," of the Bible. Could it be that we are the offspring of the men of Galilee?

These people were despised by the Jews as "boorish hill billies." Even the Talmud is quoted as saying rather sneeringly, I suspect: "The Galileans were more anxious for honor than for money. Their fidelity, often unreasoning and ill tempered was always such." This is a characteristic Jewish attitude towards those of us whom they call "goyim," which in Yiddish means "non Jew animal."

Many Christians today look on the Galilee of Christ's day as being a new land devoid of traditions, and with a largely uneducated population. When these men spoke in different languages on the Day of Pentecost, (Acts 2:6, 7,) these Jews said: ". . . Behold, are not these Galileans? (uneducated men) And how hear we every man in our own tongue, wherein we were born? You see these men "speaking in tongues," were not rattling off some "heavenly gibberish", but were speaking in actual languages that men understood).

The Galileans were despised by the Jews. I suspect that it was because of Jewish envy and greed, due to the national resources and the superior contacts Galilee enjoyed with the outside world.

People show a great deal of mental stupidity when they assert that Jesus was a Jew, for the very contrast of His character, with the historical background of Judaism, established facts which completely differentiates Him from Jews and Judaism.

Historically speaking, Galilee had twice been purged of Jewish influence before Christ was born and we can learn from Josephus that 50 years after His birth, the Galileans were completely different from the Jews - a fact the Jews bragged about.

When Isaiah, an Israelite (not a Jew), living in Jerusalem, wrote of Christ's coming, he spoke of "Galilee of the Gentiles." He was actually speaking of the Gentilized nations of Israel in captivity, who had lost their identity as Israel. Isaiah said of them: "The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of death, upon them hath the light shined." In another place, (Hosea 1:10), it says: "Yet shall the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, (divorced Israel) Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God." (By no stretch of the most fertile imagination, can the people we now call Jews, fit this description.)

In Isaiah 42:6, 7 we read "...l will give thee for a covenant to the people, for a light to the Gentiles (Gentilized Israel in captivity). To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house." Who were called out of "captivity" into freedom? Not the Jews, but "true Israel."

When Christ the Galilean, the Israelite Gentile (not a Jew) returns, then the prophesy of Isaiah 35:4-6 will be fulfilled: "..Be strong, fear not; behold God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompense; He will come and save you. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. (I believe he is speaking here both about physical and spiritual results) Then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. HALLELU'YAH!

Only the White Christian nations, as we call Christendom, have ever fulfilled these conditions. The Jews do not even come close!*

When a Christian minister claims that Christ was a Jew, the burden of proof should be on his shoulders to prove it, for nowhere, even in the contaminated modern versions of the Bible, does Christ admit to being a Jew. Possibly the closest is in John 4:22, where the King James Version has Christ tell the woman of Samaria: "Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship; for salvation is of the Jews." Any thinking person should recognize this as a false statement, no matter how strongly the Fundamentalists claim the KJV is without error. For we KNOW that salvation does not come through any race, but through the Christ-Man, Jesus. A much more accurate translation comes from the Ferre-Fenton translation, which is made directly from the Greek It says: "Salvation cometh out of Judea." This makes sense!

In the light of historical data, there is no need for us to go to the genealogical accounts found in the Gospels, for they give the genealogy of Joseph, who was Christ's foster father. We have enough Scriptural evidence to prove that Christ is David's Greater Son, descended from Adam, through Jacob/Israel, that we do not need any genealogy to prove it. There are many instances in the New Testament which are corroborated in the TALMUD, which shows the racial prejudice of the Jews from Judea against the people of the North country, Galilee. A recent authority, Houston Stewart Chamberlain, in his book FOUNDATIONS OF THE XIX CENTURY, page 211, says: "Whoever makes the assertion that Christ was a Jew is either ignorant or insincere: (in the case of most Christian ministers, it is a matter of intellectual dishonesty.) ignorant when he confuses race and religion; insincere, when he knows the history of Galilee, and partly conceals, and partly distorts the very entangled facts in favor of the Jews. The probability that Jesus Christ was no Jew; that he had not one drop of Jewish blood in His veins, is so great as to be a certainty!"

CHRIST DID COME TO EARTH! Secular history proves this! It was such an outstanding event, and so great, that we mark time from the beginning of that era.

In spite of the efforts by many liberal churchmen, including many Jews, to prove that Christ never lived; this event has more historical evidence than any event known to man and will stand up in any court of law.

Several years ago, I came in contact with blasphemous material put out by a Jewish organization in Washington State, called the ABELARD-REUCHLIN FOUNDATION. Theirs is part of a Jewish mis-information campaign, of which the Jews are "past masters," for the benefit of the stupid "goyim." but a close look at the shoddiness of their research and the contempt they reveal for all Christians, can be clearly seen.

One of the puzzling aspects of dealing with Jews, is that they think like an Oriental, rather than an Aryan. So they attempt to perpetrate hoaxes, which no Aryan mind would ever attempt, since they believe their intelligence is far superior to ours, which they consider to be on the animal level.

The name Abelard-Reuchlm is a pseudonym used by the author of this spurious material, which I am sure the Jews view as master piece of deception.

It is based on the assumption that the New Testament was a plot against the Jews, perpetrated by a Roman nobleman named C. Calpurnius Piso, in order to discredit the Jews in the eyes of the Emperor.

Yet anyone with even a superficial knowledge of Roman history, knows that the conspiracy to overthrow the Roman tyrant Nero was led by this same Calpurnius Piso, a scion of one of Rome's most prominent families. Nero was a favorite of the Jews, because he had murdered his Roman wife, so he could marry the Jewess Poppaea Sabrina. Under her influence, Nero always bowed to the wishes of the Jewish Sanhedrin, and it was under this influence that he instituted the persecution of Christians which murdered hundreds of thousands of them. When a swarm of "early Jewish Bolsheviks" attempted to burn Rome, Poppaea convinced her husband that the Christians were to blame, and they were hounded to their death, while the Jewish culprits went free. (Sound familiar?)

The fairy story presented by Abelard-Reuchlm as historical, is that under Nero, the Romans were about to recognize the Jewish God and publicly announce that they were the "chosen people," picked by God to rule the world.

Calpurnius Piso, who was a "wicked goyim", (a Nazi really), conspired with the Christians against God to keep the Empire out of Jewish control. When he failed, his vile son carried out his dastardly work, by writing the New Testament and the works of the Jewish historian Josephus, in order to slander the Jews. (Who we all know are "God's Chosen People?)

This story is set forth in an elaborate pseudo-historical argument. It is so preposterous, it is not even humorous. Reuchlm intends us to believe that the historical Calpurnius Piso had a son named Anus, who wrote the New Testament.

Anyone willing to spend a few minutes in a respectable library, could inform Rabbi Reuchlm, that the Romans had a very limited number of given names. He could have found a complete list of these names in one of the score or more reference books. The great families of the Roman aristocracy limited themselves to a very small range of given names. The reference index of BROUGHTON'S MAGISTRATES OF THE ROMAN REPUBLIC, would have shown that the Calpurni family used only five given names for their sons - GAIUS, GADEUS, LUCIUS, MARCUS and QUINTUS. There was never a son, or any member of this family named ARIUS, as Reuchlm contends!

If you were to try and fool some stupid American by inventing a son for George Washington, you would probably call him George, Jr., but you certainly would not have called him IGOR WASHINGTON, or TEXAS WASHINGTON, or SITTING BULL WASHINGTON. This is what the Jew Reuchlm attempted to do.

This is but one of the many attempts by the Jews against our Lord and Savior. Yet they often call Him a "Jew" with one breath, and an "illegitimate bastard," with the next, and our brainwashed pastors meekly accept it. No wonder we are in trouble!

Reuchlm compounded his stupidity by stating that all the great characters of the New Testament, Matthew, Mark, Luke, John, Paul, Silas, Barnabas, etc., were sons of Calpurnius Piso.

I can't for the life of me understand how educated, intelligent Christian leaders can be hoodwinked by the Jews, into a complete distortion of Christian history. When they see the open threats in Jewish writings, and the acknowledged hatred of Jews for everything they stand for as Christians, how is it possible for any Christian today to betray Christ, by catering to Jewish pride, arrogance and duplicity? Yet such is the power of Jewish "brainwashing" in Christian circles, that good, "born from above" men and women have been tricked into libeling the might and power of YAHWEH GOD, by maintaining that He belonged to one certain race, when for all honest purposes the Jews cannot even be classified as a race. (They are probably more "mixed up," both physically and mentally, than any other group of humans in existence.)

Yet such is the perversity of members of my race, the White race, and true Israelites to boot, that they declare that God must be White. God has no color. The Bible tells us He is a Spirit, therefore He cannot come from any race and thank God for that.

Jesus Christ, His Son, is a Unique Being too far above those who would destroy Him, to be brought down completely to earth, and though we know He was the Son of man, He told us so Himself, we also KNOW He is the exalted Son of the Most High. He, Jesus the Christ, is GOD IN THE FLESH! for "In the beginning was the WORD, and the WORD was with God, and the WORD WAS GOD!" (John 1:1). This seems mighty plain to me!

There were three things the first century church did - just as many of us would probably do today - in order to give expression to their new religion.

> 1) Although the majority of the converts were not Jews, in spite of all the teachings of our modern Judeo-Christian churches to the contrary (they were Israelites), yet they came from a Jewish religious tradition. So it was natural for them to expect the coming Messiah to be a powerful, earthly king who would deliver them from the power of the hated Romans. This is what they had been taught by the Rabbis.
> 2) These early Christians looked back to Hebrew, not Jewish prophesies. For the prophesies of the Old Testament are all Hebrew in context. Not a one is Jewish! They looked back to the old Hebrews, just as Americans, or Greeks, or Italians, might look back to their ancient history.
> 3) They placed in the record of those times, two conflicting genealogies, that of Matthew and Luke. (Check them out for yourself and see what I mean.) This does not mean that either is incorrect.

Christians have no need of a MESSIAH, in the Jewish sense. Let the Jews get what comfort they can from this distorted doctrine. Christians do not need a Super-Jew to lead us into God's Kingdom!

We have Christ, the Son of the Living God, as Peter called Him, we need no earthly leader!

Many Christians today, if they were to submit their thoughts to close examination, would be found to be as much Judaized, or maybe even more so, than Christianized! Some like Jerry Falwell and Pat Robertson, even go so far as to proudly claim this aberration and call themselves Christian Zionists or Christian Jews! There can be no such "animal"; it is a physical and spiritual impossibility, for they are headed in different directions. It is as impossible for you to be a Christian Zionist, as it is for you to be "wet-dry" or "hot-cold." You can only be one or the other, for as the Master said: "A man CANNOT serve two masters," (Matt. 6:24; Luke 16:13.)

Our people become confused when they hear their pastor's tell them they are "heir to promises made to Jews," for God made NO promises to the Jews, except those of the nature found in Malachi 1:2-4 "Whereas Edom (Jewry) saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places (this is what they are doing in Palestine today); thus saith the Lord of Hosts, They (the Edomite Jews) shall build, and I will throw down; and they (true Israel) shall call them (the Edomite Jews), The border of wickedness and The people against whom the Lord hath indignation forever." (I challenge you to compare this Scripture with the king's promise in Luke 19:27.)

Today, the false Jew, the one's our risen King spoke about in Rev. 2:9; 3:9, when He referred to "Those which say they are Jews, and are not; but are of the SYNAGOGUE OF SATAN." These "false Jews" come to the Christian world shouting: "We are the heirs to God's promise to Abraham and the Patriarch's. The world is ours by right of inheritance." And stupid Christians accept this, even though their leaders know full well that 90% of those who call themselves Jews, have no racial connection to Abraham, but are of Turco-Mongolian stock.

These Christians, led by false teachers such as Falwell, Robertson and Graham, claim relationship with the Jewish god JAHVEH, and claim this heathen deity of a race alien to Christ, to be His Father. What can be more blasphemous? Yet they clothe themselves in the garments of Christianity and lead countless millions of unsuspecting "sheep" into accepting a heathen anti-God belief which is destroying them!

By doing this, they put Christ to shame, as they yield to fables which make His Gospel of Jewish origin, although He always rejected the Dogma of Judaism. Anyone who goes so far as to call himself a "Zionist CHRISTIAN," has no right to call himself a "Christian." Is it any wonder that Judeo-Christianity is destroying the Church of Jesus Christ today?

PROPHECY AND PROPHESYING!

One of the commonest errors made by modern Bible scholars is to interpret the words "prophet" and "prophesy," to mean the verb, "to prophesy." Even some of our English dictionaries mislead us here, for they connect these words with the office of "foretelling the future," and make this its primary meaning, when usually it is secondary.

Any pastor can be a "prophet" in the primary sense, which means "an anointed person," such as an "ordained preacher." This is its meaning in 162 out of the 165 times it is used in the Old Testament. The word "prophet," in Jeremiah 29:26, 27, means "to sing or speak by inspiration." In Micah 2:4, it means practically the same thing. In all other (162) instances, it means "ordained, or anointed to speak for God." There is nothing here which speaks about foretelling the future, although we know from a study of the Word, that God gave this gift to certain men He had picked for this purpose. (Daniel was one of the most outstanding examples.)

But our Israel people, (which includes the vast majority of those who today call themselves Christian) love mysteries. That is why they spend hundreds of hours trying to decipher the mysteries of Revelation, or the Great Pyramid of Egypt, but often spend little time, studying how God wants us to live today.

Of the four Gospels, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John; Mark is probably the oldest, dating around 65 AD.

By the time Peter and Paul wrote their Epistles, thousands of Christians had become martyrs, as the Roman authorities, under egging from the Jews, slaughtered them. The book of Acts is full of this Jewish persecution and history proves that the wife of Nero, a Jewess named Poppaea, was responsible for thousands of Christian deaths.

It is interesting to note that only Matthew and Luke list the genealogies of Christ, neither Mark or John mention them. But the disagreements in these genealogies does not effect Christ, or His mission, or the Christian world, although opponents of Christianity always point to them to disparage the Scriptures.

The testimony as to the physical existence of Jesus is not limited to the New Testament, or to the witness of the church fathers. You can find this for yourself, by going to any good library and consulting the following authorities:

1) Flavius Josephus, a Latinized Jew, who became Governor of Galilee and who is best known as a Jewish historian living from 55 to 120 AD.

2) Tactitus, a Roman historian living from 122 - ? AD.

3) Pliny the younger, a Roman historian of note 62-113 AD.

4) Sultanius, a Roman historian, 70-140 AD.

5) Lucian, a Greek essayist who lived around the middle to the 2nd Century AD.

The testimony of these men bears even more weight, since they were hostile to Christianity and termed it a "pestilence which is sweeping away our native Grecco-Roman religion." Naturally they were disturbed! But they still testify to the truth that Jesus Christ existed in the flesh. Something some modern Bible scholars are trying to refute.

Among more modern writers, we have such well known men as Thomas Carlyle, who wrote: "Jesus of Nazareth is our divi nest symbol; higher has human thought not reached."

J. J. Rousseau said: "For men to invent such a sublime character would make the inventors more wonderful than the Being they portray."

Gothe said: "I esteem the Gospels to be thoroughly genuine, for there shines forth from them a reflected splendor of sublimity which proceeds from the person of Christ."

Fiche said: "There is no man of sense, who will not bow before this astonishing phenomenon."

NAPOLEON I said: "Jesus Christ was not a man; there is between Him and all others the distance of infinity."

There are many other quotations from the writings of great men, which attest to the power and divinity of Christ, and that He did physically exist!

THE MISSION BEGINS!

We know little of Christ's early life, except for some rare books which are not particularly reliable historically. We know that His primary mission was to the "lost sheep of the House of Israel," for He told us this Himself in Matthew 15:24. His mission did not begin until He reached maturity at the age of thirty.

He appeared suddenly out of nowhere, on the banks of the Jordan River, seeking baptism at the hands of John the Baptist, (Matt. 3:13-18; Mark 1:9-11; John 1:29-34.)

It was fitting that John, the "wild man from the desert," a cousin of Jesus and an unordained priest of Almighty God, who acknowledged no earthly authority, would be the first to recognize His divinity and then baptize Him.

The universal power of Christ was seen in many ways other than through his miracles. He spoke to men, saying: "Follow Me!" and they dropped what they were doing to obey. His authority was so compelling, that even His adversaries said: "No man ever spoke as He."

He taught His own doctrines, which made up a New Covenant with His Israel people (not the Jews). He did this without referring to Moses. As far as the written record is concerned, we see no place where He mentioned the Jewish deity ELOHIM, ADONAE or JAHVEH! Yet there are those today, within the Christian world, who say His religion is nothing but a continuation of the heathen religion of the Jews. We can see this, as He speaks to the Pharisees in Matthew 23:15, accusing them of going over sea and land to make one proselyte (convert) "and when he is made, ye (Pharisees) make him two-fold more a child of hell than yourselves. (Compare with John 8:44).

Jesus was not afraid to flout the authority of Moses, when He told the Pharisees who asked for a sign that a "greater than Jonas and Solomon is here," (Matt. 12:41, 42.)

If He had been only a mere man and had made these statements. If he had been only a teacher of righteousness, as modern theologians would have us believe, the Jews would have stoned Him to death.

Some will say, "But the scribes and Pharisees questioned His authority." Yes, and so did Satan. That was their evil business and our Savior repudiated them on every occasion. The real significance was that the scribes and Pharisees, and even Satan, appealed to tradition and over and over again they said: "It is written!" or as Satan asked the Master during His wilderness trial: "Is it not written?" and over and over again we hear our Lord reply: "In vain do ye worship Me (God), teaching for doctrines the traditions of men," (Matthew 15:9).

Christ's mentality, as shown in the Gospels, stands in vivid contrast to the static-mindedness and backward-looking type of mind exhibited by the Pharisees. These distinctions alone, should set Him apart from the Jews, who still follow this Talmudic-Pharisee religion. It is utterly irrational to believe that Jesus the Christ, evolved His religion from a people who were as "hide-bound," as the Pharisees, both in their concept of morality, ethics, deity and humanity, and in their relations with each other and with those they call "goyim," Yiddish for "non-Jew animal.")

Even without the support of history, there is a difference in Jesus that lifted Him immeasurably above the Jewish concept: "Thus it is written!"

No doubt, to disciples such as Thomas, Christ was a perpetual puzzle. They followed Him because of His compelling influence. For His disciples, like all those who had fallen under the influence of Judaism, were looking for a physical Savior who would deliver them from the oppression of Rome. Other pretenders had come before, only to expire on Roman crosses.

But here we find a man, endowed with super-human power, (they had seen it in His acts of healing, and as He cast out demons; as He fed the multitudes on a few loaves of bread and a few fishes; as He rebuked the storm on Galilee and the tumultuous waves stilled). But He was not interested in statecraft, or politics, or military leadership, nor of religious institutions as He found them. He could have been crowned king. That was what the multitude wanted on Palm Sunday as He rode into Jerusalem on that colt. Remember how the adoring crowd shouted: "Hosanna to the Son of David?" (Matt. 21:9) and when some asked: "Who is He?" they received the sarcastic answer from the religious and political leaders of Jewry: "Jesus the prophet of Nazareth. Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?"

The Son of God came to fight sin. The Apostle John who was one of the closest of His disciples, much later, defined sin in 1 John 3:4, when he correctly stated: "Sin is transgression (breaking) of the law." Then in vs 8, he stated Christ's purpose in coming to earth: "...For this purpose the Son of God was manifested (made known) that He might destroy the works of evil." If this is true, and we know it is, then why should anyone who goes by the name of Christian, support those who always promote evil?

Christ came to set the captive free from the chains of sin and it's penalty - death I The old law said: "The soul that sinneth, it shall die!" (Ezekiel 18:43). Christ came to dethrone sin in the human heart and the Jewish leaders opposed Him!

He went into their synagogues (which were community meeting places) and spoke as was His right. It was when He went to the synagogue in His home town of Nazareth, that He announced His mission and His chosen text from Isaiah 61:1 - "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; He hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised. To preach the acceptable year of the Lord." (Luke 4:18,19).

So the Jewish leaders sought to kill Him! Why? Because He was in no sense the militant Messiah they wanted, and besides this, they said: "Is this not the son of Joseph, the carpenter from Galilee?"

According to Josephus, the Galileans were a hot-headed lot who did not stop at half-way measures. (Simon Peter was a good example!) But simple as they were, they needed a miracle to stun their faculties into a receptive mood. So when they saw Jesus feed the multitude with a few fishes and loaves of bread, they were willing to follow Him, not as Savior, but as the long awaited Messiah.

Surely, a man who could multiply bread and fish, and who could command the wind and waves, could call fire down from heaven to consume their adversaries!

When He attempted to help mankind from the goodness of His heart, it brought Him publicity He did not crave, and the more He told the recipients to be quiet about it, the more they spread His fame. They were more interested in what He could do for them physically, than in His message of freedom from the effects of sin. He deplored and often reproved their "looking for a sign," for some "trick," or "miracle," that would prove who He was. Many men and women still look for that same sign today. This is especially prevalent among our Charismatic Christians who often rely more on "signs", than on what the Word of God teaches. They often teach "giving to the Lord, not because you love Him, but for what you will get in return." Most of the TV evangelists teach this false concept.

Jesus sought to break with Jewish tradition in order to identify Himself with the spiritual world which He came to reveal. His message was for the future, in spite of what the Preterist teach. He stood alone, on His own ground, as the only begotten Son of God, who was also the Son of man. He did not need Jewish fables to sanction His message to mankind.

It is always the self-evident things which are the hardest to prove. Christ's teachings were too simple to be understood by the religious leaders of His day. Today, they are called "over simplification." The Apostle Paul, in Romans 1:22, speaks about those who "Professing themselves to be wise, became fools." Then later in 2 Timothy 3:7, he enlarges on this by stating that there are some men who are "Ever learning, and never able to come to the understanding of the truth." These are those who are "educated idiots," with strings of degrees behind their name, who refuse to accept truth. In 2 Corinthians 11:3, Paul expresses concern when he said: "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety (trickery), so your minds should corrupted from the SIMPLICITY that is Christ."

WHAT DID CHRIST SAY ABOUT HIS MESSIAHSHIP?

There is no record that I know of, except for one test of a rather questionable witness, that Christ ever claimed to the Jewish Messiah. This Scriptural criteria for authenticity rests on the testimony of two or more witness.

Over against this rather dubious incident, which has no "second witness", there are at least three different occasions when Christ by implication repudiated this Jewish Messiahship. When He asked the Jewish Pharisees: "What think ye of Christ? Whose son is he?" They answered: "The son of David," (Luke 20:41.) Jesus immediately challenged this in vs 42 when He said: "David himself saith in the book of Psalms, The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies thy footstool. David therefore calleth Him Lord, how then is He this son?" Verse 40 says they dare not ask Him any more questions.

On another occasion when He asked His disciples "What do men say that I the Son of man am?" They gave Him various answers, not one which indicated that He was the Messiah. But when Jesus asked "point blank" "But whom say ye that I am?" He got an equally blunt answer from Peter who said "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God," (Matt. 16:16). (Notice Peter said nothing about His being the "long awaited Messiah,") and Jesus approved of what Peter said by telling him: "Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jonah: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven."

Peter is the first person of consequence of whom we have record, who did not repeat the customary palaver about Christ the Son of David being a national Jewish hero.

The third occasion was when John the Baptist, in prison, discouraged and despondent, sent his disciples to Christ to ask: "Art thou He that should come, or look we for another?" (Luke 7:20).

It was a frank question which deserved an equally frank answer. In plain speech, John who has risked his life for Christ was asking: "Are you or are you not the Messiah?"

Notice Christ's answer. He did not say: "Go back and tell John I am a King." He said nothing about being the "Messiah," instead He said (vs 22) "Go back and tell him what you have seen, the blind see, the deaf hear, the lame walk, the dead are raised to life." Instead of saying: "Sure, tell John I'm the Messiah!" He said in essence: "Let the record speak for itself!"

WHAT WAS CHRIST'S ATTITUDE TOWARD GENTILES?

Was there a difference in the manner our Lord differentiated between Jews and Gentiles? Remember now, that the terms JEWS and GENTILES are JEWISH categories. Christ did not include Himself in either one.

When the word GENTILE was applied to the Romans, their conquerors, it usually had a hostile meaning. It was neighborly, when applied to the Greeks and Phoenicians with whom they did business. Then there was a third classification of GENTILES, which included proselytes (converts) to Judaism. These were sort of "poor relations," to the bigoted Pharisees.

So when Jesus said to His disciples: "For after all these things (and here He was speaking about food, shelter, and material things) do the Gentiles seek." He was in reality saying: "This is what the nations surrounding us seek after." For the word GENTILES in Greek, is ETHNOS, which means "Non-Jew" nations. It has absolutely nothing to do with heathen people. Remember also, that at this time, the "lost tribes" of Israel, which had escaped from Assyrian captivity, were living mostly in Asia Minor and in Europe to the north. These tribes had become "Gentilized," in other words, had lost their Hebrew characteristics, their identity, and their Hebrew religion. They were no longer considered as Israelites by the Jewish leaders.

This confusion in the use of this term is illustrated in Paul's use of the word JEW, which strictly speaking, in the language of that day, meant an inhabitant of Judea. it had absolutely no religious connotation.

The King James Bible translators have much to answer for before the King for this mis-translation, which often causes confusion in the minds of believers. It has the Apostle Paul repeatedly speak of himself as a Jew, when it actually meant he was a follower of the Jewish religion. For he tells us himself, in no uncertain terms, that he was an Israelite from the tribe of Benjamin. Listen to him as he describes himself in Romans 11:1 - "For I also am an ISRAELITE, of the seed of ABRAHAM, of the tribe of Benjamin." Just because the tribe of Benjamin had a close association with the tribe of Judah, did not turn Benjamites into Jews.

When Jesus faced a Roman centurion, who begged Him to heal his servant in Matthew 8:10. Jesus said of him: "I have not found so great faith, no not in Israel." What He was literally saying was: "I have not found this sort of faith among the Jews."

Then we have the story of the Greek woman, a Syro-Phonecian, in Mark 7. On the surface, it appears as though Christ was indifferent to her appeal. After He had literally called her a "dog," in vs 27, He was amazed at her humble answer: "...Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs." He gave her His undying commendation when He said: "For this saying (faith and humility) go thy way; the devil (evil spirit) is gone out of thy daughter."

There are at least two references in the New testament where the Word GENTILES clearly refers to the Romans and it is employed with neither kindness or hostility. It was here that Christ told His disciples what the Romans would do to Him. He told this without hate, since He did not hold the Romans responsible for what was about to happen.

Then He stunned His disciples, who had been arguing about which one of them would be the greatest in the Kingdom by saying:

"He who would be great among you, let him become your servant." This must have come as somewhat of a shock to them. Then to further emphasize this, He washed their feet, which was one of the humblest tasks they could imagine. Even then, they didn't completely understand and it took the crucifixion and the Resurrection to get this truth across to them.

> (FOOTNOTE:-
> While Jesus was born In Judea (Bethlehem) and subsequently referred to as the Lion of The Tribe of Judah, (Rev. 5:5.10) this in no wise is to be Interpreted as representative of Jewish heritage. Christ's birth heritage is noted as belonging to the Royal (original) House of Judah comprised of pure Israelite stock. The terms Jew and Israelite were not then and are not now synonymous and thus non-interchangeable. As noted, His rearing took place In Galilee.)

There is one passage of Scripture which stands out vividly in Christ's early ministry, which needs explanation, since many Christians, even those who are pastors, and seminarians, do not seem to understand its simple message.

Christ had just finished calling His twelve disciples. They were all "hand-picked" by the Master, even the only Jew among them, Judas Iscariot, who would betray Him. He called them together to receive final instructions before He sent them on their first missionary journey to the "lost sheep of the house of Israel." They were to be on their own during this venture, as He would be with them only in the spirit.

There is no record of Him giving them instructions as to what they were to say, but He did tell them where to go, what to do, and what they could expect in return. In Matthew 10:5, 6 we read: "Go not in the way of the GENTILES (Romans probably), and into any city of the Samaritans, enter ye not, but go rather to the LOST SHEEP OF THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL."

Now most pastors will tell you that Christ was sending His disciples to convert the unsaved Jews to Christianity. But a close look at the meaning of the Greek words for "lost sheep," will dispel this error. The word LOST in Greek, is APPOLUMI which is made up of two root words; APO, which in this case means: "separation", and OLLUMI, which in this case means 'PUNISHMENT." So we see that this word LOST literally means: "those who were separated, or banished for punishment," which is what happened to Israel. This word LOST is used 16 times in the New Testament, and 14 times, it has the meaning given above. In the other two, Matthew 5:13 and Luke 14:34, Christ was speaking about the Christian salt which has LOST it's savor, (ability to act like salt and hold back corruption.)

Of course "those who were banished as punishment for their sins," were the "lost sheep of the House of Israel," as can be seen from a study of the book of Hosea. In 1:10, we read God's own words concerning "LOST ISRAEL." "Yet the number of the children of Israel (not Jews), shall be as the sand of the sea which cannot be measured nor numbered; (notice carefully now:) "and it shall come to pass in the place where it is said unto them. 'Ye are not my people;' (remember God divorced them!) there it shall be said unto them, 'Ye are the children of the living God.'"

Doesn't it seem strange to you, that the pastors of America who insist that the White Anglo-Saxon and related people are not "true Israel," will opt instead for a group of anti-Christ's who bear none of the fingerprints which "true Israel" was to have in the closing out days of this Age? The people we call JEWS, cannot now, and never have fit into the description given in God's Word, which identifies "true Israel."

But back to that first missionary journey in Palestine. Christ told His disciples to take no money or provisions with them, but to "live off the land," so to speak. They were to heal the sick, raise the dead, cast out evil spirits, and above all preach the Kingdom message. These other things were merely confirmation of their authority from the King.

He warned them that He was sending them forth as "sheep among wolves," and told them to beware of those to whom they were being sent, for they would deliver them upto earthly tribunals, and persecute and kill some of them. He told them that as men had persecuted Him, the Son of God, so they would persecute His followers.

This warning was not only for that limited missionary effort, but was for our day as well. We can see it in operation today. If you are willing to placate the Babylonian authorities you can have large fashionable churches, with many members, and make millions off your TV ministry. But if you preach the truth, and tell men what God expects of them, and warn them of their short comings, they will persecute and hate you. In one place Jesus said, a time would come when people would think they were pleasing God, by killing you, (John 16:2). I believe we are very close to that time now, as the Christian world turns it's back on the truth of God's Word, and the messengers who proclaim it. Men and women who refuse to bow the knee to worldly authority, but worship the king only, have always been hated by the complacent religious crowd.

We can assume that there were many Israelites living in Judea at this time, and we know this is where the disciples went, for our Lord sent them south, telling them not to even stop over in Samaria.

Could it be that He sent His messengers first to an area heavily populated by Jews, to show that the Jews were a "stiff-necked, self-righteous lot" whose father's had murdered God's servants in the past, and would refuse the truth then?

At this time, He was not looking for martyrs for the cause and told them in essence that if the wolves attacked, they should "run for their lives."

There is also an indication here that this message was for the future, since He told them: ". . . Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, til the Son of God be come." He was already here, so why would He make a statement such as this? The disciples could have easily visited every city in Judea in two weeks, so he could not have been referring to Judea, or even Palestine. I believe He was pointing ahead to this Age, when His kingdom Message must be preached in "all the cities and towns of true Israel," scattered across the earth, before the king returns the second time. I know this will get the Preterists upset, but so be it!

Then He told them something I keep reminding my "boys" in the Prison ministry about. When they complain because fellow inmates will not listen to the truth, I tell them. "REMEMBER, you are not to be the PERSUADER. That is the task of the Holy spirit. It is your duty to take the truth to your fellow men to the best of your God given ability. What they do with it then becomes a matter between God and them." In Ezekiel 33:6, we are told these sobering words. If the "watchman" on the walls of Israel, (and this is as true today as when this was written in 587 BC.) fails to warn his people when he sees evil approach, whether it is because he has gone to sleep at his post, or has become careless, or has been bribed by the enemy not to give warning; if as a result of this God's people are harmed "their blood will I (God) require at the watchman's hand." Think about that, Mr. Preacher, the next time you want to preach "Peace! Peace when you know there is no peace!" Think about that the next time you want to glorify God's enemy as His Chosen People, when you know this is false and will lead to their harm. Think about this, Mr. Politician, when you are tempted to "sell out" our people to better your political position. GOD WILL HOLD YOU ACCOUNTABLE FOR ANYTHING THAT HARMS HIS PEOPLE!

That's why I preach hard. That's why I'm harsh at times! That's why I "tell it like it is," in stead of trying to "soft soap" the unpleasant things. My task is to "Cry aloud, lift up thy voice as a trumpet, and show my people their transgressions..." (shortcomings) Isaiah 58:1. I'm not here to win a popularity contest and I don't ever want to be in the terrifyingly embarrassing position of having to explain to the King, why I went to sleep on sentry duty. Vs 9 of Ezek. 33 tells us that if the watchman gives the warning, and the people refuse to listen, they will "die in their sins, but thou hast delivered thy soul."

So our Lord, using picturesque language, told His disciples not to waste their time on those who did not want to listen. He said: "cast not your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and rend you." This is often what happens when we attempt to force feed TRUTH, to those who do not want to accept it.

There is no record that they made many converts. There was nothing in the daily news about their filling the coliseums (football stadiums), there was nothing which indicated that 45,000 at one meeting "signed commitment papers," to follow the Lord.

But, they came back rejoicing, saying: "Lord, even the devils were subject to us!" There is no record that Jesus gave them any words of praise either, for they were merely doing their duty. I am always skeptical about these Christian leaders, and I could name some that you know, who tell about stopping in a garage for a short time while their car is being fixed, and in that short period leading ten or twelve men to the Lord. Friend, it just doesn't work that way!

A few years ago, before I came into the Identity truth, I was speaking at Bob Jones University, Greenville, North Carolina. I was discussing with Dr. Bob, Jr., the reasons that Billy Graham had turned from being a stalwart "soldier of the cross," into an unbelievably compromising Christian who would not hold a city meeting, unless the apostate National Council of churches was invited to attend. Dr. Bob told me, that a few weeks earlier, Billy and his wife had been visiting the school. Dr. Bob said, "I asked Billy straight out why we had made this change, and he refused to answer. But Ruth, his wife, looked me straight in the eye and said: 'Bob, we will do anything necessary to fill the football stadiums.'" This kind of Christian action, is killing America!

There are many instances of Christ praising the Gentiles, (and here remember the true meaning of the word). Many times He contrasted their actions to those of their Jewish neighbors. Probably the best known is that of the Good Samaritan, as told in Luke 10:30-37. Then when He cleansed ten lepers in Luke 17:15-18, it was only the Jew despised Samaritan who gave Him thanks.

So with the vivid pictures, Christ painted in the Gospels, a honest person is forced to admit that Christianity came into being, not from the heathen apostasy of Talmudic Judaism, but in spite of it!

THE DIVINE TRAGEDY!

Whenever men seek for an excuse for performing a shameful deed, in court, the validity of the charge means very little. The main point is whether the false charge can be made to stand, and the ease with which it can be accomplished. So as the hatred of the Jewish leaders grew, for this upstart named Jesus, they finally managed to bring Him before the Roman Governor, Pontius Pilate on a charge of "sedition against Rome." (This is one of the major accusations made against patriotic Christians by the alien government today, and one that is most difficult to defend against).

The "trumped up charge" the Jewish leaders used was that He had proclaimed Himself to be the Jewish Messiah, and hence their king, and that He was stirring up the Jews to rebellion against Rome.

We could honestly call this a "sanctimonious frame-up," since there is no evidence that Christ had any more to do with Jewish and Roman politics, than He had with the Jewish religion.

But the Talmudic representatives of Judaism, knowing that Pilate would be upset with any plot against Caesar, had been so thoroughly exposed to the public as hypocrites, that their offended dignity could stand it no longer and they were willing to bring false charges against this man who called Himself the Son of God.

The same would be true of our religious leaders today, if someone were to expose them for the hypocrites many are. But this is even more so with the Jews, who are very "thin skinned" people when it comes to criticism of any kind. Since they have proclaimed themselves to be the "Chosen People," and since many Christian leaders back them in their claim, they believe themselves to be above criticism of any kind, since they are always right in their own eyes. Have you ever known a Jew to apologize when he was caught in an illegal act? I never have! He always has an excuse for what he has done!

Finally through the treachery of the only Jew among his disciples, Judas Iscariot (and notice the Jewish trait; he did it for money), Christ was delivered into the power of the Jewish Sanhedrin. Their problem then was to get the Roman Governor to see things their way, since they had no legal right to execute this just man, who had broken no laws, yet who they were set on killing.

They also wanted to shift the blame for His murder onto the Romans, and thus discredit Rome in the eyes of all who had become Christians.

They had plenty of authority from the Babylonian Talmud to kill him in many and horrible ways, as a blasphemer and violator of the Jewish Sabbath.

But the Jews have always been "past masters," at getting others to do their "dirty work" for them, and "pull their chestnuts out of the fire." So they set about letting the Romans do the dastardly deed, thus affording, or so they thought, an alibi for themselves.

It is not at all unusual today, in so-called "free America" to have a Christian numbered among the transgressors; then have Jewish judges and attorneys (and they are in the majority in the American Bar Association), tamper with the law of the land in such a manner as to condemn them. This Jewish sense of justice is as rudimentary as that of the lowest savage - the condemning of the accused, without a trial, and the weighing of evidence through passion, rather than on facts.

The idea of subverting justice for Christians was declared in the 13th century, when a Jewish head rabbi in Aries, France, sent out a Protocol to the Jews in Europe, to "make your sons advocates of the law, so that thereby they can divest Christians of their rights in court."

Pilate had incurred the wrath of the Jewish leaders by the roughshod manner in which he had ruled the land and he was trying tb get back into the good graces of the troublesome Sanhedrin. He was anxious to please them, while at the same time his sense of Roman justice told him that Christ was an innocent man. But they clinched their case, when they told Pilate: "If you let this fellow go, you are no friend of Caesar," (John 19:12). To a Roman politician, this could well be a death blow. Pilate did not want to incur the displeasure of the Emperor, for it had cost many a Roman politician his head.

No doubt Pilate had heard reference made to Jesus as the king of the Jews. We can gather this by the questions he asked during the trial. (John 19:33) "Art thou the king of the Jews?" But notice Christ's answer, it was not in the affirmative, instead He repudiated this by saying: "Do you say this of your own volition, or did someone tell you this?"

When Pilate asked Him again in vs 37: "Art thou a king then?" Jesus answered in the affirmative. He had just finished telling Pilate that His kingdom was not of this world order, for if it were: "My servants would fight to keep Me from being delivered to the Jews." He was a King all right, make no mistake about that, but He was not "king of the Jews."

We know that Pilate did not recognize Him as a threat to Rome, for on several occasions, he told the Jewish accusers: "I find no fault in Him!" (vs 38).

But the Jewish rabble (and I'm sure there were some who had acclaimed Him the Son of David a few days earlier, when He entered Jerusalem in triumph) under the direction of the hypocrites in the Sanhedrin had already condemned Him to be put to death. The trial before Pilate was only a formality, for as in many Jewish trials, the victim was pronounced guilty before the trial was begun. It was "Judge Lynch" in the person of the High Priest who demanded that Pilate execute the Christ. Pilate tried to squirm out of it by offering the Jews a real murderer named Barabbas as a substitute. So what we really see, when Pilate finally gives in to their bloodthirsty demands, in Jewish "ritual murder," which we have reason to believe is still practiced today.

To evil men, there is nothing more infuriating, than to be confronted by a righteous life. Formal righteousness, was the only kind the satanists in the Sanhedrin understood. Their insulted dignities could not withstand the righteousness of He who said to them: "Let he who is without sin, cast the first stone," (John 8:7). So just as they do today, Caiphas the High Priest, hired perjurers, who testified falsely against Him, speaking words which had been given to them by the High Priest. (We saw this same thing happen a few years ago, when the government charged some Christian Patriots with "sedition," in the Fort Smith Trial. The government hired "false witnesses," against these Christians. Only this time God intervened; all the accused were vindicated. The false charges, and the false witnesses were exposed in court, yet none of them have been prosecuted, although they lied to the court, while under oath. This, my Christian friends, is the Jewish way!

When Caiphas told Jesus: "I adjure (swear under oath) Thee by the Living God that thou tell us whether Thou be the Christ, the Son of God," Jesus recognized this as a challenge which might well condemn Him to death, yet He refused to evade it and answered in the affirmative. Matthew 26:64, tells us that Jesus replied: "...Thou hast said; nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven." At this the High Priest tore his garments and shouted: "He hath spoken blasphemy, what further need have we of witnesses? Behold now ye have heard His blasphemy." And the rest of the Sanhedrin said (vs 66) "He is guilty of death!"

When Pilate had questioned Christ along political lines, He remained silent, but He would not evade the question asked by the High Priest regarding His divinity, even though he knew it would condemn Him. After a hypocritical display of offended sanctity, Caiphas twisted Christ's answer into the political charge he laid before the Governor.

Did anything happen during this trial that might indicate that Christ did not consider Himself to be a member of the Jewish race? Yes, strangely by inference! Everyone who knew Him and His disciples, knew that with the exception of Judas, who was a Jew, they were Galileans.

Even the servant girl during the trial detected this by Peter's speech (Mark 14:66-70). In Matthew's Gospel it indicates that Christ said to those who came to arrest Him: "...Are you come out against a thief with swords and staves to take me? I sat daily with you, teaching in the temple and ye laid no hold on me," (Matt.26:55).

All through His trial He regarded Himself and was regarded by others as a Galilean, not a Jew. What excuse do you or your pastor have to call him a Jew? You "cannot get grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles." You can't get the pure Son of God and his religion from the "pig pen of Talmudic Judaism."

It was not Christ who called Himself "King of the Jews," it was Pilate who had this inscription written above His cross to irritate the Jews, and even your precious king James Bible is wrong, for anyone who knows Latin knows that IEUS NAZARENOUS REX IUDERUM! means "Jesus of Nazareth, ruler of the Judeans!"

With the exception of a few of His followers, almost all the people at His execution were Jews, and Matthew 27:24, 25 says that when Pilate washed his hands of the blood of this innocent man, ALL the Jews, not just their leaders said: "His blood be on us, and on our children!" They condemned themselves for all time, for the murder of the Son of God, no matter how much you and your pastor seek to exonerate them.

The supreme testimony of Christ against Jewish Messiahship came during His trial when He said: "Ye call me King, and so I am; But my kingdom is not of this world (order)," vs 36. That should be enough to silence those who want to talk about Christ's Jewish Messiahship.

The modern Jewish claim that Christ came from their race, though not the Messiah they look for, is a flimsy absurdity and is an attempt to revive the heresy of the Ebionites and drag His Divinity down to a Jewish level.

So they crucified him!

THE ESCAPE FROM JUDAISM

The escape of the new religion called Christianity from the background of Judaism was most difficult. It had to be accomplished during the First Century church by men such as Paul and John and later during the Reformation period, only to have it crop once again in modern evangelistic and fundamentalist circles.

The man chosen by God to show the distinction between Judaism and Christianity was an Israelite from the tribe of Benjamin, who was a Roman by birth citizenship, but a Jew by religion. This was the Pharisee trained Saul of Tarsus, who was one of the worst persecutors of the new belief, until his miraculous confrontation with the risen Christ on the road to Damascus, as told in Acts chapter nine. It was at this point, that Saul, whose name was changed to Paul, became the missionary to the Gentilized nations of Israel in Asia Minor, who were in reality the "lost sheep of the house of Israel," who had lost their identity as Israelites. When grave doctrinal differences raised bytheJudaized Ebionites threatened the First Century Christian church and the relationship between the Apostle Peter and Paul, the spirit of the resurrected Christ prevailed and they submitted their differences to His leadership.

We need to remember that these early Israelite Christians were fallible men, rather than the infallible saints some have painted them.

Few Christians realize the importance of the Greek culture and language in shaping the early church (more properly called the "ecclessia"). It was not so much the influence of the Greek language in itself, which was enormous, but in the refusal of the early Christians to submit to Judaizing influences. As mentioned earlier, the Ebionite influence in the church, came from those Judaizers who demanded that Christians MUST first be circumcised before they could be "saved." Remember, that the vast majority of these early Christians were not Jews, but Israelites. But they had been brought up in the Jewish religion, which at the time of Christ was a "bastard religion," which had little to do with Old Testament Hebrewism. Jesus indicated this, when the Pharisees bragged to Him about how they followed the teachings of Moses, He replied: "If ye had believed Moses, ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me." (John 5:46.)

So persuasive was the Greek influence, not only in Galilee, but also in Judea, that the Old Testament which had been translated into the Aramaic language in Alexandria, Egypt, had to be retranslated into Greek so the Jews could themselves understand it. (Hebrew, at this time, was for all intents and purposes a "dead language.) This Greek translation became known as the Septuagint.

When the message of Christ began to spread north and west, into the lands occupied by the "true Israelites," the writers of the New Testament wrote in Greek. As a result of this, in the words of Apostle Paul, (Romans 1:23) the Gospel became a "stumbling block (Greek - occasion of falling, or offense) to the Jews, and foolishness (Greek - absurdity) to the Greeks."

It is significant that modern Jewish historians such as Prof. Graetz and Dr. Klauser, make a broad distinction between the "pagan Greeks and the Judeo-Christians." (Yes, they had them in the 1st Century too!)

Apparently there was a friendly feeling between the Ebionite, Judeo-Christians, and the Anti-Christs of the Talmud, which caused the Apostle Paul to warn Christians in 2 Corinthians 6:14, not to be "unequally yoked together with unbelievers; for what fellowship hath righteousness (the teachings of Christ), with unrighteousness (the teachings of the occult Talmud), and what communion hath (Christian) light, with (Jewish) darkness?"

He then asks a searching question in vs 15: "What concord (agreement) hath Christ with Belial?

(this is Lucifer, the god worshiped by Jewry) or what part hath he (the Christian) that believeth, with a (Jewish) infidel?"

Here is a brief summary of the differences between Judaism and Christianity:

> 1) Christ showed His complete detachment from Judaism by His direct appeal to God, as the Father in heaven. He did not make this appeal on the basis of race, or that as a Jew He was entitled to it. This was a typical Jewish argument.
> 2) The contrast between the message of Christ and that of Judaism is so diametrically different, it should need no explanation. To those Israelites who had been brought up under Judaism, He showed kindly tolerance. It was only to the religious leaders who had been leading the Israelite people astray, that His harshest remarks were made. When they mentioned how they followed Moses, He said: (John 5:45) "Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father; there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom (you say) you trust."
> 3) Christ was not an enemy of Judaism, or Mohammedanism, or any other religion, except as "light is the enemy to darkness." He contented Himself with showing mankind "a more excellent way," (1 Cor. 12:31).
> 4) Christ followed the. Hebrew customs, such as the observance of the Passover, and He honored the Sabbath Day. These were Hebrew-Israelite ceremonies, which had been stolen by Judaism. For you see, the Jews of His day, were the one's He spoke about later in Rev. 2:9; 3:9, when He spoke of the "blasphemy of those who say they are Jews (Judeans), and are not; but are of the synagogue of Satan." (Think about this, the next time your pastor tries to talk you into supporting these anti-Christ's.) He taught in the Jewish synagogues, since they were the "town halls" of that day.
> 5) In His parting instructions to His disciples, Christ said nothing about their dealing with the soul deadening influences of Judaism. Instead He told them to "go into all the world and preach the Gospel." (The good news of His Kingdom.) This news consisted of the fact that through Jesus Christ, ALL mankind can be reconciled to God. This made it a "non-Jew" religion, for Talmudic Judaism is for the Jew alone, with the death penalty for any "goyim," (non-Jew animal) who even reads it!

Christ sowed the seed of the new religion, knowing that its germination power, was far beyond anything that mankind could comprehend.

It should be repeated over and over again that the Gospels were written after most of the disciples had already suffered martyrdom. This religion, was a religion, not just for the "chosen people of Israel"; it was not an exclusive religion such as that taught by Judaism, it Was for all mamkind who would accept Christ as Savior and King The priority of presentation Was first to the "lost sheep of the house of Israel," for this was His primary mission. From there the blessings of the promise made to Father Abraham in Genesis 12:3, were to spread to all who would accept His Lordship. The universality of this religion can be seen in John 1:12, which states: "But as many as receive Him (Jesus Christ) to them gave He (God) the power, to become the sons of God; even to those who believe on His name."

Though some in Identity preach that salvation is only for Israel, this is a perversion of Scriptural teaching.

Again in Galatians 4:26-29, we read: "For ye are ALL the children of God, by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew (Judean) nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are ALL

ONE in Christ Jesus, and if ye be Christ's, then are ye ABRAHAM'S SEED, and HEIRS ACCORDING TO THE PROMISE," (Galatians 4:25-29) Some of you "racial supremists" may not like this, but there it is and I cannot change its truth!

The Jews could never have originated an all encompassing religion such as this, for the very nature of Judaism is a selfish, revengeful religion, devoid of fair play and honesty towards anyone who is not a Jew. How blasphemous it is to believe that the beauty of Christianity could have sprung from such bigotry, hatred and the "cesspool mentality" of Talmudic Judaism.

Christ did not attempt to overthrow other religions, nor did He seek to change men and women. There is no Scriptural evidence that He ever gave an "altar call" during any of His sermons. His message, as was that of the disciples, who also did not use the "altar call," was one of liberation for men and women from the power of sin, and from the "wages of sin," which Scriptures say is "death," (Rom. 6:23; Gen. 2:17; James 1:15.)

Judaism, as It appeared on the historical scene, when Hebrews came back from Babylon captivity with the occult religion of Babylon, cannot survive as a living organism. It is a vampire religion, practiced by a vampire people, which destroys everything it comes in contact with. The modern Jewish author, Oscar Levy, in the introduction to his book, THE WORLD SIGNIFICANCE OF THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION, said: "We Jews today are nothing else but the world seducers; it's destroyers; it's incendiaries; it's executioners. There has been no progress, and it is our (Jewish) mentality which has prohibited all real progress, and - what is worse - stands in the way of all future natural reconstruction of this world. I look at this world and shudder at it's ghastliness; I shudder even more when I recognize the SPIRITUAL AUTHORS of this ghastliness, "(International Jewry.)

The compromise between Judaism and Christianity in the early "ecclessia," could not endure, for the two were completely unrelated and irreconcilable. One is tolerant; the other completely intolerant.

Having murdered the head of the "new faith," then known as THE WAY, the Jews set out to throttle all teachings for His doctrines. They forbade Christians to heal in the name of Jesus. One thing led to another, until at the behest of Jews, Christians were thrown into prison, were tortured and executed. In Acts 12:1, we read: "Now about this time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. And he killed James, the brother of John with the sword. And BECAUSE HE SAW IT PLEASED THE JEWS, (notice this very carefully now) he proceeded further to take Peter also." BECAUSE IT PLEASED THE JEWS! it sounds almost like what is happening in Washington, DC today. "What the Jews want; the Jews get," whether it is good for Americans, and for Christians in particular, matters little. Sad to say, this utterly un-Christian and foreign attitude, is backed by the majority of our churchmen, who have become willing prostitutes of Judaism.

It was at this time of Christian peril, that Christians found friends among native elements of the Greeks, who were mostly Israelites, although, like most "true Israelites," today, they did not know this and looked on themselves as Gentiles. Even before Christ's crucifixion, some of these "truth seekers," had come to Philip and said: "Sir, we would see Jesus!" These were white Aryans like ourselves. They were cultured men. The meaning of the message of Christ made sense to them and Philip and Andrew (both of these names are Greek), carried the Kingdom message to them.

It was soon after these Greeks came to Jesus, that realizing that His mission was completed, He said: "The hour is come that the Son of man should be glorified. (Read the entire 12th chapter of John.) It was less than a week later that He told His disciples: "Go ye into ALL the world and preach the Gospel to every creature. (Mark 16:15). The Gospel of Luke 24:47 says: "That repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name, among ALL nations, beginning at Jerusalem." (Here the Greek word for "nations," is ETHNOS, which we have showed before, means a "non-Jewish" nation.) Matthew's Gospel (28:19, 20,) has the most complete instructions of all: "Go ye therefore, and teach ALL nations (Ethnos), baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Teaching them to observe (obey) ALL things whatsoever I have commanded you: and 10,1 am with you always, even unto the end of the world (order.)" Amen!

The new religion had a phenomenal growth and within ten years after the crucifixion there was a Christian church in Rome, and within another thirty years, a Christian church had been organized in Great Britain, very possibly by Joseph of Arimathea.

It is no wonder that the followers of THE WAY, were first called Christians at Antioch, (Acts 11:26), which was a Greek city on the seacoast.

At this time, among the Judahite believers in Jerusalem, most of whom were Israelites no doubt, there were factional disputes. Hegesippus, an early church father mentions seven of them. Probably the most destructive was that of the Ebionites who I have mentioned on several occasions. These were very probably Jews who had infiltered into the church for the purpose of causing trouble. (During the Middle Ages, in Spain, they were known as "Marranos." They were Christian by day - some even became high ranking officials in the Catholic church, but at night, in their secret enclaves, they were Jews who scoffed at the stupidity of the "goyim" Christians.)

These Judaizers came to Antioch from Jerusalem preaching the doctrine that a man could not become a Christian unless he was first circumcised. This led to a General Conference of the church in Jerusalem and the matter was settled under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. The Gentilized Israelites of Asia Minor did not have to conform to Judahite rites in order to become Christians.

Out of this Jerusalem Conference, rose the strong leadership of the Apostle Paul, who became the missionary to the Gentilized Israelites of Asia Minor. It is interesting to see how God's plan worked out, in spite of other plans which Paul evidently had. In Acts 16:6, we read: "Now when they (Paul and Timothy) had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the Word in Asia." Where were they to go? Vs 9 tells how Paul had a vision of a man from Macedonia, who appealed to him saying: "Come over into Macedonia and help us!" Paul was living close enough to the Lord, that he recognized this as God's will, and went into Asia Minor, which was made up mostly of the "lost sheep of the house of Israel."

It was Paul who confronted Peter "face to face" over the issue of circumcision, and we read that out of that Conference, the church fathers wrote to the Antioch Christians, (Acts 15:24) "Forasmuch as we have heard that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting (Greek - "to upset") your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment. (This makes me believe these were apostate Jews who had infiltrated the church). It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ . . . For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay on you no greater burden than these necessary things: That ye abstain from meets offered to idols, and from blood (eating) and from things strangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well."

You can read further about this conflict with the JudeoChristians in the new church in Galatians 2, and its end result.

As persecution increased against the Christian church, we read of very little progress made among the so-called Jews, although the church growth among the Gentilized Israelites was phenomenal.

In his book THE LIFE OF CHRIST, Ernest Renan, p. 123 says: "Jerusalem could never have conquered humanity. It was from the north (Galilee) alone, that made up Christianity."

Geographically, the escape from the influences of Judaism allowed Christianity to spread abroad as a world religion. Even before the martyrdom of Peter and Paul, it had been taken into all the known world.

It might be well to remind you at this point, that the Old Testament is not and was not a Jewish book, although many pastors and seminarians would have you believe this. It was the foundation of Hebrewism, which was a completely different religion from the occultism and heathenism of the Babylonian Talmud, which is today, according to their own leaders, the "heart blood of Judaism."

Moral precepts and religious convictions are not the exclusive property of one race, and Moses was not the only "law giver" of Mankind. There was Pythagoras, who taught the immorality of the soul, and Socrates who in 399 BC was executed for teaching men to purify the filth from the ancient Greek religion.

I personally believe, that some of the explicit sexual passages we find in the Old Testament, came into our Bible translations, as translators were influenced by the Jewish Talmud, since they have no place alongside the teachings of Jesus Christ. If you really want to know the truth about Judaism, I dare you to read the TALMUD, but be prepared for the shock of your life.

Paul evidently had a constant struggle against his Jewish training. (Remember, he was an Israelite by blood, but a Pharisee trained Jew by religion.) No wonder he cried out in spiritual agony:

"Oh wretched man that I am, who shall deliver me from the body of this death? (Judaism)." So while Paul's teachings did not destroy the Law, as many preachers teach today, he taught that those who became Christians and loved and followed the Lord, followed the Law instinctively, because it was engraved on the "tablets of their heart." It was not necessary to cram this down their throat through some church ritual.

This, of course, does not excuse the modern church, usually the Judeo-Christian church, which quite untruthfully teaches that the Law was done away when Christ died, and that as a Christian you can get by with almost anything! While the Christian can now approach God for forgiveness, without having to go to a priest with a sacrifice, the Law of Harvest, which says "What you sow; that shall you also reap," is as much in effect for the Christian as for the unsaved. A Christian cannot deliberately break the Law, without suffering the consequences

The Apostle John gives us a clear definition of "sin" in 1 John 3:4, he says: "Sin is TRANSGRESSION (breaking) of the Law." If there is no LAW, then there can be no SIN, yet we can look about us on every side and see SIN, and it's terrifying results, so we KNOW sin still exists, no matter what the theologians tell us to the contrary!

When Jerusalem was destroyed in 70 AD by the Roman General Titus the Christian population, heeding the warning Jesus had given in Matthew 24, had fled to the city of Pella, on the eastern side of the Jordan River, and not one lost their life. But over a million Jews perished.

Bishop Lightfoot, in his scholarly work THE APOSTOLIC FATHERS, wrote that another exodus from Jerusalem took place about this time to Ephesus, where the Apostle John, the writer of Revelation, Philip and other Christian canons were formed. Through this all, the heresy of the Ebionites continued and it was said to have been especially strong in the refugee city of Pel Ia.

There appeared to be four major points in the Ebionist heresy, as taken from George Adam Smith's book, HISTORICAL GEOGRAPHY OF THE HOLY LAND, p631.

1) Had to do with the enforcing of the Mosaic Law.

2) Affirmed the human birth of Christ over His divinity.

3) Abjured the Apostle Paul~as a heretic; something the "Paul bashers," within Identity are attempting to do today, and:

4) Looking forward to Christ's return to form an earthly Messianic kingdom, in which they would be the supreme rulers of the world.

It is little wonder that the writers of the Talmud were on good terms with these First Century Judeo-Christians.

Paul replied to the Ebionite's charge of heresy in Gal. 2:21, where he said: "I do not frustrate (and this is the only time this word is used in the New Testament. It is the Greek word ATHETEO, which means: 'to set aside; neutralize; reject.') the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain." Nearly this entire Epistle is Paul's answer to the Ebionites.

It is not necessary for us to question the sincerity of those who taught the Ebionite doctrine, nor their fidelity to Jesus Christ. But sincerity is only a "matter of intent." You can be very sincere and be "sincerely wrong." This thinking follows the thought pattern of many church liberals who say that a man or woman will be saved by their sincerity - not so. So it was with the Ebionites who went beyond facts, and in defiance of the first Apostles of the church, attempted to bind down the New Covenant with the concepts of the Old. They made a grievous error, which has continued until this day in conceiving our Savior to be a Jew, with Jewish characteristics. Along with this, of course, they must accept Christianity as a continuation of the primitive cult of Judaism.

They failed to think of Christ apart from His Jewish surroundings. Cloistered as they were, in their narrow Jewish world, they could not conceive of a religion that was open to all men. This is a failing of many who are in Identity and one which I seek to counter whenever possible.

The following excerpts from three distinguished historians agree that the Jews were at the bottom of the violent Christian persecutions during the first three centuries after the church was formed. In this they are supported by Roman historians such as Tacitus, Pliny the Younger, and Sactonius.

In Lancianis' PAGAN AND CHRISTIAN ROME, he says on page 311 - "The pagans despised both Jews and Christians and mixed themselves up with their affairs only from a fiscal point of view, because the Jews were subject to a tax per head, and the treasury officials were obliged to keep themselves acquainted with the statistics of the colony.

"This state of things did not last very long, it being of vita! importance that the Jews separate their cause from that of the newcomers (Christians). The responsibilities for the persecutions which took place in the first century must be attributed then, not to the Romans, whose tolerance in religious matters had become almost a state rule. The first attempt under Claudius was not a success; it ended in fact, in banishment from the Capitol (Rome) of every Jew, no matter whether he believed in the Old or New Testament. (This should be considered a "figure of speech," since there was no New Testament during the First Century.) It was however, a passing cloud. As soon as they were allowed to come back to their haunts, the Jews set to work, by exciting the feelings of the populace, and denouncing the Christians as conspiring against the State, (Exactly the same thing they try and do in 1992 with Christian Patriots.) and Roman gods. Under the protection of Roman laws, (Much like our First Amendment, "Freedom of speech," law,) which guaranteed Jews free exercise of their religion. The Roman populace, impressed by the conquests made by the Gospel among all classes of the population (and many Roman nobles became Christians), was only too ready to believe this calumny. As for the State, it became a necessity, either to recognize Christianity as a new religion, or to proscribe and denounce it.

"The great fire which destroyed half of Rome under Nero, and which was set by dissident Jewish terrorists and blamed on the Christians, brought this situation to a crisis. The first persecution began. (Remember also that at this time, Emperor Nero's wife was the Jewess Poppaea, who hated Christians with a passion. At this time the Christian church was considered to be "religio illiceti," an illicit religion. This is what the IRS recently told me, when I attempted to take tax deductions for contributions to Christian Identity cause. "We do not look on Identity as a legitimate religion." Witchcraft, yes! Satanism, yes! Secular Humanism, yes! But Christian Identity, no!). "Had the magistrates who conducted the investigation into the fire been able to prove an indictment of arson, the storm might have been short and confined to Rome. But as the Christians could easily exculpate (prove their innocence) themselves, the trial was changed to become a politicio-religious one. Christians were convicted, not on charges of arson, but on hatred for mankind. (Shades of the present Anti-Defamation "hate laws.")

"This was a formula which included anarchism (sedition), atheism and high treason. These monstrous accusations once admitted, the persecution spread beyond Rome, and it became general, and more violent in some places than others, according to the impulse of the magistrates who investigated this unprecedented case."

Note the close similarity between this Roman persecution and what we see beginning in the United States and Canada. In both countries, the persecution of Christian Patriots has been instigated by Jewish leaders, with Christian patriots being accused of "sedition and hatred," which varies with the intensity of the Jewish judges and lawyers, before whom most of these cases appear. The persecution of Ernst Zundel, Malcolm Ross, and James Keegstra in Canada, are perfect examples.

In Edward Gibbons, DECLINE AND FALL OF THE ROMAN EMPIRE, VOL II, p.21 wrote: "We must therefore presume to imagine some probable cause which to direct the cruelty of Nero against the Christians of Rome, whose obscurity as well as innocence, should have shielded them from his notice. The Jews, who were numerous in the Capitol, and were oppressed in their own country (Judea) were a much fitter object for the suspicions of the Emperor and the people: nor did it seem unlikely that a vanquished nation (the Jews)... might have recourse to the most atrocious means of gratifying their implacable revenge.

"The Jews possessed a very powerful advocate in the palace and even in the heart of the tyrant: his wife and mistress, the beautiful Poppaea and a favorite actress of the race of the Jews, had already employed her intercessions in behalf of her obnoxious people. In their place it was necessary to offer some other victim, and it might easily be suggested that although the genuine followers of Moses were innocent of the fire, there had risen among them a new and pernicious sect of Gal leans who were capable of this horrid crime." (Christians.)

Earnest Renan in his book ANTICHRIST, page 140 says: "It is hard to believe that the idea of accusing Christians for the July conflagrations came of itself from Nero...

"From the accessions of Caligula to the death of Nero, Jewish cabals (plots) never ceased in Rome. Jews had aided in bringing the family of Germanicus into power and sustaining it . . . According to Josephus, Nero's crimes were ascribed to Poppaea, who supported the claims of the Jewish zealots, and adopted some of their rites. Nero hated everything Roman and surrounded himself with orientals.

". . . May we, perhaps, trace the hatred of the Jews for Christians, that exposed the most harmless of men to monstrous cruelty? It looks ill for the Jews, in all events, that their private interview with Nero and Poppaea, came when Nero conceived his hateful scheme against the Christians. Why should Rome, who commonly confounded Jew and Christian, now make such a sharp distinction between them? Why should the Jews, towards whom the Romans felt the same moral antipathy and religious prejudice as to Christians, suddenly be untouched by calumny? . . . a suspicion arises, strengthened by the fact that until the destruction of Jerusalem in 70 AD the Jews were the real persecutors, and spared no efforts to exterminate Christians."

If these historians had lived until this time, they might have asked: "Which one race rejoices in the slaughter and torture of millions of Christians? Which one race has been responsible for financing and managing the Communist machine which has murdered 140-million people in the last seventy years?"

Their main objective, according to their own leaders and writers, is still the destruction of White Christian civilization and the freedom it has brought to a tired world. Are you willing to admit that your Savior, Jesus the Christ, sprang from this evil race? God forbid! This borders on blasphemy!

CHRISTIANITY AND OCCIDENTAL RELIGION

Some scholars have thoughtlessly said that Christianity is an oriental religion. But this statement either shows their ignorance of the facts, or their deliberate distortion of the same.

While the sun rises in the east, this does not make the sun Oriental; and like the sun, Christianity expanded it's influence only as it moved westwards following the path of "true Israel." We have already seen how God Himself kept the Gospel from spreading to the east at this time, instead, following the words of Christ "I am not sent but (only) to the lost sheep of the house of Israel," (Matt. 10:6; 15:24), they went West.

No strictly Oriental religion has ever made much headway in the West, among the predominantly White nations we know as Christendom and because of the distinct differences in mentality, they never will. (Notice, I did not say that Whites were superior in mentality, but it has been proven without a shadow of a doubt that they are different in their thinking from other races and nationalities.)

Occasionally we see a few Whites who are sucked into the vortex of Oriental religious cults such as the Moonies, but never in impressive numbers. Why is this? I believe that in the minds of "true Israel," (and remember, we are not speaking here about Jews), there is a yearning towards the truth of God to such an extent that they do not gravitate towards the "mystery religions" of the East. Unknown to the White person themselves, is a heart longing to know the truth of God, and His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ.

In spite of the mouthings of the Baal prophets in our JudeoChristian churches which seek to glorify the Christ haters of Judaism, Christianity is fundamentally non-Jewish. It's early origin came from among the people of Galilee, who were despised and called Gentiles by the Jews.

All through the preachings of the major prophets such as Isaiah, Jeremiah and Ezekiel, we read of God's visitation to the Gentiles. In every case, the word GENTILE in the Old Testament is translated from the Hebrew "goy" and means "nation; foreign non-Jewish nation; heathen." In Isaiah 42:6, we read: "I the Lord have called thee (Israel; speaking of "true Israel," not the imposters of Rev. 2:9; 3:9), in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee as a covenant of the people for a light to the GENTILES."

The principle means by which Christianity was released from its hostile background, came from a Gentile nation, the Greeks, who we have every reason to believe were made up principally of the "lost sheep of the house of Israel."

The Apostolic Council held in Jerusalem to settle the matter in 49 AD officially declared the complete independence of Christianity from Judaism.

It was not until about twenty years later, after most of the disciples had suffered martyrdom, that the early Judeo-Christians, the Ebionites, who had been on friendly terms with the Jewish Talmudists, introduced into the New Testament, the "Messiah doctrine," of the Jews.

We would be false to historic truths if we did not admit that our early church fathers, many of whom were alive when Christ walked this earth, knew that Christianity could not be entered through a Jewish portal. The two were then, as now, as separate as daylight from dark. Christianity was for all mankind who believed in and accepted the kingship of Jesus Christ, while Judaism is and was a religion, narrow in it's concepts, and Oriental in it's occult Babylonian thinking.

Because Christ's message to mankind passed through Oriental hands, we find many of the characteristic idioms, figures of and the florid imagery of the East in our Bible. But we Occidentals must guard against taking the figurative language of the East, too literally. We MUST always pause and ask ourselves, "Did the writer mean exactly what he said?" Our Bible scholars and seminarians have brought no end of confusion and derision on the cause of Christ, by neglecting to take into consideration the difference in thinking and expression between our Caucasian people and those of the Near East.

I saw this confusion very clearly during the five years I spent in Japan, first on occupation duty in 1945-46, and later in the 1950's. There was much misunderstanding between Americans and Japanese, because we refused to accommodate our minds to the Oriental manner of thinking, which was often quite different from ours. As I learned to speak Japanese, I saw this difference, even more clearly.

The message of Jesus Christ is one of pastoral simplicity, which has often been confused by the insistence of our Bible scholars to give it an Oriental flavor. We can readily see this in the artlessness of the Sunday Schools of America, where the International Sunday School lessons are often prepared by unsaved Jews and in many church hymns which need to be dropped. These hymns often completely distort what Christianity is all about. One comes vividly to mind:

"This world is not my home,
I'm just a passing through;
My home is up in heaven.
Way on beyond the blue!

"The angels beckon me,
From heaven's open door,
And I can't be at home,
In this world any more.

Anyone with a knowledge of the Bible knows this hymn is completely un-Scriptural. Yet I have heard it sung with fervor in many fundamental churches, and it is a favorite among the charismatics of Pentecostalism. With this "other worldly" concept, it's no wonder that so many of our Christian churches have become the "salt which has lost it's savor," (it's ability to act as salt and hold back corruption.")

The same thing could be said about the Rapture doctrine, which has turned many potential "soldiers of the cross," into foxhole dwellers, who fold their holy hands in prayer, while they ask Christ to come back and "rapture" them out of the mess which was caused by their apathy.

My Bible, which happens to be a King James Version, states very clearly in (Matthew 6:10), that the King told us to pray: "Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done IN EARTH as it is in heaven." There is no Scriptural teaching which indicates that Christians will spend eternity, sitting on some fluffy cloud, strumming on a harp through eternity. Yet that is the idea in the minds of many Judeo-Christian churches and can even be seen in their art and cartoons. This idea is utterly ridiculous and contrary to the teaching of ALL Scripture.

When our Bible, both Old Testament and New, was translated from Hebrew, Greek and Aramaic into English, the translators faced some terrifying difficulties in rendering from the original, a faithful and accurate version. For the most part, they did a remarkable job. But if you really want to know exactly what the Bible says, you need a good Concordance and Lexicon. As you look up key words, you will often be amazed at what they meant in the original. They may contradict what your pastor says they mean, for he will no doubt tell you what he learned at the seminary, which may not necessarily be their correct meaning.

A translator is always allowed a certain latitude of expression between the literal and figurative. For instance take the English word FAST. It has many meanings: It might mean to go without food for a period; or it could mean to move rapidly; or it might indicate a person with loose morals; its meaning always depending on how it is used.

The same is true with the translators of the Bible. Let's take the King James Version for example, since it is probably the best known and most used of all translations. The word GENTILE in every instance in the Old Testament comes from the Hebrew word "goy" which refers to a "non-Jewish" nation or people. In the New Testament, in every place but four, it comes from the Greek word Ethnos, which specifically means a "non-Jewish" people. (In John 7:35; Romans 3:9; 1 Cor. 10:32 and 12:13, it comes from the Greek word HELLEN, which means a "Greek speaking person.") Yet as we read the New Testament and see how the translators have used the word GENTILE, it can become mighty confusing.

Some quotations in the Bible are foreign to our English expression. For instance, when a Hebrew prophet said: "Thus saith the Lord!" the people know better than to believe that God had actually come down to that prophet and spoke with him face to face. It was a figure of speech and was the prophets way of telling the people, truth which had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit.

The beauty of divinity that shines forth in the English translations of our English forefathers, who were masters in the use of English prose, can be seen as you read the translations of Wycliffe, Tyndale, Coverdale, the Geneva Bible, and finally the King James Version. None of the modern Judeo-Christian versions, such as THE LIVING BIBLE; GOOD NEWS FOR MODERN MEN, etc., where you will often find unsaved Jewish scholars among the translators, can come close to the classic beauty and accuracy of the early translations.

The common language spoken by Christ and His disciples was Aramaic, a dialect of the ancient Assyrians, and many Semitic relatives. It would be unreasonable to believe that Christ and His disciples did not know Greek, since it was the common business language throughout the known world.

Anyone who has made an in-depth study of the literature of Greece, can see in the Gospel of Luke, and the book of Acts, the rhythmic flow of the Greek language.

A venerable Christian scholar once said: "We have three avenues of a knowledge of God, namely history, including revelation, reason, and experience. These three must be coordinated - neither is more important than the other. The over emphasis on revelation leads to dogmatism; the over emphasis on reason leads to rationalism, and the over emphasis on experience leads to mysticism."

In youth, we tend to lean heavily on the authority of revelation; in maturity we tend to rationalize our beliefs, while in old age, we often appeal to our experiences. This is a strictly Occidental foundation, with none of the hidebound regimentation of the Pharisees. This is the freedom Christ preached and which Judaism never knew.

At the age of twelve, Christ showed His ability to "hold His own," with the best minds of Judaism; when He knew more at that age about their boasted laws than they did, He had little use for their narrowness.

He never cultivated an air of mysticism, such as was in vogue with the Talmudic leaders of Judaism. He was direct, and plain in His speaking, and His theology was understandable to the "man in the street," which set Him apart from the Jewish leaders, who were often deliberately confusing in their theology, in order to keep the common man under their control. In Matt. 7:28, 29 we read: "...the people were astonished at His doctrine: For He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes."

When the Pharisees sent temple officers to arrest Him, they returned empty handed and told their masters: "Never man spake like this man," (John 7:46). The Pharisees ridiculed them, and when Nicodemus, one of their own, who had secretly come to Jesus by night in John 3, defended the officers, the Pharisees sneeringly said: ". . . Art thou also of Galilee? Search and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet." (John 7:52.) Certainly these Jewish religious leaders did not accept Christ as being on an equal plane with them.

Christ showed the reality of the spirit, as no other had ever done, without resorting to the "clap-trap" of spiritualism so often used by the Pharisees, and which has become so popular in the Judeo-Christian churches of Pentecostalism today.

When we compare the real Jesus of Nazareth, to the Jewish traditionalists, we see a decided contrast and "never the twain shall meet."

TOLERANCE NOT COMPROMISE!

It is interesting to note that while true Christianity is tolerant towards other religions, it MUST remain uncompromisingly Christian.

This is where the Judeo-Christian churches fall far short of the ideals of "true Christianity." Is it a small matter in your mind, when your pastor sees Jesus Christ ranked with the anti Christ rabbis of Judaism? It should be a matter of deepest concern. Can you condone a Christian pastor who brags about being a "spiritual Jew," when the Bible clearly shows that Jews are "spiritually dead?" and that they fulfill the definition of an anti-Christ, as given in 1 John 2:22, 23?

Are any of our Christian people so stupid that they believe that Jewish hostility towards our Master and His church, is different now then when they "breathed out threatening and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord" in Acts 9:1?

Look at crucified Christian Russia. Christian, I dare you to look at what has taken place there since 1918. Millions have been murdered by the same Jewish hatred that killed our Lord and harassed the early church. Yet Judaism, while intolerant of Christianity, is willing to compromise with Communism, and according to their statements, finance it, and become the brains behind the monstrosity which has killed millions of hated Christians. This strange thinking, will allow a Jew to convert to Christianity, (if this is possible and read Matthew 23:15 to see why I make such a remark), to claim Christ as Savior, while remaining a member of a sect which hates the leader of the religion he has joined. It doesn't make much sense, does it?

Once Judaism gets the upper-hand in anything, religion, economics, politics, etc., you will immediately see revealed the assassin, the Shylock who demands his "pound of flesh," and who is as unmerciful as death itself. We have the death of millions of Christians at Jewish hands, not only in the early church, but under Jewish Communism, to prove this! Please don't get angry with me. These are not my words but come out of the Book you say you believe.

Then in Obadiah 21 we have this promise from our God, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The Lord God Almighty, Creator and Savior! "And saviors shall come up on Mt. Zion to judge the Mount (nation) of Esau, (there is no Esau nation today except for the Jews) and the kingdom shall be YAHWEH'S (the Lord's)."

The evil designs of the Edomite Jews and their Khazar non-Semitic allies the Ashkenazi Jews, and their confederates in Gog, Magog and Togarmah, shall not succeed. Their bloody scheme for a New World Order, envisioned in their Red, Jew controlled Communism, shall not prevail. The Thousand Years of Peace will not be ruled over by Jewry, but by our Lord, Jesus Christ, YASHUAH is His name! The great whore will be exposed as the imposter and the world shall recognize "true Israel," as the Bride of Christ, which shall be given her rightful place in the kingdom, as consort for the King, for GOD HAS CHOSEN HER! MARANATHA!

In his book YOU GENTILES! Jewish author Maurice Samuels says on page 155 - "We Jews, we the destroyers, will ever remain the destroyers. Nothing you will ever do will meet our demands and needs. We will forever destroy because we need a world of our own, a God-world, which it is not in your Gentile nature to build."

Conrad Alberti (Sittenfeld), a leading Jewish novelist in the 19th century wrote: "No one can dispute that Jewdom takes a leading part in the pollution and corruption of relations between nations. It is the character of the Jew to have a stubborn endeavor to produce values without work, and this, being an impossibility, it simply means that these values are artificially produced, at Gentile expense."

When Christians realize that the Jews are obnoxious in manners, crooked in business dealings, vile in their moral concepts and a danger to all the ideals of Christianity, then it no longer is prejudice to shun them, or even use harsher measures if necessary to get rid of their influence!

The alleged persecutions of the Jews, who Judeo-Christians "turncoats" such as Baptist evangelist Jack Van Impe, Jerry Falwell, Pat Robertson, Jimmy Swaggart, and a host of others call the "apple of God's eye," (A term reserved for "true Israel"), is not because they are God's people and Satan hates them. But because of their own unrighteous conduct. The Christian leaders who lead their people astray, by accepting the Jewish lie that 6-million Jews were annihilated by Hitler's government in Germany, when Jewish statistics show there were never more than 3.6- million Jews living in German controlled territory and that millions of those escaped and have been drawing reparations from West Germany ever since. These are at fault!

When they attempt to change the Word of God, so that the Jews bear no responsibility for the murder of our Lord; when they attempt to subvert our Christian leaders and political figures into supporting God's worst enemies into fawning at their feet, then it is time for Christians to rise up in righteous indignation and say: "It is enough! STOP"

Centuries ago, it was common practice to persecute heretics in all religions, and in some areas, Jews suffered alongside of Catholics and Protestants, in the so-called Christian Wars, which were not Christian at all, but were caused by the moral debacle James spoke of in James 4:1-4. They came from evil men, who under religious guise, sought power and wealth to "consume it on their lust."

During Czarist times, Christian pastors in St. Petersburg were beseiged by Jews who wanted to join their churches so they would be allowed to remain in the city and own property there. They were not interested in becoming Christians, or changing their abominable moral practices, but wanted to use Christianity as a shield. One of their rabbis told them_ "Yes you may join a Christian church, but never forget you are a Jew." I wonder how many Christian congregations were suckered by these Christ haters?

There is no question in my mind that individual Jews can be kind, generous and sympathetic to others than their own kind. I have known some to be so! Some even criticize Jewish leadership, but very seldom publicly. Some decry the excesses of Zionism, while still paying dole to the Zionists.

But in spite of this, the cancer of Judaism remains in the Christian world, as an open malignant sore, which seeks to corrupt everything it comes into contact with. What it has done in centuries past, and is doing now to tolerant Christianity, should be a definite warning signal regarding the "true nature of the Zionist beast!"

I believe we are reaching the "point of no return," in dealing with this problem and MUST settle with the whole tribe now, in order to exist. We can deal with individual cases, once we can control the "power sources" of International Judaism.

The Jewish leaders for centuries have admitted that Christianity has been a threat to their Talmudic World Conspiracy. Christ was totally good, and only a "totally good" leader can expect to best one who is "totally evil," call him the Anti-Christ, or whatever you will. There is no way we can stop the Jewish attack against Christianity using the average "Alka-Seltzer" type Christian soldier in our fight for Christ and freedom. I call them "Alka-Seltzer," for they are like that medicine which you must use while it still fizzes, in order to get any benefit from it. These Christians come to church and "fizz" for an hour or two on Sunday, while the rest of the week you can't tell them from the unsaved people they surround themselves with. They act the same worldly way, they go to the same worldly places, they do the same worldly things, while calling themselves Christians. No wonder so many Christians are looked on as "hypocrites." Many a time I have heard and unsaved man or woman say: "I'm as good as those hypocrites who go to First church," and they are very possibly right. For one of the weaknesses of the Christian church today, is that the majority of its members have never had a personal encounter with the Commander-in-Chief.

In order to be an OVERCOMER, a Christian must WORK, yes I said WORK, at being a Christian, seven days a week. Just having FAITH in Jesus Christ is not enough. Oh how right the Apostle James was, when he said: (James 2:14) "What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works, can faith save him?" Vs 17 - "Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone." After explaining about how Abraham proved his faith through his works, he concludes in vs 24 - "Ye see then, how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only." You can scream until you are "blue in the face," about how you were saved by FAITH alone, but until you show by your works that it was real, you are nothing but an "empty windbag."

You may consider me to be un-Christian in my criticism, but this is not the case, I am merely telling you the truth. "Shall I become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

This Jewish hatred for Christianity should not be unexpected, for our Savior told us that as He was hated, so would we be. In John 15:18,19, He spells this out: "If the world (order) hate you, you know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world (order), the world would love his own; but ye are not of the world (order), but I have chosen you out of the world (order) therefore the world (order) hateth you."

Then in vs 20 - ". . . If they (speaking of the Jews) have persecuted me, they will also persecute you..." Then in Vs 23 -"He that hateth Me, hateth my Father also." That ought to answer apostates such as Billy Graham and Jerry Falwell, who say that Jews can reach the Father, other than through Jesus Christ. We can expect to be slandered and persecuted by the World Order of Internationalism, if we take a stand for Jesus Christ. If we are not, then there is something sadly lacking in our Christian witness. Show me a Christian who is not attacked by evil men, and I will show you a "wish-washy" individual without any "spiritual backbone," who will never take a stand for anything, while falling for everything.

So-called Gentile Christians who defend God's enemies with their praise and support, or simply leave them alone to practice their deviltry, believe, no doubt, that they will in the final analysis be exempt from Jewish malice. But if you look at the record, you will see they are the first to be eliminated, when the anti-Christ's take over.

We know from observation, that if an officer of the law, were to treat a Jew with no fear of the "self-chosen race," he would see his term in office drastically shortened. If he were a politician, with the "intestinal fortitude" to speak up about Jewish excesses, he would be run out of public office. Ask such men as Senator Percy from Illinois, Fulbright from Arkansas.

You hard-headed Christian Gentiles, who refuse to face up to the truth; you whose mind is so encased in "religious cement," that it will take the dynamite of God to blow it loose to where you can even see the truth. I dare you to have the courage to say in public, what you say about the Jews in private. Why do you attack those of us who are truthfully exposing this cancer which is destroying our Christian society? Certainly, I do not like to preach this kind of message. I'd like to talk about the wonderful love of God, and His mercy and grace. But someone has to tell the "harsh facts, and for some reason I can't understand, and don't like, I have been given that task, and before God, I will do the best I can, whether you or the Jews like it or not!

In your own heart, you know you are a coward, when you fail to protest Jewish control of our banking system, the press, our medical and judicial systems. Yet there they are! The Jewish overlords of America, put there for the most part by cowardly Christians who were afraid to speak up, and kept there by Christian prostitutes who benefit from their relationship with the anti-Christ.

You know your Christian responsibility, if you have studied the Bible. In 1 John 2:22, 23, we are given a very clear definition of an anti-Christ, and no one more clearly fits this description than the Jew. In 2 John 10,11, we are told how we MUST treat these anti-Christ's. "If any come unto you, bring not this doctrine (that Jesus is the Son of God), receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed (help him in any way). For he that biddeth him God speed, (notice carefully now) BECOMES PARTAKER IN HIS EVIL DEEDS." You say you believe the Bible? Who will you obey? Your pastor or the Word of God?

The manner in which the Jews have abused freedom in America would justify the disenfranchisement of the entire tribe. Surely, a parasite of such vicious nature, MUST at least be controlled!

Is it stupid malevolence that has given us the slogan "we must not indict a WHOLE RACE?"

When a nation declares war on another, - it indicts every member of that nation with the enemy's characteristics, whether this is true or not. No doubt there are good men and women on the enemy's side; some may even be friendly to our cause. But as long as they "sail under the enemy's flag," THEY ARE THE ENEMY! To deal with them in any other manner would be the utmost of stupidity and would lead to our defeat.

A domestic, secret enemy will never declare war openly. It will preach "pacifism," and "disarmament," while privately practicing warfare against us.

So today, a discerning Christian MUST be able to see how the International Jew practices his "secret warfare" against Christianity which has given them shelter and succor.

The power of Judaism today, is not in their numbers, which are small, but in their "terrible power of the purse," which they wield without mercy. Their power lies in the ability to infiltrated Christian organizations such as the church, and deceive God's people as to their evil nature.

JEWISH INVASION OF THE PULPIT!

The last stronghold of "free speech," and "freedom" in any Christian country, rests in the Christian church, and it's pulpit. In America, this freedom is protected by the First Amendment which states that the State may not interfere in the rights of the church to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ. It was designed to protect Christianity, not any other religion. But because of this Amendment, Christian America has been tolerant of other religions, even those who seek to tear us down. Of course this is not Christian forbearance, but stupidity of the worst kind. If we had followed the orders given to our forefathers in old Israel, this problem would never have arisen.

But the Jews in particular, protected by this Amendment, have invaded the Christian sanctuary and on every hand, we can see unmistakable features and hear the characteristic speech and doctrines of Judaism. We get very little of the Christ of the Gospel in our modern church, but much of the social gospel of Judaism.

Most often, we see "Jewish dupes," pastors who are not Jews, who call themselves Christian, who tell their parishioners, "We must love the Jews, or incur the wrath of God." While at this moment, according to their own world leaders, they intend to slaughter American Christians like they did those in Europe and China, the Christian dupe spouts the false message that we "must turn the other cheek" to the enemy which seeks to destroy us and our God given freedom. To do this is of course suicidal! Certainly Jesus never taught this kind of doctrine! Certainly this was not the attitude He showed, when he made a whip out of rope, and drove the money changers out of the Temple, (John 2:15), or aren't we supposed to speak about this Jesus?

Has the pulpit in America become so blind, or so solidly sold out to Jewish interests, that it is ready to follow the lead of the press, TV, radio, and Hollywood, into the contaminated "hog pen" of Talmudic Judaism?

While these "wolves in sheep's clothing" we call pastors, pontificate about "universal brotherhood; the Fatherhood of God, and the brotherhood of man," while they seek to disarm America, yes, even through individual gun control and elimination of 2nd Amendment rights; which would leave us at the mercy of those who have openly stated their desire to destroy us. Where are the Christian Shadrach's, Mesheck's and Abednego's in the American pulpit, who will stand tall and say to the overlords of world Jewry, "We will not bow down to your image of gold!"

At the turn of the Twentieth Century, what we see happening today was called "Nihilism" (the general rejection of all belief in morality; the belief that there is no meaning to our existence; so since we live only for today, "Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we may die!") Today, this idea is being "spoon fed" to our college youth by Jewish professors, for the most part, who are doing their part to prepare America for the slaughter.

The Jew can never feel at home under the Christian political system, (and I say this, fully realizing how far we have fallen away from "One nation under God.") But the Jew knows that there is still "spoil" to be found in the world today, and the spirit of Judaism, is the spirit of the "freebooter" who sailed under the Skull and Cross Bones flag of Jolly Roger. The Bible says they love to "take and occupy houses they have not built; and reap from fields which they have not sown."

The Jewish tribal organization of the Kaballah, is all that the Jew wants, it is all he needs, and his rule of the Sanhedrin, or racial tribunal is enough for him. He despises. the political and judicial systems of the West, and uses them only for his own advancement and as a means to destroy his enemies.

But let's get back to the original theme and see how the earliest Christian heresy, that of Ebionitism, has begun to renew its efforts in 1992, as it seeks to introduce Jesus Christ as a Jew, and His doctrine as Jewish doctrine. This is an enigma, for on one hand Judaism claims Christ, while on the other it downgrades Him as an illegitimate bastard and apostate.

What we see happening today, in the modern Christian church, especially those who are known as Judeo-Christian churches, is an all-out Jewish effort to recapture Christianity and its converts, and bring them under the bondage of Judaism, by representing their leader, Jesus the Christ, as an exalted Jewish rabbi, although slightly demented, to be sure! This is the attitude of many modern Jewish authors and can be seen in Dr. Joseph Klausner's book JESUS OF NAZARETH.

"There is an old saying that applies to all Christians who make concessions to anti-Christ Judaism: 'They that touch pitch will become dirty.'"

While the first century Ebionites spoke from their Judaized background, the Ebionites of the Twentieth Century have no such native background and are inexcusable in their heresy. This is an example of what Jesus meant, when He accused the Pharisees in Matthew 23:15, of turning their converts into "two-fold more a child of hell than yourselves."

It was in this manner that the Apostle Paul counseled the Galatians, a people with no Jewish background (although many of them, unknowingly, were Israelites). These people had no business being led astray from their Christian belief, by Judaizers.

Anyone who allows themselves to be trapped into believing that Christianity and Judaism spring from the same rotten "fountainhead," are indeed to be pitied, for in the words of the Apostle Paul, for such a one, "Christ died in vain!" (Gal. 3:1). Such a person, and there are millions of them in our present day Christian churches, are stepping backwards in time for almost 2,000 years, to a time when some said that in order for you to be saved, you first had to be circumcised.

It is necessary for Judaism to keep up this deception, which is designed to bury Christ and His message among their traditions, and prepare the world for the NEW WORLD ORDER, which the Jews teach will be under their domination.

They are presently trying to do this through a very clever maneuver, in which they induced the U.S. House of Representatives, on March 5, 1991, to pass by voice vote, a resolution, designating March 26th as EDUCATION DAY, U.S.A. in honor of Rabbi Menachem Scheerson, leader of the worldwide Lubavitch Movement. This Resolution was passed by the U.S. Senate on March 21,1991, and our so-called Christian President George Bush issued a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe this day with appropriate ceremonies and activities. This was lending support for the anti-Christ's of Judaism, and in so doing, according to 2 John 11, we have "become partaker in their evil deeds."

The Noahide Laws, which have been fostered by the Lubavich Movement are the supposed Laws of God, which were for the purpose of governing "non-Jewish" people. These Laws have nothing in common with God's Laws as given in the Ten Commandments, but are Jewish Laws, imposed on "non-Jews," in which the death penalty can be imposed on "non-Jews" who break them. (Supposing of course, that Jews are in control of the situation.)

Where the Ten Commandments demand at least two eye witnesses to condemn a man or woman to death, the Noahide Laws require only one witness.

While the Bible mentions the Noahic Covenant, Gen. 9:11-17, in which God promises never to destroy the earth again by a flood, there is no mention in Scripture, either Old or New Testament of the Seven Noahide Laws. They come to us direct from the Babylonian Talmud, which states that although these laws apply to all mankind, those who live by the Torah (Jewish Laws), are exempt. A perfect example, that although "all pigs is equal, some pigs is more equal than others." (Please excuse the rotten grammar.)

When the U.S. Congress, both branches, passed Public Law 102-14, they stated in no uncertain terms, that this Jewish Law is the foundation of all international law, and this is a step in the establishment of a law code for the NEW WORLD ORDER.

In Noah's time, corruption became so widespread that God had to intervene; He cleansed the world with water, saving only Noah, his family and selected animals and beasts. There were no nations, no communities, no society, just a family. But in this NEW WORLD ORDER, sin existed. We can see this in Noah's drunkenness and Ham's dishonoring his parent. It was Ham, who begat Cush, and Cush begat Nimrod, who began the Babylonian System which is basic to Talmudic Judaism, and which holds all men in bondage in these closing out days of the Twentieth Century.

When Nimrod tried to build the tower of Babel, God confused the languages and scattered the people abroad upon the face of the earth. So it might be said that God created a new world order of nations to prevent leaders of that time from creating their own man-made world order. This should serve as a warning to those who, in our time, are striving to "make them a name," and create a New World Order. (George Bush please take note!)

While a superficial study of the Seven Noahide Laws may draw a favorable response from many Christians, it is because they have not done their homework. For if they studied this law, it can be seen that as the orthodox Jew interprets them, Christians who worship Christ would be guilty of crimes which demand the death penalty. Because we believe that "Jesus is God," to the orthodox Jew, this is blasphemy, hence the death penalty; technically, every Christian on the face of the earth faces the death penalty, if these Seven Noahide Laws become the basis for International Law, and don't be naive enough to say: "It will never happen to us!" Now we are saddled with this Law, and the Noahides are exploring the feasibility of making it world wide through the United Nations. It seems to fit perfectly with George Bush's NEW WORLD ORDER Plans!

While this Noahide Law has been fostered and promoted in our Congress, the Ten Commandments of God are prohibited from public display in our public schools. Those who profess to be Judeo-Christian in their beliefs, are in effect accepting the ancient Pharisaism which our King Jesus condemned. For according to Jewish authorities such as Rabbi Louis Finklestein: "Pharisaism became Talmudism ... and the spirit of the ancient Pharisee survives unaltered. When the Jew studies the Talmud, he is actually repeating the arguments used in the Palestinian academies. From Palestine to Babylon ia; from Babylonia to North Africa, Italy, Spain, France, and Germany; from these to Poland, Russia and Eastern Europe generally, ancient Pharisaism has wandered." This is the link which is missing in Evangelical and Fundamental understanding, which allows them to give "God speed," to God's worst enemies, in direct contradiction to His Word. (See 2 John 10, 11.)

According to news reports, this heresy has become so strong, that in Athens, TN, the "heart of the Bible belt," the Emmanuel Baptist church took the steeple off their church, and scraped the name Baptist and Church off their church sign. Here we find a -group of Christian fundamentalists, who have allowed themselves to be sucked into believing that they are discovering the roots of their faith by a return to Judaism.

Boiled down to reality, the passage by the U.S. Congress of Public Law 102-14 in 1991, is the most flagrant violation of the First Amendment ever passed by Congress, and can be expected to be the "wave of the future," unless Christians wake up to what is being done to them and their faith.

But remember, that while we see this usurpation of authority, we know that "The government shall be upon His (Christ's) shoulder: and His name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace," and "neither is there salvation in any other; for there is no other name under heaven by which we MUST be saved." HALLELU'YAH! So "Let the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing... He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision (contempt)." (Ps 2:1)

The frantic efforts of Judaism to prove their contentions, is evidence enough that this subject is vital to their intentions. One can read about this in books by Jewish authors such as Prof H. Graetz in his HISTORY OF THE JEWS; Dr. Joseph Klauser in his JESUS OF NAZARETH, and Emil Ludwig in his THE SON OF MAN. All three of these Jewish authors are characterized by the same diseased logic that effects the tribal intellect of this species we call Jews.

Their method is to announce as their premises a hypothesis (supposition) that none but themselves can logically accept (in other words, a Jewish fable) then proceed to build an argument without a sound foundation. They all say Jesus is a Jew, but never go on to prove it. Klausner clinches the whole matter to his satisfaction at least, by quoting a Latin proverb: "Ex nihilo nihil fit" - "you cannot get something out of nothing." This pre-supposes, of course, that the message of Christianity came from an earthly origin, and of course, that this origin MUST have been Jewish.

It is rather amazing to see where this writer in the very same paragraph, literally disproves his own statement by saying: "Had there not been in Jesus' teaching something contrary to the world outlook of Israel, (and here he of course was referring to the Jews), there could never have risen out of it a new teaching so irreconcilable with the spirit of Judaism."

Again: "Although Jesus' teaching may not have been directed against contemporary Judaism, it certainly had within it the germs from which there could and must develop in course of time, a non-Jewish and even anti~Jewish teaching."

It seems incredible to me, that an intelligent man can take two such conflicting positions and attempt to present them as the truth; but such is the obtuse reasoning of Judaism.

The false idea that Christ was a Jew and His teachings an offshoot of Judaism, is held by all three of these Jewish authors. But we must notice that they still admit that "there is something contrary to the world outlook of Judaism in Christ's teachings," and that "this new teaching is irreconcilable with the spirit of Judaism."

Adolph Harnach, one of the outstanding Christian theologians of the 20th Century said: "There the historical Jew, Jesus, disappears totally; virtually every word He taught is made to be of permanent and universal human interest. The messianic features are abolished entirely, and virtually no importance is attached to Judaism in its capacity of Jesus' environment. Jesus rose independently and so towered above contemporary Judaism, as to be untouchable by it." (This is a message that present day Christian theologians for the most part seem to have ignored.)

Looking forward from the Christian era nearly 2,000 years, it will surprise many readers that the Jews cannot be considered the ancient race they claim to be. Civilized man had occupied the land of Palestine long before the Jews appeared on the scene. They first appear in Biblical accounts, about the year 742 BC, which is almost 1200 years after the time of Abraham, (to call Abraham a Jew is a sign of ignorance, or intellectual dishonesty) in 2 Kings - when we find them fighting against Israel.

The original home of the Semitic people was undoubtedly near the country we know as Arabia, which is now a hot and arid land, part of what is called the "fertile crescent." The Western arm of this crescent reaches southward along the Eastern shore of the Mediterranean Sea and is today known as Palestine. In the East, it broadens out into the valley of the Tigris and Euphrates Rivers, which in ancient times was called the Land of Sumer, or Mesopotamia. Long before these Semitic people came out of Arabia, this eastern arm was occupied by a highly civilized people known as Sumerians, who were not Semites. (See J.H. Braested - THE CONQUEST OF CIVILIZATION.)

Monuments in this land date back to at least 5000 BC and their translations place them in this area before the Great Flood. At the height of their power, they ruled as far westward as Asia Minor, and the islands of the Aegean Sea.

These people had the earliest written language in Asia, which furnished the basis for the Assyrian cuneiform writing. They had a highly developed and involved system of worship. Their ideas of worship were copied by the first Hebrew (not Jew) settlers in this area about 1451 BC.

It is only within the last hundred years or so, that modern archeology has recovered from the ancient buried cities of Mesopotamia, evidence that these people were not native to this area, but came from somewhere to the north.

The latest writings on this subject by Dr. L.A. Waddell, THE MAKERS OF CIVILIZATION, (1929) holds to the view supported by archaeological evidence, that from the Land of Sumer, these people spread east to the Indus Valley, then south, carrying the Sanskrit language and Indo-European culture into India itself.

These white skinned people, came in successive waves, as Medes, Persians, Hittitites, Scythians, and among those who settled in Palestine, they were known as Canaanites.

A few of the people we now know as Jews, were those Hebrews who came back from the Babylonian captivity (probably less than 15%). They were a mixed crowd who brought back a religion which had been contaminated from the worship of the true God, to the Babylonian occultism known as Talmudic Judaism. From priests of the Most High God, they came back with Rabbis, who were supposed to counsel with God, and who became intermediaries between God and man, contrary to all true Hebrew teaching.

Just as Judaism is anti-Christ, it is also anti-national by nature and wherever it is practiced it has failed as a nation. It failed nationally and was overthrown and almost destroyed by the Romans in 70 AD when their holy city Jerusalem was razed and burned. Instead of accepting defeat and making the best of it under as efficient governmental system, as the Galileans did, they became a "parasite" people wherever they went, and by means of their Talmud organized and perfected their plans for preying on and ultimately subjecting all mankind to their nefarious purposes. Remember how the Apostle Paul characterized them in 1 Thess. 2:15, when he said: "...they have persecuted us (Christians), and they please not God, and are contrary to all men." This is an excellent character analysis of the International Jew.

Jews have always been a notorious failure in the matter of self-government when left to themselves. In their contact with others, their loyalty is always to the tribe. This is true of most American Jews, who have "dual citizenship." When the "chips are down," you can expect them to support Zionism, not what is best for America. It has been proven thus too many times to even argue about it.

Centuries before Christ appeared on the scene, Jews were viewed as the enemies of man kind, no matter where they were, for almost without fail, they were connected with the unsavory practices of "usury," and crocked business dealings, along with a dirty, immoral life style which most people, even non-Christians, hated. This was the reason Jews were kicked out of every European country at some time or other. It was not because they were God's Chosen People, as Baptist evangelist Jack Van Impe love to tell us.

When Russia fell to Jewish Bolshevism, it was the son of a Jewish rabbi, who directed the destruction of the Christian church in Russia. (See New York Herald Tribune, Magazine Section, April 16,1934.)

Jewish authorities of the time, bragged about their part in making the Revolution a success, and when red Rabbi Steven Wise was asked what he thought about Communism, he replied: "Some cal lit communism; I call it Judaism." The Jewish writer M. Hermalin, writing from New York City in 1917, said: "The Russian Revolution was made by Jews. We have created secret societies and planned the Reign of Terror.:

The AMERICAN HEBREW, leading Jewish newspaper in the United States, in its September 10, 1920 edition said: "The Bolshevik Revolution in Russia was the work of Jewish brains, of Jewish dissatisfaction, of Jewish planning, whose goal was to create a NEW WORLD ORDER. What happened in Russia, shall also, through the same Jewish mental and physical forces, become a reality over all the world."

There is no excuse for any Christian not to know that countless millions of their brethren were murdered by those people their false shepherds now call God's Chosen, and that the future of Christianity, if it falls into Jewish hands, will be bleak indeed.

The number of Christians murdered under Jewish supervision in Russia will probably never be known this side of eternity, but it exceeds by many times, the so-called Jewish holocaust of World War II, where it falsely contended that 6-million Jews perished, when according to their own statistlc6~, there were never more than 3.6-million Jews in German occupied territory and many of them escaped before the Nazi took control.

But Jewish propaganda in American churches being what it is, our Christian people bemoan the persecution of Jews, while completely overlooking the suffering caused to our own people by these anti-Christ parasites. Authentic records show that during the opening days of this Jewish Revolution, 31 bishops, 1,650 priests and ministers, and over 2-million Christian laymen, were murdered under Jewish control. (This included the Czar and his family who were brutally murdered by Jewish assassins.)

If we were to take to heart the record of the Jewish led, Jewish instigated, Jewish financed Bolshevik Revolution in Russia and see it as a warning; every non-Jew, especially if they were Christian, should become concerned for the welfare and safety of themselves and their families, for they are the future target of Judaism, no matter what your "Jew tainted" pastor tells you to the contrary.

While Judaism often attaches the International label to itself, it is at heart anti-national. It claims to be the source of Christ and His Gospel, in spite of all historical facts which proves otherwise. It preaches "pacifism," while carrying on unrelenting warfare against everyone who is not a Jew. It's "soap box" orators stir up discontent and are at the bottom of the racial hatred which is tearing America apart and which threatens "racial warfare." For decades, it has been known that the Jewish overlords of America, plan to use Blacks as "cannon fodder," in a racial war, they hope will bring them into their NEW WORLD ORDER.

Judaism has been successful in "hoodwinking" the bulk of Christianity into a sense of false security, which cries out "Peace and safety!" The Apostle Paul tells us in 1 Thess. 5:3, that when this happens, "sudden destruction cometh upon them ... and they shall not escape." Today in many of our Christian churches, Jewish influence has set up "non-resistance" to evil. With hordes of paid "prostitutes" in the form of "pastoral spies", Judaism has infiltrated the Christian church and is ever on the alert to catch Christians unaware, using secret intrigue, wherever it can and adopting one subversive method in one Christian country and another elsewhere.

The false doctrine known as the Rapture, has been one of Judaism's most potent weapons, as it has kept countless Christians from becoming "front line soldiers" for Jesus Christ, while relegating them to the role of "foxhole dwellers," who fold their holy hands in prayer, asking God to Rapture them out of the mess which was caused by their apathy.

This form of JUDAISM, which is the enemy to White Christian civilization must be EXPELLED AND OUTLAWED if White Christian civilization is to survive! This is your only choice and the time has come when Christians MUST decide between CHRIST or the ANTI-CHRIST OF JUDAISM! It is a matter of LIFE OR DEATH!

While Judaism has repudiated the PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION, and called them counterfeit, (accompanied by loud "Amens" from many Christian leaders), they cling to their TALMUD, which teaches the same thing found in the PROTOCOLS.

So as we look deeper into the problem, we find that the liberalism which is destroying the strength of Christianity, is a "Jewish brain child."

When the Peace Pact of Westphalia was signed in 1648, ending the Thirty Year War, the foundation of modern nationalism was laid down. It was:

1) A state MUST have independence or sovereignty.

2) A state MUST have judicial equality, and;

3) A state MUST have a territorial domain.

The Jews, known as Israeli in Palestine, do not have a nation as such, for they have never had the attributes of Statehood and have no legal or moral right to be in the "family of nations."

A parasite organization, such as that presented by the Jews in Palestine, is fundamentally the reverse of that of a nation. The latter is set up to allow the greatest degree of personal liberty possible. In a genuine Republic its basis lies in the reservation of all liberty of action to the individual, as long as he does not harm his fellow man in any way. Hence we have the legal principle, that the State should govern it's people as little as possible. This ideal rests on the integrity of the individual to govern himself.

In a society of delinquents, this idea would be sheer stupidity. The State contemplates a peaceful objectivity for its domain, and its defender, the army, navy and air force, is available as a security for its borders and its people.

But when you have a political and moral parasite, a course of action contrary to this takes place. It's defenders seek the center of the herd, from whose safety they can bellow defiance to the rest of the world. The synagogue, serves as such for the Rabbi, who feels free to pronounce anathema against any Christian who crosses or exposes the aims of Judaism. These are immediately labeled as "anti-Semitic," which along with the term "racist," is one of the worst accusations which can be made against anyone these days. The fact that Judaism is one of the worst discriminators and "racist" organizations in the world, seems to have little effect on the thinking of "brainwashed" Christians.

This "parasite" organization has distinct advantages for the parasite. It has a mass of membership to act as its contacting body with the outside world, which proves to be a convenient "smoke screen," from which it's leaders can carry out their subversive, destructive, anti-Christian activities.

When met with proofs of hostility, they always deny partnership, but never denounce the guilty. This is what I have against the many so-called "good Jews." While many of them say they are against the excesses of world Zionism, very few will speak out to admit the guilt of collective Jewry. Good Jews, who defend Zionism, automatically become the enemy of everything which is truly Christian, just as Christians who defend the anti-Christ's of Jewry, become traitors to Christ and Christianity. (See 2 John 11.)

Have you ever heard a Jew denounce Karl Marx, Weishaupt, Trotsky, Lenin, or Stalin? They know that when their international leaders succeed, and claim their rewards, all members of the tribe profit from it. This plus their fear of militant Jewish organizations such as the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE of the B'Nai B'rith, which is designed to keep the "little Jews" in line, will keep all but the bravest from speaking out against their brethren.

Then one of the most damaging things to Christianity, is that of having to deal with the "internal parasite." These are the "disease germs," we find in the pulpits of America. The Falwell's, the Robertson's, the Swaggarts, the Graham's, the Van Impe's of Christianity, who have worked their way into the healthy body of the church, secretly and insidiously destroying it from within. These are also our ENEMIES AND MUST BE DEALT WITH AS SUCH, if we are to SURVIVE!

JEWISH LEADERSHIP

Jewish leadership has never been known to stop at anything which will gain its desired ends, and no wonder that we find among their ranks, such famous crooks as Caiphas, Herod, Nero, Lenin, Weishaupt, Marx, Trotsky, Hertzl, Ginsberg, and don't forget Henry Kissinger and Alger Hiss. These men were vile enough to be especially chosen for their positions of importance in the schemes of International Judaism. Such tools are all the more fit for their positions, when they are morally rotten specimens such as Nero, Lenin, Marx, Kissinger, and yes, the moral perverts of Christianity, such as the Swaggart's and Bakker's of TV prominence.

These tools of International Judaism signify the degree of mental and moral decay, indicative of the race, or its proselytes. This was the same disease that produced the rottenness of the Babylonian Talmud as the primary basis of their anti-Christ religion.

While the Greeks reacted with disgust to evil creatures such as the Thersites in the Trojan War, the Jews on the contrary extol the monsters of depravity as their heros and standard bearers. Men such as the terrorist murderer Menachem Begin, or the present Prime Minister Shamir, both of who boast of their deeds of murder and terrorism, yet both of whom have been welcomed by our government, and by religious leaders such as Jerry Falwell. When Falwell first met Begin, he came close to repeating the words used by King Jehosophat, the good king of Judah, as he visited wicked Ahab. In 2 Chron. 18:3 we read Jehosophat's words: ". . . I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in this war."

Later, when Jehosophat escaped destruction by the "skin of his teeth," he was warned by God's prophet in 2 Chron 19:2-". . . Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord." This is a warning many of our Christian ministers need to hear today!

It is stupidity of the lowest degree to argue that there are some "good Jews" to whom my criticism does not apply, and that they should not be held accountable for the actions of their racial leaders. In reply, I would have to answer that there is a battle to the death going on now between the forces of "light and darkness," between "good and evil," between "Christ and "anti-Christ." This battle has reached the point where it is about to break into violent action, aimed at Christians everywhere, just as it was at Russian Christians almost 75 years ago. When facing an enemy in open battle, there is no time to question whether there are good men among the enemy, especially when we see them giving silent assent to what the enemy is attempting to do. (I honor those few, such as Dr. Ben Freedman, Haviv Schrieber, and Alfred Lilienthal, who have had the courage to speak out against International Zionism, but they are few and far between.)

When the organization of Jewry is in our midst - as it most surely is - we MUST assume that every Jew is an enemy, and though we have given him citizenship, that does not make him an American. Remember the words from the Revolutionary War: "Put only Americans on guard tonight!"

Over two hundred years ago, the very wise elder statesman of America, Benjamin Franklin recognized the problem we face today, when he told our first Continental Congress: "Gentlemen, the Jew is an Asiatic," and warned that unless we prohibited them from access to this country, within 200 years they would seek to control it. Truer words were never spoken, and when Christian Patriots speak of ZOG (Zionist Occupied Government,) they are fairly describing our perverted government in "el cessepoole grande," Washington, DC.)

To forget that Jews do not think like Aryans, is to repeat the mistake that led to the "decline and fall of the Roman Empire."

The solidarity of International Jewry is not an easy obstacle to overcome. It exceeds that of all other diverse peoples in our midst. Yet, when we find a parasite in our midst, that is slowly draining our blood supply, no right thinking person, Christian or non-Christian, would blame us for using any method necessary to get rid of it and protect ourselves.

If we continue to tolerate this evil; if we spend our spare time watching their filthy, false TV presentations, listen to their degrading rock music, listen to the "brainwashing" lies of the media pundits, and those coming from the equally corrupt Baal pulpits of America, then we will be praising and supporting the enemy by our actions! Then they will "grow fat on our blood," and the seduced press will look on us as "democratic," "tolerant", "liberal" and "good guys," as we slip into the slavery of the ZIONIST NEW WORLD ORDER. God will say to us: "Depart from me, you who disobey my laws; I never knew you!" (Matt. 7:23; Luke 13:27.

As an alien who can exist in a Christian nation such as America, only by lying and cheating, the Jew is the perfect agent for Satan and his anti-Christ forces. For many centuries, the Christians in Europe made the "sign of the cross" when they met a Jew, because they knew they were the epitome of evil. Today, American Christians are more apt to embrace them and call themselves Zionist Christians. While the battle goes against Christianity, as it is now, because Christians have allowed the enemy to take charge, the time will come when the tide will turn. Our King has promised it. When that day comes, it may be too late for the Christian "turncoats," to attempt to "climb on the bandwagon of victory!"

JUDAISM ANALYZED!

With the many Jewish organizations in our midst, such as the AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS; the ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE; the various JEWISH DEFENSE LEAGUES; the Jewish Masonic Lodge of B'NAI B'RITH; the KEHILLA of New York City, the JEWISH YEARBOOK, and many other sources which are open only to Jews, there is no excuse for Christians to not know that Judaism is a cult, not a religion. Most Christians can know the truth, if they so desire, no matter how strongly their pastors honor the anti-Christ's of Judaism. You have the option of believing Jesus Christ and His Word, or the projew sentiments of your seminary trained pastor.

1) JUDAISM is a cult, because it is organized along racial or tribal lines, instead of being based on religion as such. It rigidly commands the obedience of its members and makes their resentment felt to all who criticize them. (This is the major function of the ADL; that and keeping the "little Jews" in line.)

> It's leadership is found among its Rabbis, who by virtue of the protection given them by their religious calling, can utter sentiments which in others would be called treason. (This is not true however with Christian pastors, many of who have been imprisoned by Jewish Judges and Prosecuting Attorneys, because they have refused to "bow the knee to the State.") Show me one Rabbi who has ever been imprisoned because of this. At this writing in 1992, over 265 Christian pastors are known to be incarcerated in American Prisons. Their crime? They stood against ZOG (Zionist Occupational Government).

2) Judaism, being a cult, must be considered as an ethnic group, whose aims and objectives are for the sole benefit of their race, no matter what methods must be used to bring it about. The Jewish Communal Register is an authority for this statement. It is a perpetual alien entity, by virtue of its "self-chosen, Chosen People" fetish. As aliens, they should not be allowed citizenship in any Christian country, since they are openly avowed enemies of our God, and His Son, our king.

3) Judaism is an unethical band, except among its own kind. According to its Talmud, it's hand is against the "goyim," the non-Jew, whom they consider to be animals, placed on earth by God to serve the Jews.

4) Judaism is a clandestine, secret organization, using various branches such as the AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS, THE ADL, the B'Nai B'rith, it's local kehillas, it's YOUNG JUDEA and it's various JEWISH DEFENSE ORGANIZATIONS, for it's nefarious purposes. Most of these could be classified as anti-Christian, anti-American.

5) It is in effect a closed corporation, an industrial unit, if you will, whose power is used to keep the Jew in the "driver's seat," while hampering the Gentile in any way possible. (I use the word GENTILE, to refer to anyone who is not a Jew.)

In the financial field, it concentrates its "power of the purse" to control corporations and nations. It is like a gigantic octopus which is remorseless and persistent in its revenge against any which seek to stay its power, or expose its ulterior motives. It is the public enemy of all who are "non~Jews", which it will seek to destroy, unless it is first destroyed.

This Jewish thinking can be seen in the statement made by the Jewish Ambassador from Austria to London, Count Mensdorf in 918: "Israel (Jews) won the war (WW I); we made it; we thrived on it; we profited from it. It was our supreme revenge on Christianity."

In 1852, Benjaim Disraeli, the Jewish Prime Minister of Britain, wrote: "The influence of the Jews can be traced in the last outbreak of the destructive principle in Europe. An insurrection takes place against tradition, against religion, against property..(Remember this statement was made before the Bolshevik Revolution) men of the Jewish race are always found at the head of every one of them. They cooperate with atheists; the most skillful accumulators of property ally themselves with Communists; this peculiar race ... touches the hand of all the scum and low castes in Europe: and all this because they wish to destroy ungrateful Christianity." (From THE LIFE OF LORD GEORGE BENTINCH, London, 1852. Notice he is not criticizing Jews, he is bragging about them. This same thing happened in 1918, when Trotsky with 247 Jews, the scum of the New York City's East Side, went to Russia with $20-million in gold, donated by the Jew banker, Jacob Schift.)

On page 23, in his book YOU GENTILES, Jewish author Maurice Samuels says: "I do not believe the primal difference between Gentiles and Jews is reconcilable. You and we may come to an understanding, but never to a reconciliation. There will be irritation among us as long as we are in intimate contact."

On page 152, of this same book he writes: "In everything we (Jews) are the destroyers - even in the instruments of destruction to which we turn to for relief. The very socialism, and internationalism through which our choked spirit seeks utterance, which seems to threaten your way of life, are alien to our spirits, demands and needs."

On page 155 - "We Jews, we the destroyers will remain the destroyers. Nothing that you can do will meet our demands and needs..."

Bert Hect, the well-known Jewish Hollywood writer, showed typical Jewish contempt for Christ when he wrote in one of his books: "One of the finest things done by the Jewish mob was the crucifixion of Christ. Intellectually it was a splendid gesture! But trust the mob to bungle it! If I would have had charge of the execution of Christ, I would have shipped him to Rome and would have fed him to the lions. They (Christians) could never have made a Savior out of mincemeat." Remember, these are the same folks some of your pastor's constantly refer to as the "apple of God's eye." (Men such as Jerry Falwell, Billy Graham, Jack Van Impe, and David Webber, frequently do!)

If "corporations have no souls," then it follows that those who manage them can have none either. This is essentially true of Judaism.

It requires a great deal of courage and brains on the part of a Gentile (non~Jew) to stand against the power of Judaism. The Gentile, especially the white Aryan, in his love for freedom, including free competition, seldom combines against the Jewish octopus, as the Jews continually do. The Jew prefers shelter and easy success by identifying himself with his racial or religious parasites. We hear much about the "Oil octopus," the "steel octopus," but these are not bound together by race, unless they are Jew led, which many are. They are not protected by law as a religion. While they are supremely selfish, they are not usually hostile, except to anything which slows down or stops their gains. But the International Jewish octopus, as shown in their Talmud, has a malicious hostility and vindictiveness which goes far beyond its gains, and clothes the entire devilish hypocrisy with a show of religion which our laws forbid us to touch. So strong has this Jewish force become in the countries of Christendom, that they openly attack the Christian religion, while they themselves are protected from retaliation by the Christian element. To further the confusion, much of the Christian world has been "brainwashed" into believing that these anti-Christs are God's Chosen, even though our Lord clearly indicated they are not. (See John 10:26).

There are fools among our secular and religious families who praise the Jew for his business ability. Yet it is eloquent testimony to the capability of the average Gentile, that he can fight his battle for a living, and enjoy his own rugged individualism, his freedom, and his pride in manhood as a producer. For he is not a parasite like the Jew. Merely contrast the Aryans spirit of freedom and independence, the things Christ preached, and contrast this, if you dare, with the cowardice that resides within the parasite. Then tell me, that you want this country to come under their control. Industrial freedom is impossible where parasites abound and our entire economic system in the Free World today, is under the control of Jewish parasites.

Not only is Judaism a "parasitic" religion, they love to brag about it. In the JEWISH COMMUNAL REGISTER, published by the Kehillah of New York City, volume 1917-1918, it states, under the title YOUNG JUDEA, PAGE 1936: "The purpose of YOUNG JUDEA is two4old. It aims to foster or even arouse, if need be, the Jewish consciousness among the Jewish youth which is so necessary for the full realization of the Jewish life; and, secondly, it endeavors to direct Jewish work among the youth along nationalistic and more particularly Zionist lines.. .the organization insists that Jewish life devoid of nationalistic elements is lacking in one of the most essential elements.

"The YOUNG JUDEA ideal, however, is something much greater than just outlined. We fondly look forward to the day when the Young Judea idea is no longer locally American, but shall unite as one powerful organization on the common platform of service to the cause of Zionism, all Jewish youth in the world."

It is interesting to note that foreign Jews were most prominent in these Jewish Youth Organizations - Jews who obviously did not consider themselves to be American.

The Young Judeans openly confess their purpose to train children from the age of ten to twenty to "look forward to the day when the young Judea idea is no longer America."

A parasite can never be a loyal American, and should never be given citizenship, even if born in this country. One result of this Jewish youth training, has been an increasing insolence and rudeness on the part of Jewish youth, especially in the institutions of higher learning. As mentioned before, I encountered this while lecturing on college campuses during the Vietnam War. 100% of the radical elements which were tearing our colleges apart, were Jewish led, men like Jerry Rubin, Abbie Hoffman, etc. Their rude and profane insolence was unbelievable. They were encouraged in their insolence by adult Jews such as the lawyer Kunstler.

The American Jewish Committee Report (p.1413) mentions its objectives to defend the civil and religious rights of Jews around the world, and cites the "terrible Russian massacres of Jews in 1903 and 1905," which shocked the civilized world. But historical facts for that period show no massacres. Instead it shows a Jewish attempt to overthrow the legitimate Russian government, which was put down by government forces, and its perpetrators, who were mostly Jews, were punished under Russian law.

On p. 1416 of this same report they admit to raising a considerable sum of money from what they call the "gullible goyim," to help the criminal element in Russia, which they called "innocent victims."

It is also interesting to note that it was the American Jewish Committees, who in 1909 exerted enough pressure on our American Congress, that they dropped from the Census Reports a section that gave a person's religious preference. Evidently, for some reason or other, Jews do not want the Gentile world to know how many there are in America.

They also opposed at this time (1909), a movement which sought to deprive Asiatics of the privilege of becoming naturalized citizens. They (the Jews) believed that this law could be used against them, since most of them are Asiatic. This certainly makes sense today, when we realize that according to their own statistics, fully 90% of world Jewry today is made up of the "round headed" "Judeo-Mongrels" known as Ashkenazis, who have always been the one's most hostile to the American Way of Life. These are Jews like Golda Meier, and Menachem Begin, who came from a Khazar background and whose ancestors never set foot in Palestine. Alfred Lilienthal, the renowned Jewish author, in his book THE ZIONIST CONNECTION says: "I would not be surprised if some of my gentile readers do not have more right to the Land of Palestine than Menachem Begin."

Since the "turn of this century," America has been inundated by Ashkenazim Jews, most of whom have come direct from Russia. They often boast in their Yiddish publications, how they have been able to defeat American immigration restrictions.

The operations of the American Jewish Committees, which expend enormous sums for the relief of "suffering Jews" (?)here and abroad, reads more like a chronicle of racketeers, who have squandered vast sums, often sucked from gullible Christians under the cloak of religion. This has been done, with the help of many Christian leaders, and has been for the furtherance of the anti-Christ's of Greater Judaism.

THEY HAVE NOT CHANGED IN 2,000 YEARS!

The Roman historian, Tactitus, (Vol.11, p.264) tells us that "while the Assyrians, and after them the Medes and Persians were masters of the East, of all the nations held in subjugation, the Jews were the vilest." (See Jeremiah 24.)

The French historian Renan, commenting on Jewish persecution through the ages said: "Antipathy against the Jews was universal in the ancient world. It cannot be without reason, (This reason is not that they are hated by Satan, because they are God's people, as Baptist evangelist Van Impe would have us believe.) that they were the victims of slaughter, When every nation and age persecutes you, there MUST needs be some motive behind it. Down to our day, the Jew has pushed his way everywhere, claiming common rights. But in fact, the Jew would never stand upon common right; he would hold to his peculiar law; he would insist upon the privileges open to all, and his exceptional privileges in the bargain. He claims the advantages of nationality without being a nation. No people could tolerate this . . . The tolerant foreigner may be of service to a country, as long as he does not interfere in the affairs of that country. There is no justice in claiming family rights in a house which you have not built." (Ernest Renan, ANTI-CHRIST, p.206).

On page 93 of this same book, Renan, commenting on Rome's problems with the Jews, said: "It would have needed perfection itself not to be exasperated by that narrow and haughty temper, that hostility to Greek and Roman culture, that ill-will towards all mankind, which a surface knowledge took to be the essence of Judaism." Isn't this what the Apostle Paul talked about in 1 Thessalonians 2:15, when He said: "They (Jews) please not God and are contrary to all men?"

Ovid Publius, the Roman historian in his book OVIDUS NASCO, said: "They (Jews) are corrupters and tempters and highly inventive of everything concerning the lower forms of sensual pleasure." you Christians who support them, can't or won't you see that they are behind the corruption in Hollywood; on TV; that they are the major supporters of dope, prostitution, homosexuality and abortion? Can't you see this, or are you too stubborn to look at the facts or maybe you are one of those sad Judeo-Christians who have been completely "brainwashed" by the propaganda of the Anti-Christ's until you believe their Jewish fables!

Diodorus Sicus, another Roman historian (BC 20 - AD 20) said of the Jews: "The friends of Antiachus had advised him to expel the Jews, as they would not mix with others, and regarded e

Seneca Lucius Annaeus, (BC 3 - AD 65) said: "These pestilential people have known how to acquire such influence that they, the vanquished, dictate laws to us, the victors." (Today, they are doing this same thing, in every nation of Christendom.)

Appolinus of Tyanna said: "The Jews have been in revolt, not only against the Romans, but against all humanity."

St. Justin (AD 103 - 167) said: "The Jews are hated byall mankind. They are behind all the persecution of Christians."

Tertullian, (AD 169 - 230) said: "The Jews formed the breeding ground of all anti-Christian action."

St. Thomas Aquinas said: "The Jews should not be allowed to keep what they obtain from others through usury."

Martin Luther (1485 - 1546), the Great Reformer said of them: 'Tis a pernicious race, oppressing all men by their usury and rapine. If they give a prince or magistrate a thousand florins, they extort 20,000 from their subjects as payment. We must ever be on guard against them." (This of course is what has happened in America, where our economy was taken over in 1913 by the Federal Reserve System, made up of eight privately, Jew owned banks. They have bled us white ever since.)

Napoleon I, (1769- 1821)said: "I decided to improve the Jews, but I do not want any more of them in my kingdom. Indeed, I have done all to prove my scorn for the most vile nation in the world."

Peter the Great, Czar of Russia (1672 - 1725) said: "I prefer to see in my land Mohammedans and heathen rather than Jews. For the latter are crooks and swindlers."

Paul Krueger, President of South Africa in the middle 1800's said: "If it were possible to eject the Jews from this country without incurring war with Great Britain, then the problem of everlasting peace would be settled in South Africa." Today, the white government of South Africa, for all intents and purposes, is under Jewish control, just as we are in the United States.

The Honorable Mr. Cudendyk, Netherlands Minister to St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1918, said of the Jews: "Bolshevism is organized and worked by Jews whose one object is to destroy."

David Francis, American Ambassador to St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1918, said: "The Bolshevik leaders, mostly of whom are Jews, and 90% whom are returned exiles, care little about Russia or any other country, but are internationalists and are trying to start a world-wide social revolution."

Gen. Ulysses Grant, Civil War general on the Union side, wrote to Major General Hurlbut, Jackson, Mississippi - "Refuse all permits to come south of Jackson for the present. The Israelites (Jews) should especially be kept out." Signed, Nov. 9,1862.

Following this, on Dec. 17,1862, was General Order #11, which said in part: "The Jews as a class are violating every regulation of trade established by the Treasury Department and also Department Orders, and are to be expelled from this Department within twenty four hours of this order."

Shortly thereafter, these Special Orders were rescinded by a Special Order which came from Army HQ in Washington, D.C. It most probably did not come from President Lincoln, but from Gen. Halleck who was an "arm chair" soldier and friendly with the Jews.

Rabbi Stephen Wise, one of the best known Jewish leaders and President of the AMERICAN JEWISH CONGRESS in the 1930's and President of the COUNCIL OF AMERICAN RABBIS, said of Communism: "Some call it Communism; I call it Judaism!" As a defense witness in a libel suit in Chicago, in 1946, where the CHICAGO JEWISH SENTINEL was being sued, Wise said: "The Talmudic Laws and traditions are to us of Jewish faith today, our guide and rule of conduct, as the days when our people were a nation in Palestine. I am not an American Jew, I am a Jewish American."

In 1934, the Jewish author Samuel Roth, in his book JEWS MUST LIVE! wrote:

"Jewish history has been tragic to the Jews and no less tragic to the neighboring nations who have suffered them. Our major vice of old, as of today, is parasitism. We are a people of vultures living on the labor and the good nature of the rest of the world.

"But despite our faults, we would never have done so much damage to the world if it had not been for our genius for evil leadership . . . Granted our parasitism . . . For the first of all creeds is that Jews MUST live. It does not matter how, by what, or to what end. Jews must live!"

He then went on to list the reasons why Jews have been and are now despised: their corrupt and corrupting business and professional practices which ultimately led to their expulsion from country after country throughout the history of western civilization.

During World II, the outstanding General on both sides was without doubt, General George Smith Patton, Jr. Today, attempts have been made to blacken his name, by the same enemy who seeks to destroy Christianity. It was probably because of his outspoken contempt for those in our government who were deliberately attempting to weaken us.

He was a hot tempered man who scorned subterfuge and who spoke his mind. He hated Jewish led Communism and recognized it as a worse enemy than Naziism. This was at a time when the political trend was for American detente with the USSR.

Here are some of his thoughts, as he saw the deliberate manner in which Franklin D. Roosevelt, Winston Churchill, and Dwight David Eisenhower, were selling out this country and all of Eastern Europe to the Mongolian hordes of Communism.

As he looked at what was happening to Post-War Germany, he remarked: "It is very probable, and to me seems eminent, that the doctrines being executed are those promulgated by Morgenthau at the Quebec Conference which was not approved by either our Secretary of War, or the Secretary of State. It was at this meeting in which Morgenthau and later Roosevelt, copying him, stated that Germany was to be de-industrialized and demilitarized, and turned into an agricultural state."

"I can't see how Americans can sink this low. It is Semitic, (Jewish), I'm sure of it."

"Today, I received a letter...in which we were told to give the Jews special accommodations. If for the Jews, then why not for Catholics and Mohammedans?"

"We are also turning over to the French several hundred thousand prisoners of war to be used as slave labor in France. It is amusing to recall that we fought the Revolution in defense of the rights of man and the Civil War to abolish slavery and now we have gone back to both principles.

"This stuff about fraternization is all wet.. All that sort of writing is done by Jews to get revenge. Actually, the Germans are the only decent people left in Europe."

"I also wrote to Secretary of War, Mr. Stimson on the question of pro~Jewish influence in the military government of Germany."

"Frankly, I am opposed to this war criminal stuff, it is Jewish. I am opposed to sending POW's to work as slaves in foreign lands, where many will be starved to death."

"Evidently this virus started by Morgenthau and Baruch is Jewish revenge against all Germans. Harrison and his associates indicate that they feel German civilians should be removed from their houses for the purpose of housing displaced persons... It is against my Anglo-Saxon conscience to remove a person from a house, which is punishment without due process of law... Harrison thinks that Displaced Persons are human beings, which they are not, and this applies especially to the Jews who are lower than animals. I remember in Sicily, when General Gay said: 'It isn't a question of people living with dirty animals but of animals living with dirty people.' They have never seen a Displaced Jew."

"Today, we drove to a Jewish Camp . . . established in what was once a German hospital. The buildings were in a good state of repair when the Jews arrived, but were in a bad state when we got there. They have no sense of human relationships. They decline, were practicable, to use latrines, preferring to relieve themselves on the floor. At Yom Kippur, we entered a large wooden building they called a synagogue, so General Eisenhower could speak to them. It was filled with the greatest stinking bunch of humanity I have ever seen.. The head rabbi was dressed in fur that was similar to that worn by Henry VIII and was very filthy. The smell was so terrible, I almost fainted and three hours later, I lost my lunch just thinking about it."

"Yesterday, General Craig told me he had visited another Jewish camp, in which he found men and women using adjacent toilets which were not covered in any way although screens had been made available to them. The Jews were too lazy to put them up."

"Craig said that conditions were unspeakable, and in one place he found ten people, six men and four women, occupying one bed . . . In my personal opinion no people could have sunk to this level of degradation in the space of four years."

"There is strong Semitic influence in the press. They are trying to do two things: First, implement Communism, and second see that all businessmen who are of German ancestry and non-Jewish, are thrown out of their jobs. They have utterly lost all Anglo-Saxon concepts of justice and feel that a man should be kicked out of work, merely because someone said he was a Nazi. They were shocked when I told them this should not happen without proof of guilt before a court of law."

"I called General McBride today about the density of population in one camp. He told me that it would be necessary to use force to get the Jews to move into adequate quarters. He said that although there was adequate space, the Jews crowd together and refuse to use the latrine. Garbage was piled in one corner of the room, and that was used as a latrine. The Jews were only forced to desist from their nastiness and clean up their mess, when my men threatened to use their bayonets."

"I know about the Lost Tribes of Israel, but this could not apply to the Tribe of Judah from which these current sons of bitches have descended. My personal opinion is that this is a lost tribe - one which has lost all sense of decency!"

Today, in America in particular, countless thousands of pastors in Fundamental and Evangelical Christian churches refuse to recognize the truth of both Scripture and revealed history. They know that the Jews hate Jesus Christ and His church. They know that the anti-Christ's of communism who murdered countless millions of their Christian brethren, were led by Jews. But they are so closely bound up by their church doctrine, which has been subverted to teach that the people Christ said were His enemies, are now His Chosen, that this lie has become encased in their minds in concrete, so that it will take the power of "Holy Spirit dynamite, (truth)" to blow it loose to where they will accept the truth and come out from under the domination of the Judaizers who openly state their desire to destroy Christianity.

These explosions between Jews and those they contemptuously call "goyim," have been going on for over two thousand years and as Renan, said, quoting from Strabo a noted geographer of antiquity: "They (the Jews) have invaded every city, and it is hard to find a place in the world that has not received their tribe, or more correctly, accepted their domination." Renan concludes by saying: "Two elements as opposite as fire and water could not mingle thus without constant danger of the most awful explosion." IT IS COMING SOON!

THE BABYLONIAN TALMUD

To understand modern Jewry, the non-Jew MUST have some knowledge of Jewish religious life, which is revealed in a set of books which Jewish religious authorities call "the life blood of Judaism," the Babylonian Talmud.

Many Christians think of this work as comparable to our Bible. It is not! It is a compilation of Sacred writings of Jewish religious leaders over a period of 1,000 years, beginning in Babylon about 500 BC, and being completed at the Jewish religious seminary in Alexander, Egypt, about 500 AD.

There are actually two Talmuds, the Jerusalem Talmud, and the Babylonian, which is more complete, and which is considered by modern Jewish religious leaders as their Bible.

To those Christians who read this book, and still believe the Jews follow the teachings of Moses, let me quote from the words of the Master Himself. In (John 5:46, 47) when the Jewish religious leaders told Him how they revered and followed Moses, the King replied: "If ye had believed Moses, ye would have believed Me, for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?"

In Rodkinson's translation of the Talmud from Hebrew to English, he admits in his preface to Volume I, that he has removed some of the things which might lead to misunderstanding and misrepresentation. This is a dangerous thing to do, without the authority of the sanctioning body.

The Soncino edition of the Babylonian Talmud, is the most popular with modern Jews, and is the one they consider to be official.

Jacob Elan Conner, the man from whom much of this information was taken, used the Rodkinson Edition in his comments. This was the sanitized version.

The Talmud is not a single volume like the Bible, but is made up of 63 volumes which fill a 12 foot book shelf.

The Talmud was originally translated into English for the benefit of young Jews who could not read Hebrew, but they learned that this gave the English speaking "goyim," the opportunity to know what their religious book really taught, even though there is the pronouncement of the death penalty in the Talmud for any "goyim" who reads it, or any Jew who helps him in his endeavor. This would indicate to me, that the Jew does not want the Gentile to know what his religious book says about them. It's strange that one can go into most any religious book store and get copies of the Scriptures for many religions, only the Jewish religion seems to strive for secrecy. Rodkinson in his preface to Volume I says: "The modern Jew is the product of the Talmud, and every attack against it is an attack upon the Jew." Could it be that the contents of the Talmud are one of the reasons for this attack? We shall see.

Many Christians mistakenly suppose that the modern Jew studies the Old Testament, especially the books of Moses, sometimes called the Torah. But the Torah and the Talmud are "light years" apart in their teachings.

The Talmud is an immense conglomeration of "hair-splitting" religious nonsense, coming from the solemn old rabbis of Judaism, as they dabbled with problems of life, death and human conduct, like children playing with matches in a powder magazine.

These rabbis were mainly concerned with the "tradition of the elders," the sin Jesus condemned more than any other thing. As he said in Matthew 23:23, "Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy and faith..."

The rabbis who wrote the Talmud were slaves to the "tradition of the elders." This came first in their life, before truth, or love of God, to the point where Christ said of them "In vain do they (the Jewish religious leaders) worship me (God), teaching for doctrines the commandments of men." (Matthew 15:9, Christ was quoting from Isaiah 29:18.)

To any honest student of the Talmud, its distinct Jewishness cannot be repudiated. While the Jews have spent much time and money trying to convince the Christian world that the PROTOCOLS OF THE LEARNED ELDERS OF ZION are fake. Yet they accept the Talmud, which confirms all the major premises of the PROTOCOLS. The only way Jewry can repudiate the PROTOCOLS, is by repudiating the TALMUD, because it is filled with damning evidence against them and their spurious religion.

When we notice how strict the Jew is in allowing non~Jews to review his religion, we have a first hand illustration of Jewish intolerance, especially when the power is theirs. When they are not in power, they compromise in any manner necessary to get benefits for their people.

In Volume VIII, page 149, the Talmud speaks about four kinds of capital punishments: by stoning; by beheading; by strangling; and by burning alive. While all these deaths are classified as "capital punishment," only beheading would be recognized among civilized nations. On page 139, it says: "All who are stoned are also hanged; the sages said only a blasphemer and or idolater were hanged, a male with his face towards the people, and the female with her face towards a tree."

The refinement of Jewish cruelty can be seen in that those who were "burned," were burned from the inside first, and then the outside. The Talmud describes it thusly: "The sinner was placed in waste knee deep. Then placing a twisted cloth of coarse material within a soft one, they wound it around his neck. One of the witnesses pulled one end towards himself, the other doing the same thing to force his mouth open. Meanwhile the executioner lights the string (wick) and thrusts it into his mouth, so that it flows down through his inwards and shrinks his entrails. Should the culprit die before the string is thrust into his mouth, then the law of burning has not been properly executed, and therefore his mouth must be opened forcibly with a pair of pinchers. Meanwhile the lighted string is thrust into his mouth so that it may reach his intestines."

This description is taken from the expurgated edition. Can you see anything in the teachings of Jesus which might reflect this background? Even the harsher teachings of Moses, does not sanction this act of unbelievable cruelty. Yet if we were to look into sanction this act of unbelievable cruelty. Yet if we were to look into the torture and murder of Russian Christians by Jewish thugs, this description is merely child's play to what they actually did.

There are 39 acts enumerated in the Talmud which call for the death penalty by stoning, for desecration of the Sabbath. Each one can cover scores of acts. Thus the act of "plowing," would cover, digging in your garden on the Sabbath, weeding, fertilizing, etc. Here is one example of the "nit picking" of Talmudic Judaism. "Sewing with two stitches on the Sabbath was worthy of death, if more than two knots were made."

"Grinding," - such as chopping vegetables, or splitting wood for kindling was worthy of the death penalty if committed on the Sabbath.

"Hammering," which could consist of striking two stones together merited the death penalty.

"Carrying" of such items as hay or straw was forbidden on the Sabbath, if it was more than a mouthful for a cow, or stubble more than a kid could get into it's mouth. The death penalty was pronounced for this heinous act.

"Paring finger or toe nails," on the Sabbath merited the death penalty, for the sages said: "One who pares his nails on the Sabbath, either by means of his nails or teeth; or who plucks hair from his head or lip, is according to the rabbis guilty of death." You Judeo-Christians who "bite your nails," better watch out for your Jewish friends may "do you in." Also, a woman who braided her hair on the Sabbath was culpable.

Here is some more of their "hair-splitting": "One who plucks something from a perforated flower pot is culpable; from a flower pot that is not perforated he is not culpable." (Vol.1, page 181.)

Can you begin to understand why, in the midst of all this religious nonsense, an unknown prophet from Galilee, who causes the blind to see, casts out demons, and heals people on the Sabbath, and who, horror of horrors allows His disciples to pluck ears from the standing corn on the Sabbath, would come under condemnation by these hypocrites of Judaism? The ones He called "whited sepulchres and poisonous snakes," no wonder they set about to kill Him.

The ancient Jewish penalty for desecrating the Sabbath was stoning, and then hanging with their face towards the public. But would you be so bold as to tell me that the good news of the Kingdom, which was preached by our Savior, came from this heathen religion?

In Volume I, appendix, page 381, the Jewish sages tell us of eighteen regulations which were put into force to protect the nation of Jewry from annihilation. There are some of them:

> 1) The Jews were prohibited from partaking of bread, and food which had been prepared by Gentiles.
> 2) They proclaimed that the children of all "goyim~" especially those who are Christian, as being "unclean." This poisoned the minds of Jews against all other people and led to the point where the Apostle Paul said they were "contrary to all men," (1 Thess. 2:15)
> 3) Proclaimed that foreign women were the deadliest enemies of the Jews, and went so far as to prohibit the women of Samaria from working as servants in Jewish homes.

It does not take a brilliant mind to see that this was a racial taboo, since the people who lived in Northern Palestine, were of the family of Abraham, although the "kingdom of Israel" was never connected with that of the Jews. It is also interesting to note that modern Jews, are in the forefront of all integration movements as long as it does not effect their race. The Jewish Encyclopedia goes so far as to state "Israelites were not of Je'wry." Thank God!

The real reason the Jews hated the Samaritans was that of envy. The land north of barren Judea was much more fertile and progressive that those whose capitol was in rugged Jerusalem. We can see by reading the parable of the Good Samaritan, that he was well enough off to have money to pay the innkeeper for the hapless stranger, while the Jews; the priests and Levites, all passed him by and were willing to give no help.

Some who attempt to defend the anti-Christ's of Judaism, say that their parasitic nature came about when the Roman General Titus destroyed their nation in 70 AD But the laws that were followed in the Talmud, were laid down hundreds of years before the time of Christ, and came from the heathen occult background of Babylon.

About 100 years before Titus destroyed Jerusalem, one of the greatest of the Jewish sages, a Rabbi named Hillel said: "What is hateful to thee, do not to thy neighbor. This is the whole law." Notice how close this is in negative form to what Christ taught, in what we now call the Golden Rule. But Hillel's comment is completely destroyed in the Talmud, where in the Mishna volume, Sanhedrin 57, the Jewish rabbis clearly get around this profound statement by declaring: "where it is written Thou shalt do no Injury to your neighbor,. it is not said Thou shalt do no injury to a goy.

While Judaism loves to boast of it's great Hillel, it is careful not to show how his teachings are nullified in the Talmud.

THE UNEXPURGATED TALMUD

There are several sources of the Talmud which have become available in an English translation. In most of these, the evil of the original volumes have been cleverly concealed. One of these was the translation of Rodkinson.

I have in my library a book written by the Jew, Dr. Jacob Neusner, in 1817. It is titled INVITATION TO THE TALMUD and was designed to cleverly "pull the wool over the eyes," of concerned Christians who wanted to know the truth about Talmudic teachings. It completely sanitizes the real Talmud. I have written about this in depth, in my book THE TALMUDIC INFLUENCE ON JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY.

Here are a few of the teachings as they come from the unexpurgated Babylonian Talmud, called the Soncino Edition. These will clearly show you, that the teachings of Christ and Christianity could not have come from this contaminated source. In fact, to say thus, is to border on blasphemy!

As mentioned earlier, the Soncino Edition was an English translation from Hebrew, made specifically for the Jews who could not read Hebrew.

Taking a text from Deuteronomy 7:6, (which was written about Israelites, not Jews. Since there were no people anywhere on earth at this time who were called Jews) we read: "For thou (Israel) are a holy people unto the Lord thy god; and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself, above all people that are on the face of the earth." (This is confirmed in the New Testament in 1 Peter 2:9, where we see why Israel was chosen as a "special, peculiar people." It was not to rule as a dictator, where "every Jew has 2,000 goyim slaves," as the Jews are taught in the Talmud, but to act as an Ambassador Race to spread God's message of redemption to all men everywhere, in fulfillment of God's promise to Abraham in Genesis 12:3.)

This scripture from Deuteronomy has been twisted around by the Talmudic sages to say: "You (Jews) are human beings but the nations of the earth are not human beings, but beasts." In Tosefa Erubim, Vol.111, we read: "On the house of the goy, one (Jews) looks as on the fold of cattle." During recent unpleasantness in Palestine, where an Israeli raid into Arab territory killed a number of women and children, a lady on a Radio Talk Show from Atlanta, Georgia, was speaking of the barbarity of the Israeli soldiers, when a Jewish woman called in to say: "What are you upset about, don't you know those Arabs are only animals" This is a typical Jewish attitude towards non-Jews.

In Talmudic volume (Baba Bathra, 54b) one reads: "The estates of the goy are like wilderness, who first settles in them has the right to them." Again in 55a: "If a Jew has struck his spade into the ground of a goy, he has become master of the whole."

This hardly coincides with the teaching of Christ of Galilee.

When Jews take the denial of private property to all but themselves - and this is the first plank of the Jewish inspired Communist Manifesto: "Abolition of property in land and appli6a-tion of all rents to public purposes" - and they have done this in every country which they have controlled, most notably China and the USSR, there is no way an honest person can draw a line between them and other thieves, robbers, and pirates.

SULCHAN ARUCH, is an authority which is regarded by Jews with special respect. Note this quotation from this volume called the CHOSEN HAMISZPAT, 425, 50: "Those who do not own (follow) Torah (Jewish Law) and the prophets must all be killed. Who has the power to kill them let him kill them openly with the sword; if not, let him use artifices (poisons) until they are done away with."

Foolish "brainwashed" Christians whose pastor's tell them these bandits are God's Chosen, need to look at Paul's words in Galatians 3:1, which paraphrased say: "Oh foolish American Christians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth?..."

An interesting common Jewish practice can be found in SCHULCHAN ARUCH, 1,136. It is called the kOL NIDRE OATH, which is taken by most Jews, religious and un-religious alike on the Day of Atonement. It says: "as vows, oaths, promises, engagements and swearing, which beginning this very day of reconciliation we intend to vow, promise, swear, and bind ourselves to fulfill, we are sorry for already, and they shall be annulled, acquitted, annihilated, abolished, valueless, unimportant, our vows shall be no vows, and our oaths no oaths at all."

How can we trust any Jew, whether he be a government official, a judge, a lawyer, a doctor, or whatever, when he takes an oath of office, knowing that his religious oath has made his oath of allegiance, to serve his country, of no value?

Once again, I challenge anyone to show me how this perverse thinking, fits in with anything taught by true Christianity. Christianity can not come from the same filthy source!

In SULCHAN ARUCH (CHOSEN HAMIUSZPAT, 28, ART, 3 & 4) we read: "If a goy wants a Jew to stand witness against another Jew in a court of law, and the Jew could give fair evidence, he is forbidden to do it; but if a Jew wants a Jew to be a witness in a similar case against a goy, he may do it."

Again in SANHEDRIN, 59a, ABODA ZORAH, 8-6: "Every goy who studies the Talmud, and eyery Jew who helps him in it ought to die."

The code of the Talmudic parasite says: "One (Jew) should and must take false oaths when the goys ask if our books contain anything against them. Then we (Jews) are bound to state on oath that there is nothing like that." This is why most Jewish leaders will claim there is nothing in the TALMUD which is Anti-Gentile, or Anti-Christ. But there is!

These, my Christian friends, are the dogmas of hell, no matter how cleverly the enemy, or your religious leaders try and camouflage them. They will be denied by the Jews, but they are there in their book. They will be denied by the Christian Zionist prostitutes, but they are revealed in the Talmud and in many other Jewish writings. History, both ancient and modern gives eloquent proof that the Christian religion could not have come from the same rotten source as Judaism!

Some of your pastors will no doubt reply that Jesus said: "Love your enemies, do good to them that despitefully use you, and persecute you." These men need to be reminded that Jesus also said in Matthew 23:13-35 - "Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees hypocrites! for he shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men; for ye neither go in yourself; neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in. Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for you devour widows houses, and for pretense make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive great damnation." (condemnation).

"Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye compass (go over) sea and land to make one proselyte (convert), and when he is made, ye make him two-fold more a child of hell than yourselves . . ."

Vs 23 - "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye pay tithe...and have omitted the weightier (more important) matters of the law, judgment, mercy and faith; these (tithes) ought ye to have done, and not leave the others undone."

Vs 25 - "Woe unto you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites: for ye are like whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones and all unclean-ness."

Vs 31 - "Wherefore ye be witnesses, unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them that killed the prophets. Fill ye up the measure (portion) of your fathers. Ye serpents, you generation (Greek - offspring) of vipers (poison snakes), how can ye escape the damnation of hell?"

"Wherefore, behold, I send unto you (Jews) prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues (meeting places) and persecute them from city to city. That upon you (Jews) may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth from Abel.. Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation (offspring - not a period of time as many teach.)"

Vs 38 - "Behold your house (Gk - "oikos" meaning: dwelling; family; home; temple) is left unto you desolate (Gk - "eremos" meaning: "a wilderness; or lay waste.")

Do you mean to honestly tell me that you believe our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, could even possibly come from this unsavory crowd? or that His religion, which we call Christianity, could have come from this cesspool called Judaism?

Look to 1 John 2:22, 23, for a perfect definition of an anti-Christ, (and no group of people fits it as completely as do the Jews): "Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? he is anti-Christ, that denieth the Father and the Son. WHOSOEVER denieth the Son, the SAME HATH NOT THE FATHER; he that acknowledgeth the Son has the Father also."

What must we as Christians do in our actions towards anti-Christs? Turn to 2 John 10,11 - "If any come unto you, and bring not this doctrine (that Jesus is the Christ of God), receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed (help him in any way,) for he that biddeth him God speed, is partaker of his evil deeds."

Now who are you going to believe? Your pastor who tells you the Jews are God's Chosen, whom we MUST help, or the Word of God which says they are His enemies, and if you help them in any way, "you become part of their evil designs?"

You MUST make the decision, and you will answer for it one day when you stand before the King. Will you listen to false teachers as they seek to lead you astray? If you do, be WARNED, you will be held accountable for their evil deeds.

EPILOGUE!

ORIGIN OF THE BLOOD.

The following is taken in part from an article that appeared in the September 1990 issue of my Newsletter, THE CHRISTIAN PATRIOT CRUSADER. It was written by my Assistant Editor, Harry L. Werner, Jr., Rte 2, Box 1137, Robesonia, PA 19551.

He quotes from a book titled THE CHEMISTRY OF THE BLOOD, written by a retired physician, Dr. M. R. De Haan.

"It is now definitely known that the blood which flows in an unborn babies arteries and veins is not derived from the mother, but is produced within the body of the fetus. It is after the male sperm has entered the ovum and a fetus has begun to develop, that the blood appears.

"It is unnecessary that a single drop of blood be given to the developing embryo within the womb of the mother. Scientists say that the mother provides the fetus with the nutritive elements for the building of the little body which forms in her womb, but all the blood which forms is formed by the embryo itself. From the time of conception to the time of birth, not one single drop of blood ever passes from the mother to the child.

A new living human cell consists of 46 chromosomes, half from the father and half from the mother. These contain the genes by which we pass on to our offspring our outward physical traits such as color of hair, eyes, etc. Blood plays no part in the determination of either race, or sex of offspring.

The mother's egg is the female chromosome, while the father's sperm contains both the female (X) and the male (Y) chromosome.

When a male's (X) fertilizes a woman's (X), the result will be a baby girl (XX). If the males' (Y) fertilizes the woman's egg, we have a male child (XY).

When you consider that Jesus Christ, our Savior was born of a woman who had never known a man sexually, and when you know that His mother's egg (X) had to be fertilized by the male (Y) to produce a boy, you can begin to see the miracle of His birth. Christ had no human father, unless you are willing to believe the lies put out by the Judaizers and doubters. Where did the male (Y) chromosome come from?

There are some who maintain that when Adam fell, his blood became contaminated and this was passed on to his descendants. If this teaching was followed to its logical conclusion we would have to believe that blood is sinful and this sin is inherited. This thinking is involved in the Roman Catholic teaching of the "Immaculate conception," which revolves around the principle that human blood is sinful, and therefore sin is inherited through the blood. (This theory was brought into the Catholic church hundreds of years after it's founding.)

The Bible tells us quite plainly that Christ, the "Lamb of God," "Was without spot or blemish." This means to me that there was no contaminated blood in his veins. Therefore, according to Roman Catholic teaching, His earthly mother Mary had to be sinless.

But when we realize that blood in itself cannot be sinful - it does not lust or covet, nor is it tempted to sin - it is the FLESH that is sinful. In Romans 8:3, we read: "For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the FLESH, God sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful FLESH, and for sin, condemned sin in the FLESH." Hebrews 2:14 - "Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, He also Himself likewise took part in the same: that through death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil."

Nowhere does the Bible say that Christ came in the "likeness of sinful blood," but in the "likeness of sinful FLESH."

Jesus, just as you and I, was born of the sinful flesh of His mother Mary, although Catholic doctrine will try and tell you she was sinless. We know that she needed a Savior, and she acknowledges this in the "magnificat," found in Luke 1:46, 47. But Christ, her Son, did not sin, even though He was tempted as we are, (see Hebrews 2:17, 18).

Jesus was a "flesh and blood" man just as you and I. He had to be mortal in order to die as the Lamb of God. He received His mortality from His mother. His divinity from His Father, (Luke 1:35).

FOOTNOTE: The Greek word for "flesh" is SARX meaning "carnal nature," not "flesh and bones." The sin condemned here is the "carnal nature." This does not mean the Virgin Mary was sinless, since she too was a descendant of Adam.

But as His blood did not come from His mother, so, even if she was a Jewess, (which she was not, she was a Gal ilean) her blood would have no effect on her son.

OTHER WITNESSES

We have other witnesses which prove that Jesus was not a Jew. The Jews of His day, were known by their dark complexion and their Jewish looks. In Isaiah, speaking about the wicked Jews, the "corrupt figs," who had returned from Babylonian captivity with the perverted Talmudic religion of Judaism, the prophet said: "The show (Heb - "nakar" meaning: "to look at with recognition") of their countenance (face) doth witness (Heb - "ayd" meaning: "testify") against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not..." It is a strange phenomenon, but often young Jews, who do not have this "Jewish look" develop it as they grow older.

We should also remember that many modern day Jews, those who are mentioned in Rev. 2:9; 3:9, as "they who say they are Jews (Judeans) and are not; but are of the synagogue of Satan," are of Khazar-Mongolian origin and therefore Asiatics. These make up at least 90% of Jewry, according to their own leaders and are known as Ashkenazi Jews. Many of these are fair haired and blue eyed.

It might be of interest to look at some ancient documents which describe Jesus. Modern critics will tell you that there are no known descriptions of Jesus, but this is not true. Most preachers and Bible scholars will tell you that we have no "eye witness" accounts of Jesus. Again not true! It is just not logical to believe that Jesus, who was well-known in Palestine during His three years of Kingdom ministry, would not have come to the attention of Rome. We know that he came into contact with the Roman Governor of Palestine, Pontius Pilate, and Herod of Galilee, from Scriptural accounts. The Romans were most meticulous in the keeping of records and we can reasonably assume that they had written records of Jesus, especially of His trial before Pilate. One such official document of historical records can be found in the Archoko Volume in the Congressional Library in Washington, D.C. There are other such accounts in the Vatican Library in Rome.

The Archko record gives an eye-witness account from Pontius Pilate, who testified that Jesus did not look like, or act like a Jew. Here is the account as it appears in this official record:

To Tiberius CAESAR, Emperor of Rome Noble Sovereign, Greetings:

Among various rumors that came to my ears there was one in particular that came to my attention. A young man it was said, had appeared in Galilee preaching with noble unction a new law in the name of the God who sent him. At first I was apprehensive that his design was to stir up the people against the Romans, but my fears were soon dispelled.

"Jesus of Nazareth spoke rather as a friend of the Romans than of the Jews. One day in passing by the place of Sibe, where there was a great concourse of people, I observed in the midst of the group a young man who was leaning against a tree, calmly addressing the multitude. I was told it was Jesus. This I could easily have suspected, so great was the difference between him and those who listened to him. His golden colored hair and beard gave to his appearance an almost celestial aspect. He appeared to be about thirty years of age. Never have I seen a sweeter or more serene countenance. What a contrast between he and his hearers with their black beards and tawny complexions!

Never have I heard in the words of the philosopher, anything that can compare with the maxims of Jesus. One of the rebellious Jews, so numerous in Jerusalem, asked Jesus if it was lawful to give tribute to Caesar, he replied: 'Render unto Caesar the things which belong to Caesar, and unto God the things which are God's."

I wrote to Jesus requesting an interview with him at the praetorium and he came." (Think now for a moment on your own, without having some preacher tell you that this is fantasy. What would be so strange in this? Even though this meeting is not recorded in the Gospels, we know that most of what Christ did during His three years of public ministry was never recorded (See John 21:25)

Pilate's report to Caesar continues:

"You know that in my veins flows the Spanish mixed with Roman blood... When the Nazarene made his appearance, I was walking in my basilic, and my feet seemed fastened with an iron hand to the marble pavement, and Itrembled in every limb as does a guilty culprit, though the Nazarene was as calm as innocence itself. When he came up to me and stopped, and by a signal sign seemed to say to me, 'I am here!' though he spoke not a word. For some time I contemplated with admiration and awe, this extraordinary type of man, a type unknown to our numerous painters...There was nothing about him that was repelling in its character and I felt awed and tremulous to approach him.

"Jesus, I said to him at last, 'Jesus of Nazareth, for the last three years I have granted you ample freedom of speech (it is not recorded anywhere, either in the Gospels, or Roman historical records, that the Romans ever attempted to suppress Christ's ministry.) nor do I regret it. Your words are those of a sage. I know not whether you have read Socrates or Plato, but this I know, there is in your discourse a majestic simplicity that elevates you above those philosophers.

". . . Your blood shall not be spilled,' I said, with deep emotion, 'you are more precious in my estimation on account of your wisdom than all the turbulent and proud Pharisees who abuse the freedom granted them by Rome. They conspire against Caesar, and convert his bounty into fear, impressing on the unlearned, that Caesar is a tyrant who seeks their ruin. . . I will protect you against them. My prateorium shall be an asylum both day and night.'"

"I am your obedient servant, PONTIUS PILATE."

You can accept this letter, as I do, since it makes sense, or dismiss it as most of your preachers and church Bible scholars will do. Think for yourself! Doesn't it make sense to you that the Jews would try and suppress this truth?

WHAT OTHERS THROUGH HISTORY HAVE SAID ABOUT THE JEWS!

Christian Zionists such as Baptist evangelist Jack Van Impe, Pat Robertson, Jerry Falwell, David Webber, Billy Graham, and many others, would have you believe that the Jews have been persecuted by the rest of the world, for thousands of years, because they were God's Chosen People and were therefore marked for special hatred by Satan. How could they be hated by their own spiritual father? This is what Jesus told the Pharisees in John 8:44 - "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar and the father of it."

Please remember, that this diatribe against the Jews, came from the lips of your Savior. They were not original with Jack Mohr.

There is an old saying: "A guilty conscience needs no accuser," and many have wondered why the Jew always cries "persecution," when he is caught in crimes which make him conspicuous in the public eye. You can criticize a Catholic, or a Protestant without being considered a bigot. You can castigate an Arab, a German, or a Japanese, without drawing much flack, but if you say anything that is uncomplimentary about a Jew, you are immediately labeled as a "fascist," a "neo-Nazi", a "bigot," or worst of all an "anti-Semite." Most of this opposition will come from organized Christian religion, the Judeo-Christians in our society.

The answer for the world's dislike for Jews and Jewry is given by the Apostle Paul in 1 Thessalonians 2:15, where he says of them: "They please not God, and are CONTRARY TO ALL MEN."

The Jewish people were not kicked out of every nation in Europe at one time or another, because they were God's Chosen, but because of their immorality and their shady business practices. Here is what some well known historical figures have said of them, beginning with the Apostle Paul, who had first hand experience with them, having followed their religion fanatically. In Titus 1:10, he says of them: "For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, SPECIALLY THEY OF THE CIRCUMCISION (Jews). Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things they ought not, for filthy lucre's (money) sake."

Mr. Charles Cotesworth Pinckney, one of the framers of our Constitution, published his diary in which he said: "Dr. Benjamin Franklin, a venerable figure weighted down by years and wisdom, leaned one hand on his staff, the other on the table and said: 'There is a greater menace to these United States of America than the strictly Roman . . .'"

"This menace, gentlemen, is the Jew!

"In whatever country Jews have settled in any great numbers they have lowered its moral tone they have depreciated its commercial integrity; have segregated themselves; have not been assimilated; have sneered at and tried to undermine the Christian religion upon which this nation is founded by objecting to its restrictions; have built up a state within a state, and when opposed have tried to strangle that country to death financially.

"If you do not exclude them from the United States in this Constitution, in less than two hundred. years they will have swarmed here in such great numbers that they will dominate and devour the land, change our form of government for which we Americans have shed our blood, given our lives, our substance, jeopardized our liberty, and put into it our best thoughts.

"Gentlemen, Jews are Asiatics! Let them be born where they will, or how many generations they are away from Asia, they will never be otherwise. Their ideas do not conform to an American's, even though they live with us for ten generations. A leopard cannot change its spots. Jews are Asiatics; are a menace to this country if permitted entrance, and should be excluded by this Constitution."

Our Founding Fathers refused to listen to this wise man, and today we are afflicted by the parasites who kill nations wherever they settle. It is an established historical fact which cannot be honestly refuted.

The JEWISH TRANSCRIPT of Seattle, Washington under the dateline May 29, 1936, stated: "the Communists are Jewish controlled, therefore it would be fitting to quote Karl Marx (Mordecai), the Jewish founder of both Socialism and Communism, when he says: 'It is in vain we look for a key to the labyrinth of the Jewish soul in his religion. On the contrary, one must look for the mystery of his religion in the mystery of his nature. What is the basis of Judaism? A practical passion and greed for profit! To what can we reduce its religious worship? To extortion! Who is their real God? CASH!" (This comes to you straight from the "horse's mouth," it is not the ranting of some anti-Semite.)

Henry Ford, Sr., the great Christian industrialist, said: "Corral fifty of the world's wealthiest Jews and there would be no more wars."

From authoritative sources, we can find that President Franklin Roosevelt had seventy-two advisors around him when he led America into World War II, fifty two of these were Jews, most of whom were foreign born.

Over forty years ago, it was admitted that at least 62% of all real estate, industrial plants, natural resources, and banks in the United States were either controlled, or owned outright by Jews. This percentage has risen rapidly since then.

Today the motion picture industry, clothing manufacturing, newspapers, television, drugs and prostitution, as is the liquor industry is Jewish controlled.

The New York Yiddish Daily newspaper, DER TAG, in an editorial on April 9,1936, stated: "The Jews of America, because of their numbers, interest and ability, constitute its greatest political force. They have not usurped this power; it belongs to them as of right! They are going to exercise it as they see fit! What are you goyim going to do about it?

I could go on with a litany of information, showing how Americans, especially the "brainwashed" Christians of the Judeo-Christian churches, have misplaced their confidence in the Jews, when in all actuality they have proven themselves to be the worst enemies of Christianity and brag about their plans to destroy it. Yet it is the leadership of the Judeo-Christian churches who support these enemies of Jesus Christ and attack anyone who attempts to tell them the truth. When will our brainwashed people wake up to the danger that confronts us? Will it take a terror such as that instituted during the Jewish Bolshevik Revolution in Russia to wake you up? Must you be driven to your knees and have your noses rubbed in the dirt before you will wake up and follow the teachings of your God?

I challenge any Rabbi, any recognized Jewish authority, or any Christian scholar, to disprove what has been written in this book. It has not been written out of hatred for Jews, but out of my love and desire to protect White Christian civilization from the fate International Jewry has prepared for us.

Let Christian America in particular, rise up as men to defend our faith, which these Christ haters are attempting to destroy. We need to clean house and kick the money changers out of our National Temple.

Our religious leaders in America have much to answer for before God, as they refuse to recognize what the Scriptures teach about the Jews. They know the Jews hate Jesus Christ and His church; they know the Jews were behind Communism which has murdered over 140-million people, including millions of Christians. They know that Communism has been nothing but a political smoke screen behind which is hid the Christ hating, Christianity destroying, Jewish Talmudic program of One World domination.

Yet very few of these religious leaders have the courage to speak out and tell their people the truth. Some do this through a "Fear of the Jews" syndrome. Some do it because they are afraid to lose their vast TV ministries, if they make enemies of those who control the industry. The praise of men, and it's financial rewards, means more to them than the approval of God. In Christ's own words: "Their reward!" Others like Webber and Van.Impe, are "prostitutes" to Judaism. All of them are hypocrites, because they know that what they are doing is wrong. There is no excuse for any of them, even those who have been "brainwashed" in their seminaries, for all of them refuse to accept the Scriptures at face value, no matter what they say to the contrary. All will be called one day soon, to face the King they have denied and beyond that, they will have to face the wrath of the people they have seduced.

I realize that the truth contained in this book will win further hatred for me, both from Jewish sources, and from the Kosher Christians who back them, but I am forced to say, in the words of the Apostle Paul: "Am I therefore to become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

WHAT IS THE ANSWER?

To concerned Christians there can be only one answer, for their is only one FORMULA FOR SURVIVAL. It will not come through any political process, or through any revival process. It will only be as Christians are willing to put into action the provisions of 2 Chronicles 7:14 - "If my people which are called by my name (Christians), will humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sins, and will HEAL THEIR LAND." My how our Christian people love to quote this verse, but in most cases they are fulfilling the prophecy of Isaiah 29:14 - ". . . Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips to honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear towards me is taught by the precept of men." This is the major problem with Christian America. Most Christians believe that they can approach God in prayer at any time and He will hear. But this is not so. In Isaiah 59:1, we are told that God has not lost His power. He is the same God that opened the waters of the Red Sea for our forefathers. He has not lost His sense of hearing. But verse 2 tells us:

"But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid His face from you that He WILL NOT HEAR!" (Emphasis mine.) It does Christians no good to pray for the safety and welfare of America, if there is unconfessed sin in their life. How can you support God's enemies and expect His blessings? They will never come. 2 Chronicles 19:2, tells us to expect "His wrath" instead.

Healing will not come as we prepare for the critical days ahead by arming ourself and storing food, although these may be necessary for our survival. Our salvation will not come by joining organizations such as the ARYAN NATIONS or the CHRISTIAN PATRIOT'S DEFENSE LEAGUE, although they may have much merit. These will be useless, until we are willing to "straighten out our priorities" and put "first things first!" Which means that God MUST come first in our lives, before ALL else!

One of the finest statements about our survival was written over thirty years ago, by Gerald L. K. Smith. It appeared in his Newsletter, THE CROSS AND THE FLAG. He said: "There is nothing in this universe despised and hated more by Satan and his army, than the name of Jesus Christ. When a man or woman believes in that name, confesses it, and is baptized in that name; they agree within their own soul, and in the presence of God, that from that day forward, everything they do, everything they plan, everything they desire, and everything they hope, will be centered in Jesus Christ.

"When this happens, Satan blows the trumpets of hell and summons forth from the pits and caverns, and the fires, every ally at his command in order to put down that person, the church, the community, the state, and the nation that would put the name of Jesus Christ first in every undertaking, every move, every program and every battle.

"Satan has employed every seductive and deceptive force at his command, whether his imps appear as theological seminary professors, public officials, local preachers, Jewish apostates, or what not. The slogan of this chaotic hour is 'OMIT THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST! DENY HIM! BY REFUSING TO REFER TO HIM!'"

This is the malady we face in 1992. It is because of this that we see gatherings of so-ca~led Christians with their natural enemies, the Jews, where in order to please the anti-Christ's, the name of Jesus is not mentioned. Today, He may not be mentioned in politics; He MUST not be spoken about in our Public School system; He is left out of all aspects of our life, Do you wonder why America is headed for hell now, at a faster rate than any time in our history?

No President, no Senator, no Congressman, no Governor, no one individual in a position of power may use the name of Jesus Christ, for it is anathema to the Jews. To do so, will bring on their heads, the contempt of those Christian traitors who have betrayed the Lord, as surely as Judas did for his "thirty pieces of silver."

Any man, whether he be an evangelist in a little white country church, or a preacher in a great city church, who loves their Lord enough to resist the seduction of the NEW WORLD ORDER, and who speaks up for our Savior and King, can expect scorn, revengeful attitudes, bad accounts of his work in the news, and ridicule and persecution from the Christian world he seeks to serve. Such is the power of the anti-Christ.

The world, the nation, and our Christian religion, can only be saved as men and women, who are unafraid to do what they must, will do it in the name of Jesus Christ.

A "turning point" has been reached in America. This is why the enemy has become so vicious in his attack against Christian Patriots.

But thank God, Satan's hold on America, Canada and the other Israelite nations will be dislodged one day, when His people are willing to faithfully adhere to the orders of the King.

Some who read this book will scoff at the information it contains, but you will never be able to stand before the King and say: "No one ever warned me!"

A time is coming, very soon, I believe, when white Christians in particular will wake up to their identity. When they do, then with this realization will come an understanding of the responsibilities they have towards their Sovereign and His people. When this happens, we will see the prophesy of Amos 5:24 fulfilled: "Judgment will run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream."

When this day comes, our God will plant His Israel people (not the Jews) "upon the land of America, and they shall no more be pulled up out of the land I have given them, saith the Lord God." (Amos 9:15).

Thank God, my Savior was not a Jew, so I do not have to fear the anti-Christ's no matter how fearful they may become for I have the promise of my Savior and king: "But unto you that fear My name, shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in His wings," (Malachi 4:2) MARANATHA!
